the way that it worked out but we are sure the speedy winger will win his share of awards before he leaves our campus.

defenseman Mario Claude and centerman Tony Cuomo all from St. F.X. Right winger Roy Halpin and defenseman Denis Gingras of Moncton rounded out the selections.

The Godfrey Award, for exemplifying the spirit of intercollegiate hockey and sportsmanlike conduct, shapes up as a two player race. The award, which is sponsored by the Mt. A. Alumni, should come down to a race between Greg Keating of St. F.X. and our Louie Lortie. Statistically, Louie has the edge and we will anxiously await to hear the results.

For McDonald and Cameron, they will both move into the All-Canadian nominations and both have excellent chances to add to their awards.

Despite placing three players on the two teams, coach Jack Hynes was not completely satisfied. He was disappointed that defenseman Larry Arsenaault, who along with McDonald, carried much of the defensive load, was overlooked. In addition Val Mitchell, third in the league in scoring and goal tender Ron McInnis.

However placing three of twelve is a satisfying experience and we are certainly happy for Wilf, Dave and Louie, as we are proud of all the Panthers for a great season.

In conclusion, we would like to wish our players the best of luck in their further award nominations and we will look forward to Wilf or Dave becoming UPEI's first CIAU All-Canadian.

Rounding out the first All-Star team were goalie Steve Davies and right winger Mac Davis of St. Mary's, Greg Keating on left wing from St. F.X. and defenseman Allie McDonald from Dalhousie.

On the second team were goalie Fred Cuvelier, de-
