Thanks, Gus

AT THE offset we wish to thank our good friend, Gus Flynn, for pinch hitting for us while we were battling a sore throat. We haven't exactly licked the illness yet but we're hoping we are fighting a winning battle.

Gus is the kind of fellow that is able to step in the breach for anybody around a newspaper office and come through with a top flight job. He has done it for several on occasions and seems to delight at helping the other guy out.

A Big Loss

MONTREAL Canadiens suffered a great disaster over the weekend when Henri Richard received a broken arm in that 2-2 tie with the Detroit Red Wings.

Canadiens' supporters are moaning over the loss of the Pocket Rocket. Indeed there are utterances all around us that the Habs can't win without the Pocket. The way Chicago Black Hawks used them Sunday night in the Windy City would seem to indicate the Blakemen are sorely missing Henri Richard.

Bill Ledwell states, without any reservations, that the Montrealers can't go all the way without the services of the younger Richard. However, we aren't going to go right out and agree with Bill. We admit it's a mighty loss for Toe Blake and his cohorts but they still have a lot of great hockey players left.

Of course, some of these great hockey players are playing below par at the present time and they'll will have to pull up their socks from here on if they want the Stanley Cup back in Montreal. Indeed they'll need to be at their very best to oust the third place squad which is most likely to be these same Chicago Black Hawks.

We still insist the Canadiens will be potent despite the loss of Richard. Those who figure differently undoubtedly have just cause for their belief. But we are of the opinion that the loss of the Pocket will cause the Habs to fight all the harder and prove to the hockey world that one man lost to their squad doesn't mean the loss of a championship.

The Vics Surprise

NORTH Sydney Victorias and Amherst Ramblers renew their fight tonight for the right to enter the Maritime finals beginning this coming Saturday night.

What happened at North Sydney Monday night was surely a surprise to us and we believe to a lot of other hockey fans throughout the Maritimes.

Mind you, it wasn't because the Vics lost the battle but the way in which they went down to defeat in their home rink. We had expected at least a close battle and indeed we would not have been surprised if the Vics had taken the opening game.

But they went down to a lopsided 7-1 defeat despite the fact that they widely outshot the visiting Ramblers. It would seem from here that the second game will be nothing more than a formality and that the Ramblers will be ready for the first game of the Maritime finals this Saturday night.

SPORT OF KINGS

Rugged Intermediate Series Predicted By Columnist

Island intermediate "B" semi-finals will have gotten underway when you read this column. The King's County championships, Souris Legion will meet Parkdale with the first game being played in Murray Harbour. And this promises to be a rough and ready series. Most hockey followers agree that the winner of this round should be able to go all the way. Souris and Parkdale met twice already this season, and both were rugged matches. There is no love lost between these two teams. Parkdale won the first encounter 5-3, with the game being called off during the middle of the third period. The rough play, plus arguements had gotten out of hand and wisely the referees called a halt to the proceedings. What the final outcome would have been is hard to say as the Souris lads were making a spirited comeback when the game was called.

Souris won the second game four to two, and while the game did not get out of hand as did the first, it was plenty rugged. If these two teams go at each other too ruggedly, it could be that they'll be pushovers in the finals. Both teams play nearly the same type of hockey, rough and fast, so it really should be an exciting round.

Each year, when the playoffs arrive, there is always one element that enters and mars the picture. And that is the weather. At present we are having a mild spell and according to the forecasters it's going to be with us a while longer. Mild weather, of course, means soft ice, and soft ice means that the hockey dished up is not going to be the calibre that is usual for the colder months. The solution: Artificial Ice.

A WISE PRACTICE

Not only do the hockey teams suffer from the soft ice situation, but so do the people that operate the rinks. Cold weather means money in their pockets, and if they don't make money, they can't afford to operate. In this regard, we think that the management of the Souris Rink, while naturally out to make a profit, lose more gate receipts than do most other rinks on the Island. Most rinks have skating, practices, etc. in the afternoon, and three or four hockey games when the playoffs arrive, and when the mild weather arrives. Not so in Souris. When the mild weather hits, and a playoff hockey game (AND only one game, too) is scheduled, then everything else for that day is cancelled to insure the best possible sheet of ice for the game. This policy, in our opinion, is to be highly commended.

Souris Legion and the Morell High School are the only two teams in Eastern King's still in the hunt for Island honors. All other teams have been eliminated. Morell had no minor teams entered in the playoffs this year, while all Souris teams have been eliminated by teams from Montague, Georgetown and Charlottetown. We would like to add, at this time, that the Georgetown Bantams, coached by John (One Home Run) Walsh look like a team that could go all the way and cop the Island title.

BOWLING PLAYOFFS

Playoffs in the Souris Women's Bowling League will have gotten underway when you read this, but as we said, we said we'd make predictions, and here they are: Series "A" The Go-Getters should pull a major upset by knocking off the Pinch-Hitters in a close series. Series "B" in this round, we're going way out on the limb and calling the Snowflakes to upend the Yankees Sorry Anne. Series "C" In this round the power of the Pixies will prove too much for the Greenhorns and they should emerge victors. The bye into the finals will be won by the Pixies.

The Men's League is nearly finished, and the playoffs in this league should provide the closes matches ever staged since this league began. There is not much difference between the first five teams in this league, so all rounds in the playoffs should be dillies. As soon as the final standings are known, we'll issue our predictions.

Mermaid Goes Into Loop Finals

Mermaid advanced into the Farmer's League finals last night with Brackley by virtue of their 5-1 win over Brackley in the second game of a two-game total-goals series. Mermaid wins the series 5-3.

Mermaid Sniper was B. Scranton and scoring for Brackley was H. Hughes.

WILL FIGHT PATTERSON

Sonny Listen, Philadelphia contender for the heavyweight title, makes clenched fist in his home recently as he said he has refused an offer of 12.-½ percent of total receipts for a heavyweight title fight with Champion Floyd Patterson. Later he said he would meet the Champ on those terms.

N.B. Foursome Tumbles Into Defeated Ranks Tues.

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Sports Editor

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP) — New Brunswick's gallant rink tumbled into the defeated rinks in the Canadian curling championship Tuesday, but only after extending British Columbia to an extra end before going down to a heart-quickening 11-9 defeat and creating a four-rink tie for first place.

The Moncton crew battled the more experienced Reg Stone rink from Trail, B.C. right down to the last rock and could have pulled out a victory except for a light draw rock by 19-year-old Harold (Hap) Mabey, the youngest competitor in this 10-game round - robin tournament.

The youngster with the south-paw delivery played an almost flawless draw game and brought the crowd of 2,378 screaming to its feet with his last rock and with British Columbia lying two. He had to draw almost to the button for shot, but he was about two feet short.

Manitoba and the defending champion Alberta rink also went to an extra end before big Hec Gervais, skip of the Edmonton quartet, counted two for an 11-9 decision.

LOSES FOURTH STRAIGHT

In other fourth-round games Saskatchewan throttled Ontario 13-7, Northern Ontario disposed of Quebec 13-10 and Nova Scotia handed Newfoundland its fourth straight loss 11-9. Prince Edward Island was idle.

With play not scheduled to resume until today's fifth round at 3 p.m. EST, the top of the standing was all scrambled with New Brunswick joining the big three — Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia—on the top rung. Each had three victories and one loss.

Next is Manitoba with two wins and a loss, followed by Ontario and Northern Ontario, each with 2-2 records in four outings. Quebec and Nova Scotia follow with one win and two defeats. Prince Edward Island has lost its three starts and Newfoundland four straight.

New Brunswick opened Tuesday's play in the third draw with a walloping 15-7 triumph over Northern Ontario. It was expected to get it's come-uppance from Stone, a seven-time Canadian championship competitor, but it didn't work out that way.

The eastern rink, skipped by Harold Mabey Sr., who plays third, was down 5-2 after five ends. But it didn't panic, pecked away at British Columbia's lead and, helped along by a big three-end eighth, went ahead 9-8 going into the 12th.

Young Mabey took out two B.C. shot rocks to count one on his second stone and the Trail skip knocked it out for shot and forced the game into the extra end.

GETS BIG MOMENT

Stone was lying two when Mabey went into the hack. It was his big moment but he didn't put enough muscle in his delivery.

That came just a few minutes after Manitoba, skipped by Norm Houck of Winnipeg, counted two in the 12th to even the score at 9-9 in a game that see-sawed back and forth. It was 6-6 after seven, 7-7 after 10, Alberta made it 9-7 on the 11th and Houck tied it on the 12th when he smacked Alberta's shot rock with a runner to count two.

On the 13th Houck chipped a guard on his first rock, leaving Alberta shot on the 12-foot ring. Gervais also hit the guard and the 23-year-old Houck — oldest man on his rink—drew in for shot.

Gervais reverted to a running game and knocked out the Manitoba rock for his double.

In the morning round, New Brunswick broke a three-way tie for first place with an easy 17-5 victory over Northern Ontario. Alberta edged out a close 9-8 win over Nova Scotia. British Columbia with Stone playing an almost faultless draw game, disposed of Saskatchewan 13-8. Quebec beat Prince Edward Island 12-9 and Ontario piled up an 8-0 lead after three ends and went on to a ridiculously easy 15-4 triumph over Newfoundland.

Wednesday's fifth round has the following games carded: Newfoundland vs. Manitoba, New Brunswick vs. Ontario, Quebec vs. British Columbia, Northern Ontario vs. Prince Edward Island and Nova Scotia vs. Saskatchewan. Alberta has the bye.

Rangers Shade Red Wings 5-4

DETROIT (AP) — Defenceman Al Langlois climaxed New York's three goal spree over a two-minute, 18-second third period rally to give Rangers a 5-4 victory over Detroit Red Wings Tuesday night. It was only Langlois' seventh goal of the season.

The victory increased Rangers' margin in fourth place to three points over Detroit in the battle for the last place in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

It was Rangers' first victory in six games, after three loses and two ties and their first win on the road in six games.

New York missed three shots at the open net in the final 35 seconds after coach Sid Abel yanked goalie Hank Bassen for an extra attacker only to have Rangers outfight them for the puck.

Rangers' other scorers were Johnny Wilson, Andy Hebenton, Camille Henry and Larry Cahan.

HOWE GETS 30TH

Gordie Howe scored his 30th goal of the season to give Detroit a 3-2 lead late in the second period and Marc Boileau made it 4-2 for Wings at the 8-minute mark in the third period.

But barely a minute later New York came through with its three-goal burst to wrap up the game.

Andy Bathgate, the league's scoring leader, counted one assist as he boosted his season total to 79 points and increased his lead over Chicago's Bobby Hull to three points.

Howe had two assists in addition to his goal as he boosted his total to 71 to take third place.

Wings have a slight advantage in that they have nine games left to play, three more than Rangers. Detroit now has only one game left with New York there March 14. Detroit plays at Boston Thursday, Toronto Saturday and Boston Sunday while Rangers don't see action they play league-leading Montreal on Sunday.

Royals Clobber Oilers 6-1 To Win N.B.-P.E.I. Crown

Sandy's Royals clinched the N.B.-P.E.I. Senior hockey championship in comparatively easy fashion here Tuesday night at the Sports Arena, walloping New Brunswick's Saint John Oilers 7-1 in the fourth game of a best of five series.

Addition of two players to the Saint John lineup proved little help to the Oilers and the game went along the same lines as the third tilt of the series Monday, which saw the Royals rack up a 9-1 win. Flown in for the game were veteran Nick Nicolle and defenceman Bill Gorham.

The Royals now meet the winners of the Amherst-North Sydney series in a best of three set for the Maritime Senior title with the first game slated for the Arena here Saturday night.

A crowd of approximately 2,-300 fans saw playing coach Buck Whitlock, spearhead the Royal attack with two goals, with Alf Flanagan, his sixth in the series, Ralph Josey, Angie Carroll and Billy Mulligan.

Nick Nicolle scored the lone Saint John marker, in the second period. An oddity about the two games played in Charlottetown were that the only two goals by the Oilers were counted by former Islanders, the first one on Monday night by Billy Hughes and last night's counter by Nick Nicolle.

SHOW LITTLE LIFE

The Oilers who just played in exhibition games during the season showed little life in Tuesday's game till Nicolle put them on the scoresheet at the 16.53 mark of the second period. From then till the end of the period the visitors pepped right up and came close to adding another goal in the dying minutes.

Playing coach Doug MacPhee who was easily the outstanding player for the Saint John team in the second game, saw his high, hard shot which had Roper beaten all the way, hit the cross-bar and bounce back out to the right of Roper.

Charlie McTavish, the Saint John Goalie was the busier of the two goalies. McTavish had 33 shots fired at him, fourteen in the first period, and credited with 27 stops, while Roper in the Royal net, made 23 stops.

At the end of the first period the score was 2-0 and acter two read 3-1. The shamps capped the game with a 4-goal effort in the final period.

The game had just gone past the fifteen-minute mark when Alfie Flanagan grabbed the puck just inside the Saint John blueline, drifted to MacTavish's left and let go with a shot that caught the open corner.

Prior to Flanagan's goal both clubs had some good scoring chances but couldn't break through.

Ralph "Farmer" Josey made it 2-0 before the period ended when he whacked in a rebound from off the backboards.

IS OPPORTUNIST

Buck Whitlock, who has the reputation of being one of the most dangerous men around an opposing net, counted the third Royal goal. The old lamplighter was standing right in front of the Saint John cage when Junior MacLeod let go with a hard shot which he deflected behind a surprised McTavish.

McTavish and MacLeod also combined on another goal in the third and Whitlock proved himself an opportunist again. MacLeod had triggered another hard shot waist high and McTavish got his glove on the rubber but it dropped out and Whitlock standing right on the Saint John doorstep took little time in slapping it in.

Nicolle, who scored the only Saint John goal during a scramble, picked the right corner of the Parkdale net for his goal. At the time Royals were shorthanded, Billy Mulligan serving time.

With close to four minutes gone in the final frame, Angie Carroll, travelling at high speed, picked up a Flanagan relay and cut right in front of the Saint John net, letting go with a shot that deflected off the goalie's pads ino the mesh.

Billy Mulligan who was sent in on a breakaway by linemate Whitlock, beat McTavish cleanly for the fifth goal.

Referees Wilf Miles of Saint John and Don Whelan of Charlottetown handed out a total of 12 penalties, seven of them to the Royals.
