

Unemployment Insurance Coverage For Fishermen

OTTAWA (CP)—Under pressure of a Commons committee, the government may agree to provide unemployment insurance coverage for some 6,000 of Canada's 65,000 fishermen.

Labor Minister Gregg told the industrial relations committee Tuesday night that he and his officials will attempt to determine how many fishermen can be covered by the Unemployment Insurance Act. This number would be provided, coverage as soon as possible.

Mr. Gregg said he couldn't promise that all 6,000 fishermen who are paid wages—the other 60,000 are self-employed or fish on a share basis—would be brought under the act. He wanted to look at the matter further before making any recommendation to the cabinet.

administration; because there are few wage-earners, there are few employers to make contributions into the unemployment insurance fund and keep records; and that fishermen would receive in benefits far more than they contributed.

But the committee was almost unanimous in four hours debate on the subject that fishermen, at least those earning wages, should be brought under the act.

EXCLUSION UNFAIR

Mr. Croll said it is "absolutely indefensible" that wage-earning fishermen be excluded when wage-earners in other industries were covered.

Other members mostly Liberals, contended the act was designed to cover all workers, that each industry should not have to pay its own way.

Fisheries Minister Sinclair said fishermen are entitled to the same insurance protection as other workers. If they could not be covered by the act, his department was considering other schemes, such as "catch insurance," to help them.

The new act increases top benefit payments to jobless but reduces the maximum time in which they can collect regular benefits to 30 weeks from 51 in a year.

department of Toronto Slavic studies tradition of Russian novels is based on criticism of the social order in existence at that time. Today the Communist party has reversed that tradition, he said, forcing writers to approve the political system and all its conditions and to glorify the Soviet regime.

The result, Professor Luckyj said, does not create the school of realism that many imagined. The novel had acquired "an air of utter unreality."

Juanes Vincents, the Spanish artist who died in 1579, painted only religious subjects.

Other speakers during a symposium of view on novel writing at the association's annual meeting were Professor R. L. It's a fact! With Dosco's sensational new furnace coal is fed automatically in such minute quantities that it is virtually spoon fed. In fact 3/4 of a pound of coal will hold fire in the furnace for one hour. This is the new, compact, gleaming white enamel furnace that disposes of its own ashes and leaves the furnace room immaculate.
