TRUCK, HOUSE COLLIDE

EDMONTON (CP)—Eight persons were thrown from their beds early Saturday morning when an oil-loaded semi-trailer truck side-swiped their shacklike home, moving it 20 feet off its foundations. One of the occupants received hospital treatment for a scratched leg. No one else was injured.

PRANKSTER UNDISCOVERED KINGSTON, Ont. (CP)—Police Saturday had discovered no clues as to who hoisted the Russian flag on a city hall flagpole Friday. To raise the flag, someone had to climb a fire escape and scramble over a 10-foot ledge to the roof.

The combined monthly and annual meeting of the Ladies Auxillary Souris branch of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L. was held at the Legion Home Monday. The usual one minute's silence in memory of departed members was observed.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary and adopted.

The president, Mrs. Foch MacIntyre, presented a fine report. She expressed her thanks to the members for their help and cooperation during the auxillary's first year of organization.

Mrs. Joseph Cheverie gave the treasurer's report showing a substantial balance and that the auxillary has been able to make a generous gift to the Legion building program undertaken during the past year.

Two members were appointed to purchase tile for the ladies room in the Legion building, also to select blinds.

It was decided to hold a card party early in March. During the election of officers for the new year Mrs. J. D. MacIntyre occupied the chair. Following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Andrew Macintosh; vice president, Mrs. John Jarvis; treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Hennessy; ways and means committee, Mrs. Wendell Birt, Mrs. Foch MacDonald, Mrs. Joseph Cheverie, Mrs. John Jarvis; sick committee, Mrs. Frank Praught, Mrs. Martin Birt.

Lunch was served by the refreshment committee and a social hour was enjoyed by all.

One would be in the west end and the other nearer the centre of the town and not far from the hospital. The council promised consideration of his request.

An amendment was made to the by-laws of the town requiring labor in the town make known to the town clerk within seven days of demand a list of their employees. Subsequent additions to their staffs were to be reported to the town clerk without request within 48 hours of their becoming employed.

Penalties were provided for infringements to the by-law. Fines will be not less than $5 nor more than $50 on conviction, or in lieu of payment 10 to 30 days in the King's County jail.
