that this satisfaction will be participated in by the people generally. The tenantry look with great jealousy upon any measure which is at all calculated to enhance the value of the estates of proprietors. This is the reason why the Fifteen Years' Purchase Bill is so unpopular. Believing fully that the great majority of the proprietors have no title to the estates over which they exercise the rights of ownership, they are exceedingly unwilling to give them what in other circumstances they would consider but a fair consideration for their interest in their estates. Our tenant farmers do not understand the intricacies of the law, and they cannot be convinced that justice requires them to deal with landlords as they deal with the mechanic and the merchant, whose right to the property they have to dispose of is unquestioned. We believe that the Government will do perfectly right to purchase any estate or portion of an estate which may be offered to them at anything like a reasonable price; but we warn them, that they need not expect to gain much popularity by such transactions. Indeed, it would not by any means surprise us if they get soundly abused for their pains.

We have to express our extreme satisfaction that the Government have thought fit to tender assistance to that portion of our farming population which is suffering for want of seed grain. The mode in which this assistance is tendered, takes from it even the appearance of an alms. We are quite sure that an honest and independent, though unfortunate, settler would much rather pay for the use of the public money than to get it for nothing. The interest is a mere trifle, and will take from his application for aid the sting of humiliation. This, to our mind, is well worth paying for. We hope that those who may give their obligations to the Government, will make it a point of honor to meet them when they become due. Gratitude and their own interest both require this; for if the Government, in the present instance, find that any considerable sum of money is lost by this their very laudable effort to relieve the poorer class of farmers, future Governments will be much more reluctant than the present have been, to come to their assistance in other seasons when the need for relief will perhaps be much greater than it now is.

We reserve any remarks we have to make on the subject of education for a future occasion.

ADDRESS:

To the Rev. Thomas Duncan, Minister of St. James', Charlottetown.

Rev. and Dear Brother:—In view of your approaching departure from among us, to visit your paternal home, I have been deputed by the members of this Congregation to offer you an expression of their affectionate regard.

It is now some twelve years since you undertook the duties, during all which time your exemplary deportment, and the high tone of Christian propriety which has so eminently characterized your conduct, have been such as renders it a most pleasing office to myself to be the instrument of carrying out the wishes of so many of your friends.

Our united prayers to Almighty God will be offered at his Throne of Grace that you may safely reach your father land, and after enjoying for a season the society of those so very dear to you, He will enable you to return to us, in renewed health and strength, to resume your honored position in our midst.

I am also desired to ask your acceptance of this purse of one hundred pounds, as a slight mark of our heartfelt gratitude for the many obligations you have placed us under, individually and collectively, during the period of our intercourse.

J. Hamilton Gray, Colonel,
Chairman Congregation Meeting, St. James'.
April 13, 1868.

REPLY:

To the Hon. J. Hamilton Gray, Colonel, &c., &c., &c.

Dear Sir:—It affords me the greatest pleasure to acknowledge this very handsome gift, as well as the Address with which, as Chairman of this meeting, you have honored me.

The assurance of the affectionate regard of the congregation whom I serve, gives me the greatest comfort, while it deepens the consciousness of my own unworthiness. It is with sincere gratitude I now remember the first hearty welcome extended to me, and the continued interest shown by this people in every Christian work.

To you, my dear sir, for this expression of personal esteem, I gladly record my indebtedness, as well as the obligation under which the congregation in general have laid me by their generous reception of my most humble and imperfect services.

The united prayers and cordial sympathy of all my Christian friends will alike render more happy this brief sojourn in my native land, and help to solace me while absent from present duty.

While the liberal gift of one hundred pounds enables me to perform my visit with ease and comfort, it gives me the assurance, that the kindness which has construed so charitably my past imperfections, will render pleasant any prolonged residence here with which the Master may be pleased to favor me; and may the God of peace keep us through His grace, and prepare us for the enjoyment of that blessed intercourse which never ends.

With much respect, yours, &c.
Thomas Duncan.

Farmer's Club.—At a meeting held last evening, the President, Dr. Jenkins, in the chair, it was decided to establish in connection with the Club, a Servants' Registry, where masters can, for 1s. 6d., enter their names and address, together with other particulars they may deem necessary. Servants, in want of employment, will on payment of 9d., have a similar privilege. Members of the Club will hire none who cannot produce satisfactory references, and a written discharge from last employer. A committee was appointed to examine and report on G. W. Millner's Grain Sower, and another to ascertain whether a warehouse for storing grain can be rented for the use of members who choose to bring their oats into the city early in the fall when the roads are good.—Pat.

We have not space in this week's issue to insert the names of those forming the Committees for the relief of persons who require assistance to purchase seed grain; but we may inform our readers that the Road Commissioner is chairman of the Committee appointed for his District. Those who wish to benefit by the provision made by the Government for their relief, would do well to apply as early as possible to the Road Commissioner. We will publish the names of the several Committees in our next week's issue.

The schooner Spray, arrived at this port on the 24th inst., with a cargo of flour and cornmeal, from New York, for M. O'Halloran, Esq. and others. This is the first arrival of the season. Mr. O'Halloran's advertisement will be found in another column.

ON THE DEATH OF THE HON. E. WHELAN.

BY A LADY.

Death paused in his flight o'er our City,
At the hour of clear noon-tide,
And his stern will shewed no pity
When Edward Whelan died.
But we still miss our statesman,
The hand that could wield the pen,
The form that will ne'er be seen again
In the busy haunts of men.

For the Speaker's voice is hushed,
The busy brain is still,
No more will he move the people
By the force of his mighty will.
The hand that was ever willing
The ready pen to guide,
Is resting now from its labours
Within the Churchyard wide.

The heart that was kind and loving
Has throbed its long last throb,
The friend whom we miss from our circle
Is sleeping 'neath the sod.
But the voice and hand and brain,
Now unto dust are given,
We hope to meet our friend again
In the spirit land of Heaven.

A. W.

In our obituary of to day appears a notice of the death of Peter McCallum, Esq., of St. Peter's Bay. The deceased gentleman was a native of Ross-Shire, Scotland, and emigrated to America in 1815, landing at Nova Scotia where he resided until 1828 when he came to this Island. He held for many consecutive years the office of High Sheriff of King's County, and was elected in 1835 to represent that County in the House of Assembly—one of his colleagues being the Hon. Daniel Brenan. In 1833 he was appointed Commissioner of Small Debts, and Justice of the Peace in 1838, having, at the time of his death, only two seniors in the magistracy of the County. He was Lieut. Colonel of Militia, and held many other public offices, the duties of which he performed in a manner creditable to himself and satisfactory to everyone. He was especially looked up to for advice as one of our most experienced magistrates. Universally respected by his acquaintances for his high moral worth and integrity, and beloved by his friends for the uniform kindness of his disposition, his loss will be regretted by all who knew him, and especially by his sorrowing widow and family.

ACROSTIC.

Mild spring-time scarce came e'er he left us to dwell,
In the Mansion prepared for the blessed,
Called away by the Lord to receive the reward,
He merited whilst living on earth.
And parents still mourn for the son they so oft,
Embraced with a parental love,
Long, long will his memory live, but dear friends,
Weep not—he is happy above.
And sisters cease to weep for your brother who's now
Left this world of pain, sorrow and care;
Should we live a life like he who has gone,
Heaven's blessings with him we may share.

An Inquest was held at Fortune Cove, Lot 5, on Saturday, the 4th day of April, by Mr. P. Connick, of Tignish, one of Her Majesty's Coroners for Prince County, on the body of Joseph Arsenaux, which was found in the ice off Goose Harbor, Cascumpec Bay. The deceased went to Malpeque for hay and was returning home with his load on Thursday night last, during a snow-storm, and accidentally drove into the opening off Goose Harbor when he and his horse were drowned. His body was found the next day entangled in the harness under the horse's feet in about four feet of water. It was extricated and conveyed to his residence at Fortune Cove, where the Inquest was held. Mr. James Arsenaux, of Tignish, being present, was chosen foreman of the Jury, which, from the facts elicited, returned a verdict "accidentally drowned."—Com.

The Steamer Princess of Wales left Pope's Wharf at five o'clock this morning, for Pictou—on her first trip for the season. We learn that some ten or twelve passengers went to the wharf at six o'clock, hearing that the Steamer would not leave till that hour, and, of course, missed their passage. It is to be regretted that the Company did not advertize the hour of sailing. This course would have prevented a disappointment and loss to the public of no small moment.

The New Dominion Monthly for April has been received. It contains quite a number of tales and sketches written by British Americans. We have not had time to read them all, but those that we have read, we can honestly recommend. This is the cheapest periodical that we know of. Twelve copies of a very respectable sized magazine containing many well written original articles, besides a large variety of excellently selected matter for One Dollar.

We learn that the following Gentlemen were appointed Sheriffs for the ensuing year viz:

Queen's County, F. Longworth, Esq.
Prince County, Richard Hunt, Esq.
King's County, Wm. Mcgowan, Esq.

The Cape Breton News, of the 11th inst., says:—

We have been favored with the annexed list of vessels returned from the ice to ports in Newfoundland, up to a recent date,—which exhibits most encouraging results. The number of seals taken is large, every vessel having a full load:

Str. Bloodhound, Bainie, Johnston & Co.,	10,200
" Mastiff, Ridley & Sons,	19,000
" Lion, W Grieve & Co.,	16 000
" Nimrod, Job Bros. & Co.,	10, 00
" Hawk, Bowring Bros.,	12,000
Brigt Tons, Punton & Munn,	7,000
" Fanny Bloomer Bowring Bros.,	6,000
" Oban, J. W. Stewart,	6,000
" Aurora, Wm Penney,	8,000

Halifax, April 20.

The funeral of the Hon. B. Wier took place from his late residence, Hollis Street, this afternoon. His remains were followed to their last resting place in Camp Hill Cemetery, by the Charitable Irish Society, the Naval Brigade, Royal Halifax Yacht Club, and a very large concourse of citizens.

On Saturday last, Whelan, the supposed assassin of the Hon. Mr. McGee, was fully committed for trial at the next assizes. It appears that before leaving the Police Court, he acted very violently, and threatened Mr. O'Reilly, Queen's Counsel, who conducted the prosecution, that he would be the next to suffer.

It appears from the telegram received here from Ottawa, that some of the parties, arrested on suspicion of being connected with the assassination of the Hon. Mr. McGee, admitted having been at the Fenian head quarters in New York on the Friday preceding the murder. One of the prisoners who acted as Secretary to Devlin's Election Committee, admitted that he was a Fenian.

—The following are the rewards offered for the discovery and apprehension of the murderer of the Hon. Thomas D'Arcy McGee:—

Imperial Government	$10,000
Dominion of Canada	5,000
City of Montreal	5,000
City and County of Ottawa	4,000
Province of Quebec	2,500
Province of Ontario	2,500

—When the Government was still in Quebec Mr. McGee had a "warning" given, as it is now supposed from Whelan's appearance by him. The gentleman whose fate we deplore had left the House, and was in the act of putting his latchkey in the door at Mrs. Wallace's boarding house, Quebec, precisely as on the Tuesday morning of his murder, when a man who had been unperceived before stepped up, and touching him on the shoulder said, "McGee, this is the second time of warning; you will not be warned a third time."

Mr. McGee used laughingly to tell this, for brave as a lion he felt no fear nor took such precautions as would suggest themselves.

Memoranda.

Schooner Minnie, R. McKenzie, arrived in New London Harbor, on the 21st inst., three days from Canso. Reports having seen off East Point a vessel sunk in 12 fathoms water—apparently American—Mainmast broke off at deck and afloat, held by the main rigging at head. Foremast broke off about fifty feet from deck. Main boom broke off at the strings, held by the main sheet. Spars pine. Probably she is Schooner Fashion a fishing vessel lost last season, belonging to Cape Ann.

This Report was handed to us by Captain John McKenzie, who examined her with a boat. Persons wishing further particulars can have them by applying to Capt. George McKenzie, French River, New London.—S. Journal.

The Entertainment which closed the proceedings of the Charlottetown Debating Society for the season afforded a very pleasant evening's amusement to quite a number of the good people of this City. The Lecture Room of the Temperance Hall was literally crowded, the ladies largely predominating. Where all acquitted themselves so creditably it would, perhaps, be invidious to single out any one from among those who exerted themselves to amuse and instruct the audience; but, we cannot help noticing the very excellent paper, "A night in the House of Commons" read by the Vice-President, Louis Davies, Esq. We have seldom read and never heard a better discription of the British House of Commons. We hope that Mr. Davies will be persuaded to publish his very interesting and well written paper. The musical performances of Messrs. Earle and Vinnicombe contributed very largely to the evening's enjoyment. The thanks of the Society were tendered to these gentlemen for their very welcome assistance as neither of them is, we understand, a member.

We were sorry to hear that the President of the Society, David Laird, Esq., was prevented by indisposition from attending.

The Steamer Princess of Wales left this Port to day for Pictou. She had on board 284 bbls. pork, 5 puns hams, 68 tubs lard, shipped by Owen Connolly, Esq.: 54 bbls Pork, 2 puns. hams, by James Reddin, Esq; 85 bbls. pork, 18 tubs lard, by Mr. J. A. McKenna, and 11 bbls. Pork by —— McKay.

The Alhambra arrived this morning. Her cargo consisted of 2353 barrels of flour and 778 of corn meal. The Brigt. Helen Davies, also arrived this morning from Barbadoes, with a general cargo to Hon. D. Davies.

Diligent and faithful in the discharge of his duties as a teacher, and unobtrusive and courteous in his manners, he secured for himself the respect of his pupils, and the esteem of his acquaintances. He has left a young widow and one child in this Island, and numerous relatives in Nova Scotia, to mourn his departure; but we rejoice to know that they need not sorrow as those who have no hope.
