News Departments

We require editors and writers to cover various departments, including:

- Sports - Reporting on the various UPEI athletic teams
- A & E - (Arts & Entertainment) reviewing movies (admission on us!) plays, concerts, etc.
- SOS - (Sub-organizations and Student Union) reporting on the going-ons of the various organizations on campus
- CUP - (Canadian University Press) gathering stories from national reporters
- Graphics - Artwork, comics and other funny stuff
- Fiction - Original prose, poetry, fiction
- Consumer - Reporting on money matters
- Photos - Assist our photographer in covering events
- News - Reporting on general campus activities

If you have any interest in any of these areas, whether you want to write on a regular basis or a one-shot deal, please stuff your name and phone number through the slot in the door of our office (Room B06, basement of Main building).

Submissions Policy

Anyone can submit articles this publication but please note the following:

- for legal reasons, all submissions must include author's name and phone number; if you don't want your name printed, please clearly indicate so
- submissions are the property of this publication and will not be returned
- submissions may be dropped off at our office (room B06, basement of Main Building); we cherish typed submissions, submissions on three-and-a-half or five-and-a-quarter disk, or sent through the VAX to account Gem
- any submissions received after 3:00 Monday afternoon will not be published in the upcoming issue, but will be published in the issue of the following week, unless otherwise indicated
- We reserve the right to edit or reject any submission

Clarification

In our October 4 issue, we published a story "Former UPEI student goes into business". Mr. Stephen Dunne of the Business Institute wanted to clarify that Jeff Smith received his loan from the Provincial Department of Industry, not the Business Institute, as stated in the article. The office Mr. Smith was dealing with was in actuality leased from the Business Institute, which is how the confusion arised. Our apologies to all concerned.
