Copper Clad Bottoms, to Spread Heat Evenly!

Gleaming stainless steel, with the added advantage of copper clad bottoms, to help you cook quickly and efficiently with less chance of burning. You should not have to use the high heat with these utensils . . . thanks again to the copper clad bottoms. Another feature designed for your convenience is the set-in "steam seal" covers. Cool black "Bakelite" handles enable you to handle pots, even when hot, and convenient hang-up rings let you hang them up—out of the way—when not in use. Pieces available are:
