Unique Opportunity For Professional Nursing Education

Qualified high school graduates may now secure, at no cost to themselves or family, a professional nursing education leading to the Ontario R. N. with the opportunity of earning $100 per month in their third year.

The pattern of the course, which features the most up-to-date developments in nursing education, consists of two years basic training in classroom and hospital wards, followed by an internship year in the hospital.

There is no tuition fee, and books are supplied by the school. Residence accommodation is available in a modern school building with excellent living and teaching facilities.

Experience is offered in all the major branches of nursing including affiliation in tuberculosis, psychiatry and community nursing.

A loan fund is available to assist applicants in financing transportation and uniform expenses.

Further information may be obtained by writing:
