FIVE PRIESTS ORDAINED SATURDAY

Ordained priests of the Roman Catholic Church by His Excellency, Most Rev. Malcolm A. MacEachern, D.D. at a joint ceremony conducted at St. Dunstan's Basilica Saturday morning were, left to right, Rev. James Regis, Hugh Duffy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Duffy, Kinkora; Rev. Joseph Charles William Cheverie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cheverie, Charlottetown; Rev. Joseph Floyd McGaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lazarus McGaugh, Bear River; Rev. Joseph Alphonsus Mullally, son of Mr. George Mullally, and the late Mrs. Mullally, Gowan Brae; Rev. Peter Gerard Dunphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dunphy, Peake's.

The Ordaining Prelate was assisted by the Rev. F. Corcoran, and P. Hammill of the Basilica Staff. Very Rev. P. F. MacDonald was Master of Ceremonies.

Diocesan clergy assisting the various candidates during the ceremony were Rev. Basil Croken assistant to Rev. Peter Dunphy; Rev. Harold Croken assistant to Rev. Regis Duffy; Rev. Eric Rob- in assistant to Rev. Charles Cheverie; Rev. Joseph MacLeod assistant to Rev. Floyd McGaugh; Rev. Wilfred Keefe assistant to Rev. Joseph Mullally. Following the ordination ceremony Bishop MacEachern spoke briefly to the newly ordained priests and their parents.

Each of the newly ordained priests celebrated his first Solemn High Mass in his home parish yesterday: Father Cheverie at St. Dunstan's Basilica; Father Duffy at St. Malachy's, Kinkora; Father Dunphy at St. Teresa's; Father McGaugh at St. Margaret's; and Father Mullally at St. Alexis, Rollo Bay. During the afternoon and evening receptions were held at the homes of their respective parents.

All of the newly ordained priests were members of the S.D.U. Class of '53, at which institution each was successful in obtaining a B.A. degree. The intervening four years they spent in the study of Theology at Holy Heart Seminary, Halifax, N.S.

Father Cheverie, Father Duffy and Father McGaugh will serve in the Diocese of Charlottetown, while Father Mullally and Father Dunphy will conduct their priestly labors in the Archdiocese of Winnipeg.

Take Temporary Sisters' Vows

Commencement Exercises Held At Stella Maris High School

"What wonderful opportunities there are ahead for you whether in the professional or business life providing you continue the good work so well begun," stated Lieut. Col. Leo F. MacDonald, Principal of Queen Square School, in his address to the graduates of Stella Maris High School at Commencement exercises Friday evening, June 14.

Col. MacDonald stressed the excellent training which the graduates had received as students at Stella Maris, and was assured that these principles would be carried on into their public and private life. "Just as character is the expression of the personality of the human being, so does conduct reveal one's character," Col. MacDonald said as he exhorted the graduates to live up to the train-

celebrates First Solemn High Mass

Rev. Charles Cheverie, one of the five priests ordained at the Basilica Saturday morning by Most Rev. Malcolm A. MacEachern, Bishop of Charlottetown, celebrated his first Solemn High Mass at the Basilica yesterday morning at eleven o'clock. Rev. Pius Murnaghan, was Assistant Priest, Rev. Edwin Steele, Deacon of the Mass, and Rev. James Kelly, sub-Deacon.
