

Sophomore Selects The Best

BY T.C.

In intramurals last week we saw two things happen; the Sophomore Selects plunged into first place of the eight team league, and the U.P.E.I. all-star team showed their superiority over Holland College by demolishing them 11-2.

The Sophomore Selects, the talk of the town of late, moved into first place with two big wins, one over Blanchard Hall and the other over Juniors.

The win over Blanchard Hall showed some stiff body checks being thrown and some terrible goal tending by the Blanchard Hall goalie. This is the first time I saw a game where the net stopped more than the goalie. Maybe it was due to the massive offensive skills of the Selects.

The game against the Juniors, all three members of the Select's famous MAT line were full to the gills of beer and still salvaged a 9-1 victory. Some of our less fortunate players came up big for us on this game. When I say less fortunate, I mean players with only 40 goals this season. This win moved the Selects into first place and left slumping Korakin in second.

Another feature that went by last week was the All-Star game between UPEI and Holland College. After talking with Commissioner Vince Mulligan, we both agreed that the whole Select hockey team would indeed be

Larkin Replaces Gallant

In women's action two weeks ago, Bernie 2 and Bernie 1 fought to a scoreless tie on the ice. Bernie 2's goaltender, Jackie Doran, kicked out balls left, right, and centre. Rumour hath it Jackie wants to play nets for the UPEI Varsity Team. Bernie 1 had the majority of play down in Bernie 2's end. If any team should be able to score, it should be Bernie 1.

On the court the week before last, Bernie 2 was desperate for recruits so they picked up Jayne Hogan and Red Murphy, who belong to Bernie 3. The presence of those two players sparked interest in Bernie 2 and they whopped Blanchard 61 - ? (Blanchard was unavailable for comment.) Blanchard should recruit the All-Star Team, but league rules will not permit such justice.

However, we found players nearly as equal as the Sophomores and the results were great. There was some great goaltending by Juniors goalie Peter Dixon, and some superb defensive work by Terry Palmer and J.R. Revell. Playing well defensively for Holland College was Shane Monahan, who was picked for UPEI but got caught up the ice so many times that Holland College signed him for their defense. By the way Holland College played, I don't blame them. Coach Forbie Mulligan changed the MAT line to the FAM line and the results here were excellent also, as they picked up 14 points out of a possible 30, to lead the UPEI team. Some other standouts were Steve MacKinnon and Dave Roach, ex-engineer, now starring in the show "Compass". Even pick ups Randy "Beansprout" Cooke and yours truly, who were picked up 20 minutes after the game started, produced a goal apiece. Playing well offensively for H.C. were Mike "the Lush" McIver, Guy "Redlight" Matheson, and J.R. Revell, who assisted on H.C.'s last goal.

Now that I am talking in terms of all star games, UPEI will select another all star team from UPEI and each will play one another. Since Holland College were so horrible, we could not some real talent. I hear Kim Beattie is a great ball player but just hasn't been asked to play.

Bernie 1 tried with only three players to hold down the powerhouse of Mary Morrison, Carolyn Drake, and Laurie MacKinley but they were too much. The final score for Daze Students was 31-24. I understand that Daze students are now coupled with the hockey team. How about that! Hoopies and puckies playing together.

If Bernie 1 doesn't get any more players out, they'll have to call upon the MacNeill twins play! Elizabeth has her glasses back now and it has been rumoured she'll be ready for action next week.

Prediction of the week: Bernie 3 to enter a team for Women's Intramurals.

possibly think of another game without bursting our sides laughing. Some possible suggestions for the second all star team have been mentioned: players like Sandy "Sniper" MacDonald, and Steve "Sheepdog" Drummond. There are many other players that could make the team. UPEI could make up 5 more all star teams and each one could still beat Holland Colleges team. Just goes to show the depth of the IHL.

Recently I was approached by a Marion team member, alias Tim "Tears" Sears, who asked why I never write about Marion Hall. Well, I admit Marion Hall has an alright team, but why write about some team in third or fourth place when you can write about the best? If you talk with anybody in the IHL they will tell you that the Selects are the best. So Tim, until Marion Hall reach the superiority that the Selects have, you can keep on crying because my motto is "I write about the best and teh hell with the rest."

Just take a look at the league stats. Who has the best goals against average? The Selects. Who has the most goals for? The Selects. Who has the most penalty minutes? The Selects.

What team is in first place in the IHL? The Selects. Who is the best and unconquerable team in the IHL? The Selects.
