

UPEI STUDENTS ATTEND NATIONAL NEWMAN CONFERENCE

This year the National Newman Conference was held in Toronto from August 21 to August 26. It was hosted by the University of Toronto Newman Center. About 140 students and chaplains from across Canada attended this year's conference. Four students; John Handerhan, May Peters, Kim MacCarville, and Pat Kenny; along with their chaplain, Sister Alma MacLellan, represented UPEI.

The theme for this year's conference was Reluctant Prophets. The week was filled with guest speakers, workshops, and lots of fun activities. Sunday night opened the week with a liturgy and crazy ice breaker games. On Monday, May Jo Leddy spoke about the "THE SIGNS OF THE TIME". Monday night the students were taken out to cruise of Toronto harbour, where they kicked up their heels and danced the night away. On Tuesday Rev. Haight spoke on how "Jesus was a prophet". The afternoon was spent in celebration of the Eucharist. A talent show was held that night, and every one showed off their stuff., Wednesday morning, MLA Marion Dewar shared with the students how she has been a prophet during her life. Her talk was of great contrast because she supported the laws of abortion. The afternoon was free to explore Toronto. On Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. McIoroghlin told their story of how they have become prophets. The week had quickly disappeared, a banquet was held on Thursday evening to celebrate the conference. On Friday morning the business meeting took place. The conference came to a close with the celebration of the Liturgy.

Next year the Canadian Catholic Students Conference will be hosted by UPEI. If you are interested in helping plan this great event, please contact Sr. Alma, at the chapel, Pat Kenny, Kim MacCarville, or Mark Walker. Get involved you will enjoy it.
