

THE DAILY EXAMINER

SEPTEMBER 6, 1893.

REMOVAL OF THE STORES.

It is pleasing to learn that, as a result of personal representations which have been made by officers of the militia, the order to remove all stores from this Province will not be executed, until the matter has been more fully considered.

FRANCE AND SIAM.

It is evident that English public opinion is not satisfied with the attitude of France towards Siam. The Government has been plying with questions by independent members of the House of Commons, as to the settlement effected and the course which France is pursuing.

BEHRING SEA DAMAGES.

It is pleasing to note that some persons and papers in the United States are not afraid to give expression to their honest opinions in respect to the payment of damages for the Canadian vessels unlawfully seized in Behring Sea.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The House of Lords has shown tact in the rejection of the House of Commons amendments to the London Improvement Bill, passed by a majority of a hundred and thirty-three.

The New York Nation points out what must be considered a defect in the American system of government. One of the most effective broadsides which the attempt to renege its letter has received was Secretary Carlisle's letter on Senator Vest's proposition to establish a ratio between the white metal and gold of 20 to 1.

Commenting upon the prospects of a change and modification of the United States tariff, the Montreal Star says: "If the general tenor of New York has its way, Canada will be made a special case, and will be continued to be barred by the McKinley tariff—or a worse one—no matter what is done with the rest of the world."

Personal.

Mr. Edgar W. Earle, of Philadelphia, is at the Hotel Davies today. Hon. J. W. Richards, Bideford, was registered at the Hotel Davies last evening.

At the Queen Hotel today: Wm Croft, Toronto; James Law, New Glasgow; D. A. McLeod, Eldon; John J. Macdonald, Orwell.

The late storm was one of the worst ever experienced here. Owing to the high tide which was on a level with the bridge, the milk drawers had to prolong their journey for about four miles.

The cold weather has somewhat lessened the enjoyment of boating on the bay, although some of our gallant youths still indulge in a midnight sail.

Our sportsmen now enjoy themselves in chasing the plover and duck, which are found here in abundance, and even the crane sometimes falls a hapless victim to the deadly aim of the gun well held by a stock.

NEWS NOTES.

Snow fell in Ottawa on Saturday last. The variety in the order of the Garter caused by Lord Derby's death is still called. This highly valued honor is said to be between Lord Dufferin and Lord Aberdeen.

Business is rapidly recovering in Australia, which a few months ago passed through a crisis sharp and sudden, which the United States is now experiencing. An English-speaking people has to bend before the wind of disaster sometimes, but the elasticity in its nature brings it upright again as quickly as it was overthrown in the first place.

WEDDING BELLS.

Notwithstanding the early hour at which the ceremony was performed, there was a large congregation at St. Peter's Cathedral this morning to witness the marriage of Mr. Archibald Irwin, the well-known and highly-esteemed business manager of THE EXAMINER, and Miss Helen Malcolm Mason, second daughter of James D. Mason, Esq., of Charlottetown.

The bride was charmingly attired in a travelling costume of fawn-colored cloth with golden brown trimming and hat to match. The bridesmaids wore cream-colored dresses with hats to match. Tiara and bridesmaid each carried a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

Mr. L. W. Watson presided at the organ, and played two festive processional marches before the ceremony, and Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party left the church.

The popularity of the bride and groom was attested by the large number of presents received. The groom's gift to the bride consisted of a handsome gold watch, and the groom's associates in THE EXAMINER office presented him with a beautiful walnut music cabinet and an address of congratulation. The other presents include: Set carvers, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Calkin; Fan, Mrs. G. F. Williams; Canary and cage, Miss B. Waldman; Prayer book, Rev. T. H. Hunt; Dozen Teaspoons, Gertrude Mason; Silver bell and butter knife, Mr. and Mrs. Cotton; Travelling satchel, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Harris; Biscuit jar, Mr. and Mrs. Morson; Case Fruit Knives and Forks, Mr. G. R. G. Bagnall; Fruit Spoon, Mr. Ernest Earle; Sugar Spoon, Mr. Fred Davies; China Pitcher, Mrs. Frederick Brecken; Bread Spoon, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Carvell; Berry knife and board, Miss Amy Palmer; Egg cruet (silver), Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Campbell; Fancy ornaments, Miss Kate Davies; Fancy bon-trout, Mrs. Malcolm McLeod; Breakfast cruet, Rev. J. S. and Mrs. Simpson; Napkin rings (silver), Mrs. Owen Connolly; Carpet sweeper, Mrs. N. A. Mitchell; Silver salver, Mrs. Geo. Hodgson; Silver ladle, Mr. Jack Davies; Fancy cream pitcher, Miss Rosa Desbrisay; Silver pickle dish, brothers and sisters of groom; Dozen dinner forks (silver), Mr. and Mrs. Irwin; Jewel stand, Miss Marchison; Table napkins, Miss Ella Beer; Set of carvers, Mr. R. M. Young; Leather shopping bag, Miss Simpson; Salad bowl and biscuit jar, Mr. Jim Mason; Butter cooler, Miss Slate; Ice pitcher, Mrs. McQuillan; Drawn work side-board cover, Miss M. McEachern; Fancy toilet set, Mrs. J. F. Robertson; Liqueur cruet, Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Morrison; Marble clock, R. H. Mason; Lemons and set and fancy basket, Miss Catherine McLeod; Silver oyster dish, Mrs. and Miss Burris; Silver pie knife, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Farquharson; Dozen dessert forks (silver), Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Watson; Marble ornament, Miss Fannie McLeod; Fancy salt and pepper shakers, Dr. and Mrs. Hagar; Silver sugar bowl, Miss Ethel Mason; Dresden figure, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bell; Cheese dish, Miss Minnie Crabbe; One dozen dessert spoons, Mr. F. W. Cannon; Picture, (etching), Miss W. Yee; Lace handkercher, Miss Belle Nash; Silver tea service, one dozen dessert knives, one dozen dinner knives and fancy chair from father and mother of the bride; Drawn work tidy, Mrs. A. N. Large; Tea caddy, Miss Wadman.

At the conclusion of the marriage ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Irwin took the western express, on a route to the neighboring provinces on a brief wedding tour. The EXAMINER joins in hearty wishes wishing the young couple a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Mr. George Dalrymple Pope, of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, youngest son of the late Hon. J. C. Pope, was married to-day (Wednesday) in St. John, N. B., to Miss Ethelwyn (Winnie) Calhoun, daughter of J. R. Calhoun Esq., formerly of Summerside. The EXAMINER extends hearty congratulations.

Another interesting event took place at St. John's Episcopal Church, St. John, N. B., on Tuesday afternoon, the principals being Mr. Arthur M. Howe, of the staff of the Brooklyn (N. Y.) Eagle, formerly of Summerside, and Miss Grace De Haven Hamilton, daughter of the late Dr. Hamilton, of St. John.

Miss Bessie Waterman, of Halifax, and J. Tupper, of P. E. Island are to be married in Park Street Church, Halifax, this (Wednesday) evening at 7 o'clock, by the Rev. Allan Simpson.

An Insidious and Deadly Foe.

There are many people who daily suffer from slight pains and aches, but have no dread of disease. Because they are able to attend to daily duties, they imagine the system is sound, and that their little troubles will soon pass away. That slight feeling of nervousness, a condition of bloating, constipation, indigestion, headache and lackache, are not matters to be trifled with. Let us be plain with you and tell you the truth. All these varied symptoms indicate that dreadful disease known as diabetes or Bright's disease. Your safety depends upon instant action; you must use the most effectual means to rid yourself of the slight pains and troubles. Experience and common sense point to that well-tested medicine, Paine's Celery Compound. Through its use thousands in the past have completely banished the seeds of Bright's disease, and saved themselves from the grave. Paine's Celery Compound is the only honest medicine now before the public for all kidney disorders. It is a natural physician, and is preferred in preference to the regular drugs. Neglect not the little ailments and pains, dear friends; go at once to your druggist and ask him for Paine's Celery Compound; he will strongly recommend it.

Tea drinking is an injurious habit, and nervous people should be careful in the use of it. Here we mean that it is not a tonic, and if drunk strong it may be beneficial in its effects as brandy would be. Anyone who feels as if they were a bundle of nerves should give up both tea and tobacco, and use Paine's Celery Compound and Liver Cure, which will help them to exist in comfort without them.

At St. Peter's cathedral on the 6th September, by Rev. James Simpson, M. A. Archibald Irwin to Helen Malcolm Mason, a daughter of J. D. Mason, Esq.

At the Baptist church, Alberton, on Sept. 5th, 1893, by the Rev. J. B. Champion, Jas. G. Knutsford, P. E. I., to Miss Susan Adams of Fort Lo.

At the same place and on the same date by Rev. J. B. Champion, William McGibbon, of Bascampeg Village, to Maggie Smallwood, of O'Leary, P. E. I.

At her residence, Brackley Point, after a brief illness, Mary Armstrong Bell, beloved wife of Edwin McLure, leaving a disconsolate husband, two sons and one daughter to mourn their irreparable loss.

Dearest mother thou hast left us, Here we lose we deeply feel, But 'tis God who hath bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.

At Summerside, on the 2nd inst., Ella May Macneil, aged 14 months, daughter of James A. Macneil.

"This lovely lad, so young, so fair, Called heaven by early doom, Just came to show how sweet a flower In Paradise would bloom."

Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts healthily and agreeably on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleanses the system effectually, dispels colds, head-aches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER

Fatal Accident.

CHATHAM, Sept. 6. The steamer Rastler, returning with a Roman Catholic picnic excursion today met with an accident which resulted in the death of two of the party. The picnic had been to Bartelogue and when returning the wharf at Rosebank was collided with. A steam pipe burst and Miss Morrison was killed. A young lady named Landry jumped overboard and was drowned.

Home Rule Bill.

LONDON, Sept. 6. The Irish Home Rule Bill was up for discussion in the House of Lords yesterday. Earl Spencer moved the second reading of the Bill in a tame speech. The Duke of Devonshire moved its rejection, and was defeated.

Nihilists Arrested.

VIENNA, Sept. 6. Letters from Moscow say that eighty-five students and professors, and five women of rank have been arrested there on suspicion that they were implicated in the plot against the Czar's life.

Vessel's Crew Refuse Duty.

NORTH SYDNEY, Sept. 6. The St. John barque, Highland, from Montreal for Buenos Ayres, lumber laden, was towed in here last night, the crew having refused duty.

Customs Matters.

OTTAWA, Sept. 6. Controller Wallace left for the Maritime Provinces this afternoon. He will be absent from Ottawa a week or ten days. While away he will look after certain Customs matters at St. John and St. Stephens.

Fort Massey Church.

HALIFAX, Sept. 6. Rev. A. Gandier, of Ontario, has accepted the call to Fort Massey church, Halifax.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 4.—Hon. Daniel McNeill, M. P. for Inverness, member of the Nova Scotia government, without office, has resigned his seat in the cabinet on account of differences with his colleagues regarding the subsidizing of local railway in his county.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—Arrangements are now completed for the establishment of the whole sale co-operative society, which has recently been in process of formation, to handle colonial and other produce for the British market. There will be depots in Canada, Ireland, Denmark, France and the United States. Buyers are to leave here immediately to open up trade. The promoters of the new enterprise say that in cheese and fruit, especially, Canada is beating the United States out of the market.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 4.—Every department of Carnegie's steel plant, Homestead, started this morning, giving employment to about 2,000. About 500 are yet idle. They will be provided with work within a few days. About 700 men were given employment in the Bradlock wire works which resumed operations to-day.

EASTERN NOTES.

The recent storm did considerable damage in the eastern part of the Island. A barn belonging to Theodore Fraser, of Charlottetown, was blown down, and considerably damaged. A house belonging to James Sutherland was blown down. A twelve year-old daughter of William Dunphy, of East Baitie, was carrying a scythe, when she was struck by a violent gust of wind which overpowered her and knocked her down. In falling her foot came in contact with the sharp edge of the scythe, which inflicted a deep cut, from which the blood flowed freely. Dr. Muttart, of Souris, was sent for, and succeeded in stopping the flow of blood. She is doing well, and can be expected to recover. The grain crop has been much damaged by the late storm that some of the farmers are cutting with the mower for cattle feed.

Buildings operations are being carried on on an extensive scale in this vicinity. Mr. Charles McKinnon, of Little Harbor, is improving his dwelling house. Angus C. Campbell, of Red Point, has built a new house at East Baitie. Angus Stewart, of Baitie, has also built a new barn. Sept. 5th, 1893. JERRY GOLDEN.

LETTER FROM GLADSTONE.

In Reply to Irish Presbyterian Home Rulers.

A London cable says: Mr Gladstone has replied to the declaration signed by 3,535 Liberal members of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland in connection with the General Assembly, expressive of gratitude to the Home Ruler for his address, the trusted leader of the Liberal party. The reply is as follows:—

DEAR SIRS,—I have received with pleasure the address from 3,500 Presbyterians favorable to Home Rule for Irish purposes in Ireland, which you have been good enough to send me. I attach to it a great value, and I consider it as indicating a large section of favorable opinion, being well aware that the address, which might deter many who entertain similar opinions from a gratuitous manifestation at the present time. I also observe what you have been good enough to state as to the opinion of the character of the address. I look forward with confidence to a very large and early return of Presbyterians in particular to the sentiments in favor of Home Rule, which I have no doubt that you governed them as a body one century ago, but this will in all likelihood be delayed until the parliamentary contest over has been closed. It is constantly assumed by our opponents that what they term the loyal minority is homogeneous on all important matters. The sentiments now placed before me as to the land laws remind me how likely it is that on this subject in particular they will ere long be undecided. I have the honor to be, yours faithfully, W. E. Gladstone."

The Immigration to Canada.

There has been no decrease in the exodus of Canadians from this city during the past month. Many families are leaving daily, and prominent ticket agents say they never saw such a rush among the Canadians to get back to their native land. While there is no doubt that nearly all will return, yet the majority will not come back until the late fall or spring, and there is likely to be a scarcity of help in the mills when they are ready to run again. Some of the families are too poor to return immediately, and will be forced to wait until they earn money enough for transportation charges. Louis Picard, in conversation with a Herald man, said that during the past month he had sent over 200 back to Canada. Some of them, he felt sure, would not return until the spring. In Canada they would always be able to make a living, although they could not do nearly as well as here in fairly prosperous times. Most of those who had gone back had relatives there, and others who had not would work on farms and earn enough money to return after the winter was over.—Fall River Herald.

AMMONIA. In the mechanical world AMMONIA is of great use. Its alkaline effects make it very valuable for the coarser sort of scouring and cleansing. Some manufacturers of Baking Powder resort to it the most frequently and recklessly. They by its use make a great saving in Cream of Tartar, and the consumer suffers in its proving highly injurious to the coating of the stoneware. The Official Report of the Dominion Government shows "that a Baking Powder sold in this vicinity contains Ammonia." AVOID ALL RISK BY USING Woodill's German BAKING POWDER, CONTAINING AMMONIA or ALUM. W. A. WEEKS & CO., Wholesale and Retail, Queen Street. Charlottetown, September 6, 1893.
