Augustine Cove Camp Given New Name In Essay Contest

The Management Committee of the Augustine Cove Camp at a meeting in Charlottetown on Tuesday evening, announced the winners of the "Name the Camp Contest" — an essay contest by campers who each also submitted a name. The camp will now be known as Augustus Cove Camp.

The winner of the contest in Marion Kay Dixon, North Tryon; other winners in the contest were: Barbara Webster, Augustine Cove, and Marion Staver, North Bedeque.

Numerous financial contributions were received over the past months from men's and women's groups in the Province. Many immediate improvements are planned to the property of Camp Augustus. If continued contributions meet expenditures, the Committee to charge of improvements is Mr. Eric Robinson, David Murphy, Ralph Foy, Sheldon Dixon.

Murray R. To Divide Classroom

MURRAY RIVER — The division of one of the larger rooms to take care of the extra students at the Murray River School was decided upon Wednesday evening at a special meeting of the district ratepayers.

Malcolm MacKenzie, deputy minister of education, and Louis Herring, superintendent, were present.

The meeting was called to consider the addition of a new room, the division of one of the larger rooms and the possibility of joining the Montague Regional High School unit.

The division of a room by a 27-4 vote was the decision with further consideration to be given to join the regional unit at the annual school meeting next spring.

PASSENGERS INJURED

ROME (AP) — Seventeen passengers — including Italian movie producer Carlo Ponti, actress Sophia Loren's husband — were injured Tuesday when a Paris-to-Rome jet airliner hit rough air over the Alps. Ponti and the other injured received medical treatment after the plane landed here. Several stitches were required to close a cut behind Ponti's ear.

Civil Servant Resigns Post

J. Vincent MacLizyre, president of the P.E.I. Public Servants Association, has tendered his resignation from the civil service to the provincial government. It was learned yesterday.

Mr. MacLizyre has accepted the appointment of full-time manager of the newly-formed Capital Credit Union in Charlottetown.

For the past eight years, Mr. MacLizyre has been chief clerk with the department of agriculture.

He played a leading role in the re-organization of the province's civil service about a year ago. His resignation from the civil service will mean that he will also give up the post of president of the service's association. He expects to resign as president at a meeting of association directors next week.

Rally Day Service Features Junior Choir At Montague

MONTAGUE — The girls' choir under the direction of Mrs. Elsie Waterworth, was in charge of the music at the Rally Day service at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Montague, Sunday morning. For offertory, the choir sang "God Reveals His Presence," and a solo "God Careth For Me" was sung by Paulette Clow.

The service was conducted by Rev. B. C. Lowry, B.A., B.D., who spoke on the theme of the service "I will Build My Church." The scripture lesson was read by Marlene McGowan.

Special certificates and jewels were awarded to four members of the Sabbath School for perfect attendance for seven years. They were Barbara Nelson, Peggy Fraser, Kenneth Campbell and Ray Campbell. A certificate for memorizing the Primary Catechism was presented to Fern MacDougall, and diplomas for good attendance (absent less than five Sundays during the year) were presented to 24 members as follows: Barbara Ballum, Judy Clow, Ann Smith, Paulette Clow, Marlene McGowan, Barbara Shaw, Linda O'Connor, Allan Camp-
