Entertainment at Emerald

Never before was the St. Patrick's evening celebration at Emerald attended with such success as on Saturday. The night was beautiful, the roads fairly good and the trains from Summerside and Cape Traverse were crowded by the time they reached Emerald. Before the curtain arose even standing room was at a premium and over a hundred, unable to gain admittance, had to content themselves with looking through the windows. At 8.15 the curtain rose, and Mr. G. R. McMahon, president of Emerald Branch B. I. S., addressed the audience, after which excellent music was furnished by the orchestra, composed of Mr. Heary Dempsey, 1st violin, Mr. W. J. Brown, cornet, Miss Annie B. Fraser, 2nd violin, Miss Janie McDonald, mandolin, and Miss Amy Brynston, organ. The address by the Rev. J. M. Forbes was an eloquent exposition of the life and work of the great apostle of the Irish nation. At the conclusion he was greeted with rounds of applause. Miss Flo McKenzie gave two readings with great effect. "The Old Violin," and "A Bit of the Thin Red Line," and was encored on each occasion. Mr. George Hennessey sang in a good voice, "The Girl I Loved in Sunny Tennessee," and "She was Happy till She Met You," and was greeted with great applause, responding to encores. The cornet solo by Mr. W. J. Brown was well rendered. But without doubt the chief feature of the entertainment was the presentation of the thrilling and laughable drama, "The Irish Agent," with the following cast of characters:

Gen. O'Neill.....Milwood Doyle
Shaun Brady.....Clements Flood
Darby Reardon.....Mark A. Smith
Tighe Murphy.....Jas. A. Ready
Barney Burke.....John Mousgann
Frank Sheldon.....A. C. Deighan
Father Tom.....Matthew Smith
Mary O'Neill.....Regina M. Flood
Nora O'Neill.....Maggie A. McMahon
Kate Hennessey.....Sophia McMahon

Needless to say the play in the opinion of everyone present was an unprecedented success. Never before did amateurs present in Emerald such a highly creditable play. To particularize with any degree of fairness would be well nigh impossible as each lady and gentleman sustained their "role" in a manner that would do credit to professionals. However, we may say that "Darling Light," "Barney," and "Kate Hennessey," kept the audience in good humor by their laughable sayings and actions, while "Shaun" the villain, "Mary O'Neill," the heroine of the play, "Con," the old man, "Father Tom," who looked every inch a priest, "Frank" and "Nora," successfully interpreted the more serious parts of the play. All the performers deserve great credit indeed. As this play will be repeated at Kelly's Cross, on Monday, 26th inst., it will doubtless draw a full house. Between the acts appropriate instrumental selections highly creditable to the performers, were rendered by the Kensington orchestra, mentioned above, which were well received. Miss Blanche Craig played the accompaniments in an excellent manner. After giving three cheers for the Queen and the British generals, and after the singing of the National Anthem, the vast audience dispersed with the conviction that the entertainments at Emerald have ever been and are destined to be highly successful.—Com.

New Men Not Insured

Sir Charles Tupper, in the House of Commons, said he had received a telegram from the Ocean Accident and Guarantee Corporation that the insurance of $1,000,000 on the lives of the first contingent would not apply to the men taking the places of those killed or severely wounded. He made this announcement because the question was asked him, and as the men were leaving for South Africa to-morrow, he desired that they should know their position.

An Interesting Case.

Mr. W. G. Phyll, proprietor Bodega Hotel, 36 Wellington Street East, Toronto, says:—"While living in Chicago I was in a terrible state with itching and bleeding piles, I tried several of the best physicians and was burnt and tortured in various ways by their treatment to no avail, besides spending a mint of money to no purpose. Since coming to Toronto I learned of Dr. Chase's Ointment, I used but one box and have not been troubled with piles in any shape or form since."

Don't Tear Down—Build Up.

The old-fashioned theory of tearing down disease was entirely changed by the advent of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, which cures by creating new rich blood and nerve tissue. Through the medium of the circulation and the nervous system they strengthen and invigorate every organ in the human body.
