Dear Editor,

In my two years here at UPEI I have never had any urge to write to the school newspaper. However since you have been writing the editorials I have had this urge to write in. Mr. Large I must say I am fed up with you using you editorials as a chance to insult everyone else here at the university. You have the nerve to insult the SU and the student population at general. Our SU was elected like any other gov't and if we, as voters, thought that these people would not do an adequate job then we should not have voted them in. I would like to quote you Mr. Large when you said "I am pretty disgusted with our student government and you should be too." Well I am not. The SU is I see it, is doing all it can to lead our students. Maybe for students, like yourself, having a problem with the SU you could run for a position and see how easy it is.

I would also ask you to get off your high horse and run your paper better. You have been given $31,355, a figure from your last editorial, use it more wisely. I will finally say that for a while I was upset with your rude, self satisfying editorials but I now read them for a laugh. Nobody can take such nonsense seriously. Also, these cheap eyecatchers that your paper has around the pit are very stupid, ignorant, insulting, and a waste of good paper and paint. Try to find another way to advertise for volunteers that isn't insulting.

Sincerely

Robert MacKinnon, a fed up student
