Regular Meeting Trinity C. G. I. T.

The regular meeting of the Aketa C. G. I. T. of Trinity United Church was held in the church hall on Thursday, October 16. The meeting opened by repeating the C. G. I. T. purpose and prayer.

The devotional period opened with the call to worship by the leader, Shirley MacLean. The Scripture lesson was read by Anne Beaton, followed by a story by the leader. After singing "Will Your Anchor Hold," the worship service closed by a prayer by the leader.

The president, Marilyn Llewellyn, presided over the business meeting. Plans were made to have a hike on Saturday, October 25th. Roll call was answered by eleven members. The devotional leader for next week will be Elaine Poole. Roll call will be answered with a verse of scripture from the October 26th Sunday School Lesson.

A letter from Miss Alta Prowse, Secretary Treasurer of P. E. I. C. G. I. T. committee regarding the C. G. I. T. Rally to be held in the Baptist Church, Charlottetown, on October 18, was read by the president.

A chapter of the story book, "A Slave Who Dreamed," was read by the leader. After a half hour of games the meeting closed by singing "Taps."

Newlyweds Honoured

Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Kennedy who were married recently, were honoured when the members of the Murray Harbour North Presbyterian Church choir gathered at their home on Friday evening, October 3rd, to extend their congratulations to the couple.

Mr. Kennedy has been an active member of the church for some time and as a token of the esteem and appreciation in which he is held, a suitable address was read by Mr. William Kennedy and a gift of money presented to the couple by Mr. Chester McLure. Mr. Kennedy, on behalf of his to the members for their kindness. The remainder of the evening was spent in singing and social conversation, after which dainty refreshments were served by the ladies.

Induction Service At Montague United Church

An induction service was held last evening in Trinity United Church, Montague, for the Rev. J. Murdoch Fraser of Brooklyn, N.S., who, having accepted a call to this charge, arrived in Montague on Thursday to take over his pastoral duties.

Rev. Wallace MacPherson of Murray Harbour South presided at the service and also gave the induction charge. He was assisted by Rev. A. C. Fraser of Valleyfield who delivered the charge to the members of the church. Rev. W. A. Paterson of Georgetown preached the sermon, taking as his text First Romans, sixth verse. Hymns sung were, "The Church's One Foundation", "Break Thou The Bread of Life", and "Fill Thou My Life, O Lord, My God". A special hymn "I Am Happy in the Service of the King" was sung by the church choir.

Rev. A. C. Fraser expressed sincere regret that the Rev. Dr. A. D. MacKenzie, owing to his serious illness, was unable to be present at this service to which he had looked forward so enthusiastically and hopefully. The service was followed by a reception in the A. D. MacKenzie Hall, where a large number gathered to welcome Rev. Mr. Fraser and Mrs. Fraser to the church and community. Lunch was served by members of the Ladies' Aid and a friendly social hour was enjoyed.

Rev. Mr. Fraser and Mrs. Fraser have taken up residence in the Manse at Montague. Organizations and stresses the need of "personal responsibility," which is essential to fire safety. The danger of fire can only be overcome when employees and others become "fire conscious," he states. People, not things, cause fires, largely due to unthinking carelessness.

Fire prevention articles in newspapers, magazines and bulletins are largely read and profited by, but those who read are not the worst offenders. The careless and indifferent are hard to reach. With this in mind, a new avenue is being opened up in cities of the States where slogans regarding fire prevention are being printed on lead pencils as a constant reminder to those who use them, even the youngest children, of the vigilance necessary to prevent fires.
