DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:
A Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Alberton and Vicinity

Mrs. J. H. Myrick has returned from visiting relatives in the United States.

Mr. Martin Bandler, student at Dalhousie Medical College, arrived home on Saturday to spend the summer holidays with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. S. Bandler.

Miss Jean McCallum, Mr. George McGregor and Mr. Preston Rose, all of Charlottetown, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilkie on Sunday.

Mr. Erskine Clark has had his dance hall redecorated in buff and golden brown. We have been informed that the weekly dances there will begin on Thursday of this week with music by Ted Ahearn's Orchestra.

Miss Ferne Wilkie and Miss Jean Donald motored from Charlottetown on Saturday to spend the week-end with their parents in Alberton and Alma respectively.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Rix, Mrs. E. W. Hardy, Mrs. Russell Rayner and Mr. Robert Campbell are spending the week-end with relatives in Saint John, N. B.

O'Leary and Vicinity

Herbert Riley, O'Leary, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Williams have left on a trip to Boston and other American centers.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter MacKie, who spent the past several months in Toronto, have returned to their home in West Devon.

Attending the W. M. S. Presbyterian Executive on May 15th Charlottetown were Mrs. R. F. MacAusland, Mrs. Errol Steison and Mrs. A. W. Craswell.

The many friends of Mrs. Foster Smallman of Knutsford who underwent an operation in the Prince County Hospital in Summerside wish her a speedy convalescence.

Mrs. Melsner, who spent the winter months in Halifax, has returned to her home in West Devon. Her daughter, Mrs. Le Guff of Halifax, has been visiting her for the past several days.

The many friends of Mrs. Edwin MacNeil of West Devon will be sorry to learn that she has been a patient in the Western Hospital, Alberton for over a week and unite in wishing her a speedy return to health.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley MacLean, newlyweds, have returned to West Devon after spending several months in Halifax. Mrs. MacLean was formerly Miss Romaine Bulger, Foxley River. Last Friday the residents of West Devon tendered them a wedding reception and they received many useful and serviceable gifts.

The O'Leary United Church Young People's Union met on Thursday night in the Sunday School Room of the church with the President, Miss Hester Boates presiding and conducting the worship. The devotions were in charge of Peter Pate, Jr., who was assisted by Harold MacNeil. A fine worship service was conducted by Miss Eva J. MacLennan. This enjoyable meeting concluded by the Misses Benediction and the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Ben Brunton, Ottawa and her little child arrived at Coleman on Thursday night and will spend about two months the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. MacPhee. Mrs. Brunton was formerly Miss Marion MacPhee and prior to her marriage was employed at Pate and Co. store in O'Leary. Her many friends are delighted to have her home again. Her husband is with the R. C. A. F. and will be stationed in the N. W. T. and Alaska for the next several months.

Billy Bernard, the capable and conscientious Guardian newsboy at O'Leary who meets the alphas every morning with the Guardian, was taken for a flight by Paul's Flying Service on Wednesday to Charlottetown. At the Guardian plant Billy was shown all over the establishment and enjoyed himself very much. Billy is a Grade Nine student at the O'Leary school, a member of the O'Leary United Church and active in the Boy Scouts and also the Young People's Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Therin Ellis of O'Leary accompanied by Mrs. Ellis' mother, Mrs. D. S. Gorrill, O'Leary and her daughter, Mrs. Harvey MacNevin and her two small children of O'Leary, motored to Moncton, N. B. Thursday from which city Mrs. MacNevin (nee Miss Glenn Gorrill) and her children entrained for Aymer, Ontario where she will join her husband, Cpl. Harvey MacNevin, son of Mrs. Dean MacNevin and the late Mr. MacNevin of O'Leary. Accompanying Mrs. MacNevin and children enroute to Aymer were Cpl. Howie Gay, Mrs. Gay and family of the Summerside Air Base who will also be stationed in Aymer.

This Sunday he is expected to be able to assist the O'Leary United Church minister in the service.

Borden and Vicinity

the M. V. Abegweit now in dry-dock there.

The regular auction party of the Borden Women's Institute was held in the town hall on Thursday evening with six tables in play. Ladies prize was won by Mrs. James V. MacDonald. Gifts by Mr. Mannie Gallant with consolation prizes going to Mrs. Eddie Keough and Mr. McGuirk. The freezout prize was also won by Mrs. Keough.

CHELTON W. I.

Mrs. Fred Clark and Mrs. Edgar Doull were joint hostesses to the regular meeting of the Chelton Women's Institute at the latter's home on May 2.

The meeting opened in the usual manner, all the members were present and one visitor welcomed. Roll call was responded to with a gardening hint.

Correspondence was read and discussed. It was moved and seconded that each member bring her donation for the Red Shield Appeal to next meeting, and Mrs. Wilbert Wright, Mrs. Edgar Doull and Miss Evelyn Gardiner are to canvass the remainder of the district. Each member also to try and secure at least one blood donor for the Summerside Clinic.

It was decided that the choice of speaker for Experimental Farm be made at next meeting after further discussion.

After much discussion it was also decided to sponsor the plays or concert that can come at the earliest date; lunch to be served to the players after the entertainment.

Each member is to make about 35 pieces of candy to sell at intermission. In the absence of the school report, the teacher asked for more paper towels. Packages of remnants from Eaton's and Simpson's were opened and admired; plans for a bean supper and Bazaar were discussed briefly, but nothing definite decided on. Plant slips were brought for exchange among the members.

The June meeting is to be held at Mrs. Waldo Gardiner's with Mrs. Roy Campbell in charge of programs. Collection, fifty-five cents.

Following adjournment, an interesting program was carried out by Mrs. Waldo Gardiner, Mrs. Heber Schurman and Mrs. Helge Peterson, after which lunch was served.
