In Memoriam

BETTY ANNE BERNARD

There passed away suddenly at Clyde River, on August 10 as the result of a highway accident, Miss Betty Anne Bernard, Hunter River, in her 13th year.

Born at Hunter River, on August 23, 1940, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bernard, who will always cherish the memory of a loving and devoted child. Not only in the home will she be missed, but by her schoolmates, chums, and especially little children of whom she was very fond.

Betty Anne was a faithful member of the Hunter River United Church, Sunday School, and an active member in The Canadian Girls In Training.

She leaves to mourn besides her sorrowing parents, one sister Dorothy at home, and four brothers, Raymond with the R. C. H. A. in Debert, Gordon with the R. C. A. M.C. in Fort Churchill, Manitoba; James and George at home, also her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bernard, Hunter River and Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson, Charlottetown, one sister Phyllis, predeceased her 13 years ago, at the age of 9 years.

The funeral which was one of the largest in the community, was held in the United Church on August 14. Service at church and grave was conducted by the Rev. C. R. Moase, who spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family. The choir under the direction of Mrs. W. I. Bowman, rendered two selections "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "Someday We'll Understand". Mr. Gordon Carey very effectively sang "Shadows".

The C. G. T. members and leader attended in a body and led the procession to the grave.

The many floral tributes bore testimony of which the bereaved was held.

Pall bearers were six uncles, Robert Bernard, Willard Bernard, Vernon Bernard, Art Peterson, Addie Peterson and Gordon Peterson.

In Memoriam

EVERETT HEBER McVITTIE

On October 17 the citizens of Crapaud were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Everett Heber McVittie in his 57th year. He was born in Westmoreland, the eldest son of Chron, and the late Ella May Simmons. He was a life long resident of Westmoreland and Crapaud, where he carried on a meat business where his kind, honest and quiet way endeared him to his friends and customers.

His private funeral service at his late residence was conducted by Rev. Britton, who spoke comforting words to the bereaved family. Hymns sung were, "Unto the Hills," "Lead, Kindly, Light."

Besides his sorrowing wife, Althea Simmons, he leaves to mourn three daughters, (Grace) Mrs. Everett Rodgerston, Hampton; (Evelyn) Mrs. James Moore, Westmoreland; (Morey) Mrs. George Sturdy, Westmoreland; and two sons, Keith, Lynn, Mass., and Carl who assisted him in his business, also six grandchildren, an aged father, three sisters, Granville, Alice, Jeanette, and an only brother, Max. All were present at his service.

The pall bearers were, James Moore, John Martin, Charles Marshall, Everett Rodgerston, George Sturdy, Lewellyn Gamble. Interment was in Westmoreland cemetery. The funeral was directed by Dawson's, Crapaud.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late Heber McVittie, wish to extend their sincere thanks, and deep appreciation to the doctors, and kind friends and neighbours who helped in their sudden bereavement.

BEDEQUE

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Haley, and their son and his bride-to-be of Weymouth, Mass., have been visiting on the Island, guests of Mrs. Haley's brother, Mr. Benjamin Craswell and Mrs. Craswell, Fredericton. Mrs. Haley and Mrs. Benjamin Craswell paid a brief visit to Bedeque on Sunday afternoon, October 16th, when they called on Mrs. Craswell's brothers, Mr. Albert Weeks and Rev. Ernest and Mrs. Weeks and her niece Mrs. William M. Stavert and Mr. Stavert.

Mr. Stephen Doval of Cambridge, Mass., is spending some time among friends here. He is guest at the Bowness Tourist Home.

His many friends are pleased to see Mr. Thomas Moyse home from the P. E. I. Hospital, where he was a patient for two weeks.

Miss Adele Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Henderson, has taken a position on the staff of the Royal Bank of Canada, Halifax, N. S.

Her many friends here are sorry to learn of the misfortune to Mrs. Joye Hayes, who fell and broke her arm, while she was on a visit with friends in Freetown.

The full choir of the Bedeque United Church attended, and participated in, the Hymn Festival held in the Tryon United Church on Sunday evening, October 16th.

A Daily paper published in California carries an interesting account of the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Atwood K. Whidden, which was celebrated recently in the banquet room of the League of California Cities convention in the Sheraton Palace Hotel, San Francisco, with over 2,500 persons present. The interesting thing about that event is that Mr. Whidden is a son of the late Rev. R. S. Whidden, who was pastor of North Bedeque Church, P. E. I., at the turn of the century and he and his family are kindly remembered by the older residents of the surrounding communities. Mrs. Whidden, Jr. was also a resident of North Bedeque, as she grew up there. The Whiddens were married in North Bedeque Church. They went to California in 1910.

The Bedeque "Half Century" Club met at the home of Mrs. Charles Henderson on Monday evening, October 17th. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Percy Affleck, vice president, presided. Mrs. Calvin Leard read the opening poem "What's in my hand?". Roll call was answered with suggestions for raising funds for the club. It was decided to hold a pantry sale later in the month or early in November. The programme consisted of the drawing of various animals, which caused much merriment, and two contests which were most interesting. It was agreed to have "speed-limit" signs placed in the village. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. George Henderson.

The October supper meeting of the Men's Association of the Bedeque United Church, was held in the Church hall on Tuesday evening, October 18th. The supper was provided by the "Luna Thompson" auxiliary of the W. M. S., and a hearty vote of thanks was passed to the ladies for the excellent repast. Then followed a sing-song led off by Mr. Ralph Callbeck with Mrs. Edna Jenkins playing the music. The president, Mr. William Craig, presided and Mr. Willard Stavert was secretary. In the matter of business it was decided to visit to Bedeque on Sunday afternoon, October 16th, when they called on Mrs. Craswell's brothers, Mr. Albert Weeks and Rev. Ernest and Mrs. Weeks and her niece Mrs. William M. Stavert and Mr. Stavert.

The guest speaker for the meeting was Mr. T. J. Inman, of Central Bedeque. He gave a very interesting account of his extended trip to Western Canada and of centres in the United States. He showed slides of the many places he visited which were very much enjoyed. At the conclusion a hearty vote of thanks was moved by Mr. W. B. Montgomery seconded by their wives as guests. This supper to be in November.

McBaine of the Locke Road. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Gallant of Forest View were visitors Saturday evening October 15th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DesRoches of Howlan. Mrs. Margaret Arsenault of Forest View spent Thursday and Friday, October 13th and 14th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Firmus Perry of Howlan.

where will YOU stand? High man or low man on a totem pole? For the fellow who looks at life with a shrewd gleam in his eye, the outlook often depends on whether he has enough wampum or not. The fellow who has it is ready for anything and feels good about it. One way to get this feeling - and a good one - is to buy Canada Savings Bonds today - either through your bank, investment dealer or trust company.
