Plowing Taylors Win 3 Classes At Dundas

The plowing Taylors of Upton were in their glory at Dundas yesterday. The perennial winners in horse-drawn plow competitions walked off with three first prizes in as many competitions to top all family winners for the day.

Truelove Taylor won the gang plow competition. Bert Taylor took the walking plow class for boys under 16. Harold Taylor walked off with the novice class triumph.

The match and the fair which accompanies it was officially opened early in the afternoon by Lieutenant-Governor F. Walter Hyndman who congratulated the officers and directors on the excellent layout for their fair.

CLASS B FAIR

S.C. Wright, deputy minister of agriculture for the province, noted that the exhibition is now rated as Class B Fair by federal authorities. The people responsible had worked hard for a long time to merit this distinction, he said.

MURIEL ROSS of Dundas finds the kernels of corn are tart when uncooked. My mummy had them in the pot for dinner the corn would be simply delicious though.
