IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ADDIE WHITEHEAD The death occurred after a lengthy illness at the home of her son George, Hazel Grove, of Mrs. Addie Whitehead, Widow of John Andrew Whitehead, Graham's Road.

Mrs. Whitehead was born in Grahams Road on Sept. 13, 1877 a daughter of the late George MacKinnon and his wife Robina Whitehead MacKinnon. Mrs. Whitehead was a kind Christian woman, she was a member of St. John Presbyterian church, and in her active years was seldom absent from church, she was an active member of the Women's Missionary Society, and Women's Institute.

Her deep faith in the Bible and all its teaching was a great comfort to her, and made painful illness easier to bear. Despite her long illness Mrs. Whitehead was never heard to complain and one of her chief delights was the visits of her many friends, she always had a cheery word for all, and young and old alike enjoyed visiting with her. During her illness she was tenderly cared for by her daughter-in-law, Margaret.

As a neighbor she was always ready to lend a helping hand. But it is her family who feel her passing most keenly.

Left to cherish her memory are two daughters Robina (Mrs. Tupper Taylor) and Elizabeth of Granville, and three sons, Wilfred in Toronto, George of Hazel Grove, and Marshall of Grahams Road, seven grandchildren and one sister Annie (Mrs. Isaac Brown of Moncton, N.B. Her husband predeceased her in 1955.

Funeral services were held from St. Johns Presbyterian Church New London on April 4th., and were conducted by Rev. L. D. Bartlett who spoke words of comfort from St. Johns Gospel Chapter 3 Verse 16.

Favorite hymns of the deceased were sung: Jesus Saviour Pilot Me, and Lead Kindly Light. Pallbearers were Hugh and Arnel MacKinnon, Allison and Duncan MacLeod (nephews) Frances Murray and Walter Wigmore, her remains were laid to rest beside her husband, in New London cemetery.

Beyond the sunset no clouds will gather No cares to threaten, no fears annoy In that fair home land, We'll know no parting Beyond the sunset, for ever more.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Addie Whitehead, wish to thank all their kind friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness, during their recent bereavement. Also all who sent flowers and messages of sympathy.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. JAMES B. O'BRIEN

The death of Mr. James B. O'Brien occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Louis McGuire, Morell on April 4, 1958.

The deceased was born at Windon, on October 6th, 1875, the second eldest of a family of ten. The late Mr. O'Brien was a man of truly Christian principles and was always ready to lend a hand to a friend or neighbor. He will be sorely missed by all who knew him.

At a very early age he had to shoulder the heavy responsibility of helping to support his widowed mother, eight brothers and a sister.

As a young man he left for Portland, U. S. A., where he met and married Mary Ellen Hughes of St. Patrick's Road, later returning to Morell East, fifty-three years ago where he built a comfortable home.

Although his health was failing for the past few years, his cheerful spirit convinced his friends that all was well. As his condition became more serious it was necessary to enter the Charlottetown Hospital for treatment.

After a few weeks it became apparent to his family that all that medical aid and tender care could do was of no avail and they decided to grant his earnest plea to be taken back to the home of his daughter and son-in-law. His last remaining days were made happy by a visit from his son Clarence and daughter, Mabel from U. S. A., and one week later, surrounded by his family and his beloved pastor Rev. Eric Robin, who administered the Last Rites of Holy Mother Church he peacefully gave up his soul to God.

Besides a host of friends, he leaves to mourn, three sons, Clarence, Hyde Park, U.S.A.; Louis, Charlottetown; Charles, Morell East, and three daughters: Etta (Mrs. Louis McGuire) Morell; Mabel, (Mrs. Lawrence Le Blanc), Readville, U. S. A.; Teresa, (Mrs. Frank Connolly), Sinoit's Road; also five brothers and one sister: William, Charlottetown; Lawrence, California; Joe, Portland; Louis, Roxbury; Smith, Roxbury; Henrietta (Mrs. Wilfred Larkin).

His wife predeceased him four years ago. Three brothers Frank, Bromas and Patrick also predeceased him.

The funeral which was largely attended was held at St. Lawrence's Church where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Eric Robin, who also conducted the service at the grave.

The pall bearers were: Bernard Tobin, Alphonus Kelly, Vincent Ranaghan, Jack O'Neill, Wilfred Hogan, John Aylward. Requescat in pace.
