

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JULY 19, 1893.

AN INVITATION TO ALL.

The Minister of Finance writes to the President of the Charlottetown Board of Trade in respect to his approaching visit and says: "I shall be glad to hear any delegations representative of the farmers interests, or the fishing interests, or any other interests."

THE KAISER TRIUMPHANT.

The passage of the German Army Bill by a majority of sixteen, is a great triumph for the Emperor and his Chancellor. This measure provides for the increase of the standing army from 456,000 to 573,000 men, and for a proportionate increase in the number of batteries and in the number of effective forces when placed on a war footing. Under the law, the number of men available for active service in case of war will, therefore, be 4,400,000 instead of 3,350,000. The new outlay of money under the act will be $16,000,000 or $17,000,000 per year.

It is not wonderful that the bill was vigorously opposed, or that all the great influence of the Emperor was needed to effect its passage. As to the argument, the government contended that, while the bill involves great sacrifices on the part of the German people, it is really essential to the safety of the Fatherland inasmuch as Germany is hemmed in between France, her open enemy, on the one side, and Russia, a treacherous and threatening rival, on the other, and that the armies of these two powers number those of Germany as three to one. To this the opposition replied that in such an emergency the Triple Alliance brings the forces of Italy and Austro-Hungary into the field with those of Germany, making a combined force of over 1,000,000 on the present peace footing, to be increased to over 7,000,000 in case of war. It was further contended that increase of the German army is not necessary, because no war threatens; that it is extremely improbable that Russia and France will attack simultaneously; that Russia will not consider it necessary to declare war if France should pick a quarrel with Germany, and that if Russia were to begin the attack, France would wait to see how the fortunes of war turned; that the winner in the next war will be the side that gains the first two or three pitched battles, and that these will be decided, as of old, by the best generalship.

The Government has triumphed in the struggle and the Emperor is happy, and Von Caprivi is to be made a prince. How the nation at large will be affected remains to be seen. If peace be maintained, so many men withdrawn from profitable pursuits and such immense sums taken from the taxpayers and uselessly expended, must, of necessity, check national prosperity, if it does not, indeed, tend to national poverty. In case of war, the bill will, of course, provide that which the nation will need. The decisions are, indeed, rather more warlike than they were. Already we hear, as a result of the passage of the bill, that Russia is about to add to her great armament, in order that she may be the ablest to cope with Germany.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The statements of the Government Savings Bank for June show: Deposits, $345,084; withdrawals, $268,602; balance at credit of depositors, $1,126,545. The Ottawa Free Press has issued a special edition, showing the prosperity of Ottawa, which has, under the Conservative Government, almost doubled its population. Montreal Gazette: "It is a striking evidence of the intelligence of our population, of the extension of transportation facilities and of the accommodation afforded by the Government to the public, that since 1880 the postal revenue has mounted up from $1,252,426 to $2,818,452, or by 125 per cent., a rate enormously greater than the growth of the population."

It is somewhat of a revelation to learn that not only is Russia a very large producer of cotton goods of almost every variety, but that she is about to become a considerable grower of raw cotton. At the World's Fair, Russia has made an exceptionally good display of these products, the correspondent of the New York Commercial Bulletin remarking that her display is the largest and most varied, and in many respects the best, of all the foreign nations. The following is a statement of the public debt as it appeared on the 30th of June: Gross debt, $299,694,988; Assets, 59,820,189. This shows a reduction during the month of June of $68,467, and during the last twelve months of $4,256,625, but these figures will be materially changed when the accounts for the year are finally adjusted.

Thrilling Canoeing Accident. SEVERAL BRITISH, B. C., July 16.—A man named Bowers, who makes a living by fishing and trapping on the river, took his wife and little son out on the river in a canoe. Seeing a ground hog on the shore, he fired at it with a musket. The recoil overturned the canoe. The boy grasped the bush that overhung the water, and thinking he was safe, Bowers swam out after his wife, who was holding on to the canoe, which was rapidly nearing the head of McDonald's Falls. He was unable to reach his wife, who was carried over the falls, and returned to his son, who in the meantime had relaxed his hold and was drowned. The woman, though badly bruised, was not killed in the falls, and being carried into an eddy gained the shore below. The boy's body was recovered shortly after the accident.

The Victims of Perjury. PEPPERIDGE, July 16.—Patrick J. Gallagher and J. M. Davison, now in the penitentiary for self confession of complicity in the alleged poisoning of non-union workmen in the Homestead mill, have made another confession in which they say they were intimidated by Pinkerton men and paid to swear away the liberty of Master Workmen Hugh F. Dempsey and Robert J. Healy, both of whom, they now assert, were innocent of the crime of which they were convicted. They state that so far as they knew there was no poison administered to men in the Homestead mill, and an effort will now be made to secure the pardon of Dempsey and Healy.

The German Army Bill Passed. BERLIN, July 16.—Emperor William's army bill passed the Reichstag today by a vote of 201 to 186. The Reichstag then closed.

FIRST DISTRICT OF PRINCE COUNTY.

The Liberal Party's Platform. (Special by Telephone to The Examiner.) ALBERTON, July 19.

The Liberals of the First District of Prince County met in convention at Alberton yesterday to select candidates to contest the district at the coming election. After an exciting session, Messrs. Matheson and McLellan were declared the choice of the convention. They stood: Matheson, 24; McLellan, 26; Rogers, 16; Gallant, 11.

AN EXPERIMENT.

Not long since it was announced that the Evans' Dispensary Law had gone into effect in the State of South Carolina. This law is a modification of the Gottleber system. It totally prohibits the sale of liquor by any individual on their own account, and puts the whole business into the hands of State officials. A commissioner is to buy all the liquors which are to be sold in the State. He can sell only the county dispensers, and the liquors with which he furnishes these must have first been tested and pronounced pure by the chemist of the South Carolina College. There is a protective element in the traffic for he must give the preference to the product of the South Carolina distillers and brewers. These, however, may hardly be grateful for the arrangement, seeing that they can no longer sell in the State. The county dispenser can sell only in packages of not less than half a pint, and these are not to be opened on the premises. He will be bound by oath to sell to no minors, drunkards, persons or habitual drunkards, or to any persons not personally known to him, or duly vouched for. The purchaser is required in each instance to sign a blank giving age, residence, etc. The profits which it is expected will be large, as prices are to be considerably advanced, are to be divided equally between the State treasury and those of the commission. Charleston has refused to accept the law, with the result that, theoretically at least, there will henceforth be no liquors on sale in that city. On the day the law went into operation the city of Charleston, with its restaurants, wholesale and liquor houses, etc., were offered for rent and several thousands of employees thrown out of work. As a considerable number of the counties failed to appoint dispensers, the effect of the law will be to place them also under virtual prohibition.

SUPREME COURT—KING'S COUNTY.

GEORGETOWN, July 19. The Court opened yesterday morning with the usual routine business. The jury was sworn in as follows: Foreman, P. K. Kelly; Montague, George; Lestock, Anderson; St. Peter's, James; Cameron, South Lake; Joseph, Haley; Lot 52, John; Lavers, Georgetown; Geo. MacEachern, South Lake; Cain, Town; Head, W. A. Poole; Lord, Montague; Jos. Fairchild, Georgetown; Wm. F. Sterns, Souris; Caleb Carleton, Souris; Allan McDonald, North Lake; Lauchlan McDonald, Prospect Hill.

Only fourteen being present the court ordered summonses to be served on the grand jurors who did not answer to their names to show cause why they should not be fined for their non-attendance. The Master of the Rolls made an address. He spoke about the new law awarding a prisoner to go on the stand and allowed the jury to deliberate and the prisoner should commit perjury.

There were no criminal cases on the docket, and the judge was presented with a pair of white gloves.

Three absent default cases were disposed of. C. McLure vs. Wm. McLure—Action of ejectment—Settled. Vere Beck vs. Neil McSwain and Neil McSwain vs. Vere Beck—Appeals from Magistrate's decision—The appeals were allowed, each to pay his own costs. Two jury cases are yet to be tried.

PERSEVERANCE.

The pine that stands upon the wooded mountain Gains not its stature in a single day The noble river springs not from one fountain, But gathers up its strength along its way.

The aloë bears for years the autumn's dreges Before it shows its blossoms to the skies The coral reef that breaks the ocean's surge Through centuries of growth alone can rise.

Thus, through her work, Dame Nature offers ever For our acceptance one persistent thought, Tie but by patient, sturdy, brave endeavour The greatest, best, and grandest things are wrought.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

INFORMATION WANTED.

Sir,—In your issue of the 7th appears a letter addressed to "The Farmers of P. E. Island," by the Mackay Woollen Company, in which they would ask me to state if the farmers believe that they are their true and sincere friends, carrying on business almost exclusively for their benefit, and frequently submitting to losses in order to accommodate them. The information wanted is this: If Messrs. Prowse Bros. (who it would really appear are going into the wool business for the farmers' benefit, it being out of their line of business,) and the Summerside merchants can afford to pay 22 cash per lb. and 25 cents in trade, how is it that the Mackay Woollen Company are paying the farmers the paltry sum of 17 cents per lb.? Will they kindly explain this? As a farmer and interested in the wool business, I demand a satisfactory answer. Can it be that they, not being satisfied with a "mere coarsen quality" in the past, although for several years past there has been a difference of from 3 to 4 cents per lb. between their prices and prices in Summerside, they are this season seeking to deprive the farmers of Queen's County of 5 cents per lb. for their wool in order to swell their own profits?

Lot 34, July 15. A FARMER. We learn that the Mackay Woollen Company are now paying 20 cents a lb. for wool that when they were paying 17 cents a lb. for wool in Charlottetown, there was no cash paid for it in Summerside.

Sir,—It is reported on what one would naturally believe to be the best authority, that the drinking of hot beer and whiskey at the picnic at Belfast last Thursday, was something unprecedented in the history of indulgence in intoxicating drinks. One eye witness describes the scene as "scandalous." Not only men, but many of the gentler sex, whom their friends kindly rebuked with a glass of so-called ale, either swayed to and fro or sank in some cases beneath the treacherous fiend's deadening effects. If this be so, it should be a lesson to the organizers of the picnic held at or near Eddon, Belfast, on Thursday, the 13th July, inst. LIQUOR.

World's Fair Finances.

CHICAGO, July 16.—Auditor Ackerman, of the World's Fair, in his statement covering the exposition up to June 30th, states that the receipts of the fair from ticket sales, concessions and other sources since July 1st, has been over $1,000,000, and a large reduction in floating debts has been made since that date. The total gate receipts were $2,121,666, total expenditures to June 30th were $29,610,150. Of this amount $16,406,662 is charged to construction. During June the estimated receipts were $1,660,820; and expenses $642,221, leaving a balance for May and June of $1,127,417. The ratio of receipts to expenses to July 1st show a very material gain for the exposition, both in reduction of operating expenses and increased receipts.

TAKE WARNING!

Neglect Not These Signals of Danger.

A Useful Lesson on Health Taught by The Indians' Example. Let the Remedy be Simple and Safe—Kickapoo Indian Sagwa.

If you are ailing, not exactly sick but not feeling "just right," have a drowsy, dull feeling, bad taste in the mouth, variable appetite, occasional pains in the joints and muscles, and other signs of impending sickness, why not take Kickapoo Indian Sagwa—detests such symptoms out of the system by the judicious use of their reliable vegetable remedy, Kickapoo Indian Sagwa?

"Thundering Hoop," a Kickapoo chief, age 68 years. From his photograph.

Don't neglect such warnings. That pain in your shoulder may develop into rheumatism, and a month's sickness deprive you of the income of your year. That white, furry tongue denotes your liver is out of order, and disease would easily take root in your system. What could you do then? Think of your business, your income and your family. Seek safety as you would fly from cholera or small pox. You are in danger if you neglect these warnings. They may pass off, but the chances are against you, and even then the poison is only latent in your system. Do not, however, put your trust in the numerous mineral medicines with which the market is flooded. The action of many of these decoctions comes from mineral poisons, such as mercury, arsenic, strychnine, iodoine, iodine, potassium, and the like, and any drug that will tell you if he tells so truly, that this is so. Kickapoo Indian Sagwa and other Kickapoo Indian medicines contain only the product of the field and forest, nature's own vegetable growth of roots, bark and herbs, and of necessity are free from all mineral poisons whatever, because they have no knowledge of them, depending wholly upon nature's laboratory for their resources, and upon their skill, born of centuries of experience, in preparing them.

Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, made by the Indians from roots, bark and herbs of their own country, is a reliable, safe, and pleasant drug and medicine for all ailments. One dollar per bottle, six bottles for five dollars. FREE Sent three two-cent stamps to pay postage and we will mail you free a thrilling and interesting book of 173 pages, entitled "Life and Times of the Kickapoo Indians, with a full and complete history of the tribe, and a full and complete history of the Kickapoo Indian Sagwa, 81 Grand Ave. New Haven, Conn.

TO-DAY the Blue Ribbon meeting of the Detroit Driving Club opens on the race track of the Wolverine metropolis. The races will close on the 21st inst., and in addition to the regular purses, special purses aggregating $21,000 have been offered. The special purses are five in number, and the blue bloods of the trotting turf are now in Detroit.

To-day we are offering values in summer suitings and pantings, which only remain to be seen to be sold. We will not hang on to those goods and have the trouble of carrying same over to next season. For this reason, we believe in clearing out every line not suitable for fall and winter wear. Following out this theory, we cannot stick at small trifles.

Our furnishings are going, and so well they may. Everyone that buys gets the worth of his money every time. We hope to clear, out this line of summer wear very soon, as they are going like hot cakes. You like a bargain, my friends; don't be foolish enough to pay double prices when everything is so cheap at.

JOHN T. MCKENZIE,
