

AVAILABLE:

SUN STAFF NEEDED FOR NEXT YEAR

Is there anyone out there who aspires to the editorship of the SUN? The positions of editor, typist, production manager, graphic artist and ad manager are all available for the next school year. These positions do not require a great deal of experience, just a whole lot of determination, spirit and an abundance of energy and enthusiasm. Staff members would be happy to discuss the duties and responsibilities that are involved in such an undertaking. If there is no response there just may be no newspaper next year and we don't think anyone wants to see that happen. If you are interested, come up to the SUN office, 4th floor Main Building, Monday March 29th any time in the afternoon or, if this is not convenient for you, just call the SUN office (892-4121 extension 387) to arrange a meeting. Remember it is all up to you to keep the SUN shining.

Why are these women such a valuable Canadian resource?

Canada is rich in resources. But our most precious resource is our skilled workers.

Right now, there are jobs in Canada which can't be filled because we're short of people with the right skills in the trades and new technologies. More and more, finding the right person for a job means finding the man or woman with the right training.

At Employment and Immigration we're creating a new National Training Program to assist in on-the-job and classroom training in the skills Canadian industry needs now, and in the future. Part of our program provides training for women in non-traditional jobs.

The rewards are great because training in priority skills is a key to job security in the 1980's. And more women are entering the trades each year. Last year over 22,000 women took part in on-the-job training. Thousands more benefitted from training in the technologies and other career areas.

That's an investment in Canada's skilled work force. It's an investment in Canadian industry. And it's an investment that helps Canada work.
