The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♥	Pass	4 ♥	Pass

Opening lead—jack of clubs.

Declarer can many times accomplish by deception what he cannot achieve on the strict merit of the cards. Anything declarer can do to disguise the strength and weakness of his position is all to the good, and will periodically result in snatching victory from defeat.

The four heart contract was quickly reached, North's jump to game being preemptive in nature and representing a hand with few high cards but lots of trumps.

With the appearance of dummy, South could see he had three spades and a heart to lose. Although he was aware of his weakness in the spade suit, he also realized that probably neither defender could know it was his vulnerable spot.

It was likewise evident that neither defender could possibly be aware of his great diamond strength.

Trading upon this advantage, therefore, South won the club lead with the ace, being careful to discard a diamond from dummy. When he now led the jack of hearts, West won the ace, and having noted the apparent confession of diamond weakness by virtue of the previous discard from dummy, West shifted to the ten of diamonds.

The ruse having succeeded, there was not much more to the play of the hand. The queen of diamonds won the return, another round of trumps was taken, and three high diamonds were cashed, two of dummy's spade losers being discarded. Two spade tricks were then graciously conceded and the contract was made.

Whether West should have shifted to the spade suit after he took the ace of hearts is not the issue here. We can sympathize with West's reluctance to give up his tenace position, a step which might have proved fatal with a different setup but our point is that the original diamond discard didn't make things any easier for West.

Had declarer discarded a spade from dummy on the opening play, it might have induced West to pin his hopes on spades, but as we started out saying, it is declarer's province to lead the defenders up the wrong path.

French Claim Victory Over Algerian Rebels

ALGIERS (CP) — The French said Thursday 225 rebels were killed in eastern Algeria in one of the heaviest battles of the nationalists' spring offensive.

The battle, often hand-to-hand, eddied around Duvivier. The French put their losses at 20 killed.

French paratroopers were dropped far to the south in another heavy battle against rebels reported sweeping into Algeria from Tunisia. No casualty figures were given in this clash.

In a fight near Miliana, 50 miles southwest of Algiers, the French conceded they lost 10 killed. Rebel losses were not given.

Military sources in the border area of Constantine said sinc Feb. 1 the rebels have lost 1,500 killed and 262 captured in eastern Algeria alone.

The combat through rugged country was described as the most bitter since the insurgents began their campaign 3½ years ago. French authorities called upon Foreign Legion paratroopers, backed by air support and artillery, to repulse the rebel forces.

Gambling Bigwig Freed Of Charge

NEW YORK (AP) — A vagrancy charge against Meyer Lansky, Havana gambling bigwig, was dismissed Thursday. Police had brought the charge so they could question him in the Albert Anastasia murder.

"Under our form of government, possible social undesirability is not the equivalent of lawlessness, and the police have failed to establish the crime of vagrancy," said Magistrate Reuben Levy.

"The basic elements, the lack of funds, lack of job and lack of home are not proven."

Lansky was picked up on the charge Feb. 11, shortly after arriving in New York by plane from Havana. He had 1,085 in cash with him at the time. He said he had homes in Hollywood, Fla., and Havana and was in business. Gambling is legal in Cuba.

Hear H-Bomb Plane Crashes

LONDON (Reuters) — The House of Commons Thursday night heard a report that a plane carrying a nuclear weapon crashed recently in southeastern England.

Labor. member Geoffrey de Freitas said during a defence debate "I am told that not long ago an aircraft carrying a nuclear weapon did crash in a field in East Anglia."

East Anglia is a centre for U.S. hydrogen-bomb air bases in Britain. A spokesman at U.S. Air Force headquarters here said tonight he had no record of such a crash.

Home Secretary R. A. Butler told the House of Commons earlier this month that both RAF and U.S. Air Force planes carried nuclear bombs from time to time over Britain.

SERVICES FOR CATONGUAY

VAUDREUIL, Que. (CP)—Funeral service was held here Saturday for Jules Catonguay, 76, former chief electoral officer for Canada, who died at his Ottawa home last Wednesday night. A funeral service first was held at a funeral home in Ottawa Saturday, then the remains were brought to St. Michel's Roman Catholic church here for an 11 a.m. requiem mass. Interment was in St. Michel parish cemetery.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation
