

School Consolidation Believed Of Benefit

SOURIS — Albert Fogarty of grade eight work, stating that the percentage of passes at a d failures showed the need for consolidation at the elementary level.

Other officers, also re-elected, are: first vice-president, Mrs. Clara Coffin, Fortune Bridge; second vice-president, Mrs. Mary Ryan, Rock Barra; secretary, Mrs. Mary MacCallum, St. Peter's.

A highlight of the convention was a panel discussion on consolidation of elementary schools. Moderator was Albert Fogarty, and panelists were Mrs. Anna MacCormack, H. J. Hynes, superintendent of schools; and Arthur MacDonald, MLA.

There was general agreement among panel members that although the system of consolidation had its disadvantages, in the long run, pupils did benefit. A broadening of the taxation field was recommended.

In his president's report, Mr. Fogarty dealt with the problem of making progress in the grade eight examinations.

Mr. Hynes also spoke on the trailer on his property. However, under the present regulations this had to be turned down.

In his police report officer Ed Downe reported that eight cases had been before the court and that $217 had been collected in fines. He also reported that he was investigating the matter of two dogs that had been reported for biting children. The council agreed that he take the necessary action at once.

A letter is to be written to Don Wood of Kensington who has recently purchased land to erect a fertilizer plant at Brudenell, extending him any assistance the council is able to give.

A committee, appointed to look into the purchasing of an intercommunication set, asked for further time as they had had no opportunity to come to a decision before the meeting.

Some time was taken up in the discussion of signs leading into the town which had been torn up by vandals.

SPORT ASSISTANCE
A request from Arthur Sullivan for financial assistance for the two provincial championship ball clubs of the town who may participate in Maritime playoffs was dealt with. The council voted that in the event the clubs participated, that $100 be made available for each team.

The mayor and town councilors are to attend the semi-annual meeting of mayors and municipalities in Alberton later this month.

Unique Contribution Seen By Way Of Service Clubs

"Service clubs, like Rotary, have a unique contribution to make to society," Ralph Loomer, district Rotary governor from Palmouth, N.S., said in an address to the Charlottetown Rotary Club yesterday.

Mr. Loomer said "such groups of leading citizens, drawn from many occupations, having different religious, political and social views, who share a common weekly meal in good fellowship based on a common interest in service is a tremendous asset to any locality.

"This is especially true of Rotary, the pioneer of service clubs. The common interests we achieve in such clubs at regular, well-attended, weekly meetings, the fellowship we experience and the balanced program of service we work for is sure to make any community a better, happier, healthier place to live in."

Mt. Stewart Local Holds TF Convention

The Mount Stewart local of the P.E.I. Teacher's Federation held its annual convention yesterday at the Morell Regional High School.

Elected officers of the local for the coming year were Sister Mary Alexander of Grand Tracadie as president, James MacAuley of Morell Regional High School as vice-president and Dan MacDonald also of the MRHS as secretary.

The convention opened at nine in the morning with 75 members attending.

The reports of president Georgia Dover and secretary, Mrs. Mary Malone were heard and they reviewed the local's activities for the past year.

Anna Riley, general secretary of the P.E.I. Teacher's Federation reported on the federation's activities over the year and she spoke on teachers' pension, salaries and research.

Claude Wood of Charlottetown, supervisor for the Morell area, spoke on curriculum, reports, examinations and consolidation.

J. A. S. Williams, director of curriculum for the department of education in Charlottetown, outlined the various changes in curriculum for the year and he also talked on licensing, examinations and workshops.

Wilson Ross, superintendent of regional high schools for the province, spoke on educational advances and also on consolidation.

A letter was read from Charlottetown Board of Trade manager Eric Kipping requesting council to extend the deadline for submissions dealing with the master plan of the city to the end of October.

Council agreed to extend the

HOUSING NEEDS
Coun. Zakem argued that in his opinion, poor housing conditions and low wages were two of the province's biggest problems and "if we're going to subsidize anything, it should be housing."

Col. Storey, who attended yesterday's meeting, told council negotiations with Spencer Brothers Ltd. regarding further theatre facilities for the city had been carried out.

He indicated the company might lease Confederation Centre theatre on a day to day basis as an alternate to building another theatre. Further negotiations will be carried out at a meeting Wednesday, he stated.

"In other council business, health officer Dr. Wendall MacDonald recommended the closing of two buildings, one on Granville Street, and another on Jordan Crescent.

Tax Defaulters Face Car License Removal

MONTAGUE — The mayor, all councilors, the town clerk and policemen were present for the September meeting of the Montague town council held last evening in the town hall.

Two residents, Gilbert Clements and C.A. Shaw also attended the meeting and were welcomed by Mayor Yeo.

During the business part of the meeting a motion was made and carried to the effect that the road from Brudenell Road leading to the incinerator be paved. It was felt that this was a necessity during the spring season especially. It is to be done on a 60-40 basis and the road will be 12 feet wide.

During a discussion on taxes it was decided to have car licenses removed by the town policeman from cars of ratepayers in arrears for personal property. It was the opinion of the council that it was their duty to collect taxes and it would be unfair to allow those who drive cars to be exempt from paying their taxes.

Town clerk G.A. Wightman advised the council that current tax statements had been sent out and that the sum of $3,500 had already been received.
