ISAAC OXENHAM,
Principal

GREENLAND'S ANCIENT COLONY.

In ages pass'd when time was young,
And Greenland's hills were green,
A hardy race from Norway sprung,
Were then in Greenland seen.

One hundred and ninety townships,
They had in time well till'd,
Besides they had some well built ships,
And seamen brave and skilled.

St. Olaf, King of Norway,
Sent Priests unto that land
To preach the faith to those astray,
And teach them Christ's command.

They founded there good Christian schools,
And train'd the youth with care,
In learning and in Christian rules,
Of what their means could spare.

Thlotilda built for them a church (A. D. 1002)
The first in Greenland seen,
Its ruins were found with careful search,
And large it hath been.

Just four hundred and ninety years,
Before Columbus came,
That church was built, though none now bears,
Of good Thlotilda's fame.

The skraelings in an after age, (A. D. 1469)
Came down upon that land,
And swept it in their wanton rage.
Till naught did in it stand.

That land by fire and sword was swept,
Till all was swept away,
And infants then that soundly slept,
Were slaughter'd on that day.

Bishop Andreas that day fell,
In Greenland 'mongst the slain,
And not a soul was left to tell,
The news on hill or plain.

A curse soon came upon the land,
'Tis now all barren soil,
Its intense cold no crop can stand,
Nor man there plough or toil.

The Norsemen there had happy homes,
And well till'd fields of grain,
Where now the hungry wolf dog roams,
Across each dreary plain.

Erricsford, the capital,
Was once a handsome place,
And a well built stone cathedral,
Did once that city grace.

Seventeen bishops there did reign,
And long had passed away,
Before Columbus cross'd the main,
Or saw the light of day.

Note.—Bishop Eric was the first Bishop of Greenland. He was consecrated at Lund, A. D., 1120. He arrived in Greenland 1121, and took charge of the Diocese of Gardar. He resigned his See in three years time, and went to preach the Gospel in Vinland where he spent the remainder of his life. He was succeeded by Bishop Arnald who erected a fine stone cathedral at Erricsford the walls of which are yet standing. Bishop Andreas was the 17th and last Bishop of Greenland. He fell during the skraeling massacre, which took place A. D. 1469, and 83 years before Columbus landed on this continent.

This will be history for those who asser that Columbus was the first European discoverer of America.

St Brendan discovered this continent, A. D., 520. His followers were out off like the Norsemen by savage invaders.

At Newport, in Rhode Island, there is an ancient tower, built no doubt by St. Brendan's followers, as a stronghold against their enemies. Throughout the Eastern States, many foundations have been dug, whose construction showed that they were laid by civilized men. On the banks of the Ohio river, near Ironton there lies a buried city, with paved streets, and well built aqueducts. This river formed the western boundary of St. Brendan's Land.

Women in a Photograph Gallery.
"If you want to see some of the vanities of life, just pass a week in a photographer's gallery," said one who has grown a gray in the art that immortalizes. "That the bulk of our patrons is of the class of handsome people is a common belief, but not a correct one.

Of course pretty women of a certain class get an enormous number of pictures taken, which they use almost as some people do cards, to give away to everybody. But a large number of orders come from people who are positively homely. Photographers rarely do a pretty face full justice. We cannot flatter nature without spoiling the effect entirely, but we can help out a homely person wonderfully, and the shrewd photographer doesn't neglect to do it in every possible way. I have seen commonplace looking women go into ecstasies over pictures of themselves.

"The painter who can use the modifications of light and shade in colors has a big advantage over us, but we have pretty well balanced things by touching up photographs in water colors. It's wonderful what exalted opinions some women have of their personal beauty. I have seen some of them who have been dealing with me for a quarter of a century, and they expect that their pictures of today shall show as attractively as those of decades ago."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

WOMEN'S WAYS.

At 16 or 60 a woman will tell her age. Every married woman believes she is "on her feet" too much.
Women never lose things. They put them in a good place, and can't recall the place.

Women enjoy being martyrs, which may account for the fact that there are so many bad husbands.
An unusual girl is one whose favorite books have something else happen in them besides a love affair.

We can tell how old a woman is by looking at her cooking stove. If she always has something stewing on the back part she is getting along in years.

SUCCESSFUL MEN

MANY OF THEM ARE HANDICAPPED WITH CATARRHAL DISEASES.

Dr. A. W. CHASE

COMES TO THEIR AID.

Success in life is almost impossible for a man with bad breath. Nobody wants to do business with him. Nobody wants to associate with him. He is handicapped everywhere. Offensive breath comes from catarrh; sometimes from catarrh of the stomach, sometimes of the lungs, sometimes of the head, nose, and throat. It is from catarrh somewhere, and catarrh is another name for uncleanness.

Many men understand this, and make every effort to cure it, but it is beyond the reach of ordinary practice. No self-respecting man can ignore catarrh. If he has it in any form he makes constant effort to be rid of it.

There is something about the manner of life and the climate of Canada that seems to breed diseases of the mucous membrane. Medical science ordinarily doesn't try to cure catarrh; it "relieves" it; but Dr. Chase has been curing catarrh for over thirty years, and his name is blessed by thousands who have shaken off the grasp of this insidious disease.
