

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. HUGH CAMPBELL
In the early hours of the morning on November 12th, the Angel of Death visited the Sacred Heart Home and took from this earth the soul of Mrs. Rebecca Campbell, widow of the late Hugh Campbell of Westmorland in the parish of Kelly's Cross.

Born to the name of Monaghan, she was of that same branch of the Monaghan family who came from Ireland and settled in Kelly's Cross many years ago. She was from those same fore-bearers who gave so many sons and daughters to the religious life.

Other members of the family are three sons: John and James of Westmorland and Kelly's Cross respectively and Walter in Waterville, Mass., also two daughters, Rose and Wm. Murphy of Kelly's Cross and Florence, Mrs. Aeneas Matters of Westmorland. A number of grand-children also survive.

The very large number of masses offered by her friends and the numerous messages of sympathy and letters of sympathy testify to the great esteem in which the deceased was held.

The funeral which was very largely attended was held from the home of her son John in Westmorland on November 14th at St. Joseph's Church for Requiem High Mass at 9:30; and was under the direction of Mr. Robert Bradley of the Charlottetown Funeral Home.

The pall-bearers were: Arthur Campbell and Emmett Hogan, Charlottetown; Bert Trowsdale and Freddie Matters, Westmorland; Louis Hogan, Kelly's Cross and her grand-son, Clarence Matters of Westmorland.

Solemn Requiem High Mass was offered by Rev. Walter McGuigan of St. Dunstan's University in place of her son Frank, who was not able to be present due to his being in delicate health.

The funeral was held on November 10th with a short service at the home, followed by service in the Bideford United Church. Rev. Mr. MacDonald assisted by Mr. Waldron, and Mr. Edmund Phillips led in prayer at the house.

There are left to mourn besides his late husband, there to await the call to a glorious resurrection. May she rest in peace. Amen.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN ROSS

The community of Rennie's Road was saddened to hear of the death of one of its well known and best loved citizens, Mr. John Ross, who passed away very peacefully in his seventy-ninth year at the home of his nephew, Fred Smith.

Three sisters, Sarah, Catherine and Margaret, and two brothers, Alexander and Duncan pre-deceased him.

Mr. Ross enjoyed good health all his life, partly due to his quiet manner and serene spirit. He was also and contented on the farm and was known as a great lover of horses. He never married but lived with his mother till her death. He was as a father to two of his nephews, Wm. Ross and Fred Smith, who lived at his home.

The funeral, held in the United Church at Hunter River, was conducted by his minister, Rev. Howard Christie, assisted by Rev. Wilfred MacLeod, a lifelong friend. The pall bearers were Daniel Hickox, Lemuel Craswell, James H. Andrews, John L. Proctor, Thomas Gass and David Edwards. Interment Hunter River Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith wish to thank Rev. Howard Christie, Rev. Wilfred MacLeod, those who sent flowers, letters and cards of sympathy and friends and neighbours for their many acts of kindness during their recent sad bereavement.

IN MEMORIAM

WENDY "JANICE" MURPHY

On Saturday, November 8th relatives and friends were saddened to hear that the "Angel of Death" had entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Murphy, MacNeill's Mills, and claimed for its own their darling baby, Wendy "Janice", at the tender age of five months and eleven days.

Though in delicate health since birth, she was tenderly cared for, but in spite of all that loving care and tender nursing could do she passed away to her Heavenly Home.

Jesus said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven." She leaves to mourn her sorrowing parents, one sister, and three brothers, Trudy, Royden, Thomas and Waldo, also her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund H. Yeo, Victoria West, Mrs. Emilie Murphy, Saint John, N. B.

The funeral was held on November 10th with a short service at the home, followed by service in the Bideford United Church. Rev. Mr. MacDonald assisted by Mr. Waldron, and Mr. Edmund Phillips led in prayer at the house.

There are left to mourn besides his late husband, there to await the call to a glorious resurrection. May she rest in peace. Amen.

Card Of Thanks

The family of the late Mrs. Hugh Campbell wish to thank the priests, Sisters and staff of the Sacred Heart Home for all their kindness to their mother during her illness and death, also their kind neighbours and friends for their many courtesies, and all those who sent mass cards, messages of sympathy and flowers, and all those who have helped in any way to lighten their sorrow in their recent bereavement.

W.C.T.U. NOTES

CHRISTIAN AND LIQUOR TRAFFIC

By Dr. Sam Morris
Bible Grounds for Opposing Liquor
People sometimes say to me, "I think a preacher ought to preach the Bible and stay off the liquor question; that's politics." The man who makes that statement is only advertising and publicizing his stay off the liquor question. You either have to get on the liquor question or get off part of the Bible.

The Bible Magnifies Total Abstinence
Let us notice first that the Bible magnifies total abstinence. The children of Israel drank no wine nor strong drink for forty years during the wilderness wanderings.

God commended the Rechabites through Jeremiah for the one particular reason that they had kept the tradition of their father, Jonadab, and drank no wine nor strong drink (Jer. 35:1-14).

God commanded the priests to drink no wine nor strong drink (Lev. 10:8, 9). God commanded the Nazirites to drink no wine nor strong drink (Num. 6:1-3).

God commanded the mother of Samson to drink no wine nor strong drink (Judges 13:4-14). Samson, the strong man of the Bible, being a Nazirite, was a total abstainer.

Samuel, the great judge of Israel, was a total abstainer. Daniel, the great prophet of the Bible, was a total abstainer who purposed in his heart he would not defile himself with the king's meat nor with the wine which he drank (Dan. 1:8).

John the Baptist, the forerunner of Jesus, was a total abstainer (Luke 1:15). Paul, the great apostle to the Gentiles, wrote, "It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak" (Romans 14:21).

The people of Kildare Capes were saddened to learn that Mr. Joseph V. Smith had passed away suddenly at his home on Wednesday morning, November 26th, at the age of 76.

Mr. Smith had been in poor health for some time but was able to be about his tasks until a few hours before his passing. God decided that his mission in this world was accomplished and called him to his everlasting home.

There are left to mourn besides his sorrowing wife the following daughters and sons: Pearl, Mrs. William McLean, Pleasant Valley; Beulah, Kildare Capes; William, Fredericton, N. B.; Isabel, Mrs. John McIsaac, Brae Harbour; Harry, Fenwick, Ont.; Hazel, Mrs. Donald Fraser, Buffalo N. Y. (who arrived home for the funeral); Gilbert, Simcoe, Ont.; Olive, Mrs. Bennett Crozier, Wilmot; Elmer and Doreen at home.

divine inspiration, the Apostle Paul wrote a category of the lusts of the flesh. In all three categories he lists drunkenness along with murder, stealing, adultery, fornication, idolatry and other sins of the flesh.

The Bible Warns Against the Use of Strong Drink
The Bible not only magnifies total abstinence, it not only portrays the evil consequences related to the use of strong drink, but the Bible "in no uncertain terms" warns us against the use of strong drink. "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink" (Hab. 2:15).

"Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging; and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise" (Prov. 20:1). It's in the Bible. "Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them!" (Isa. 5:11). It's in the Bible. "Woe unto them that mightily to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink: Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!" (Isa. 5:22, 23).

"It is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink." If the Bible writer were writing today, he would say, "It is not for presidents to drink wine. It is not for senators to drink wine. It is not for Secretaries of State to drink wine. Did you know that for more than ten years the Congress of the United States has appropriated over a half million dollars from the taxpayers' money just for the primary purpose—to buy liquor to entertain foreign diplomats? And where the state of the world was involved and where agreements were entered into out of which have largely come the Korean conflict, our American diplomats drank booze until their brains were in a whirl, and at least one of them had to be carried away completely incapacitated!"

"Alcohol, A Disease"
There is a sickly, sentimental, mussy, nonsensical theory being promoted and advocated by the liquor interests and accepted by thoughtless people to the effect that we should not blame the alcoholic or the drunkard for his drunkenness. They say he is a sick man. The Bible is as clear as the noonday sun. The drunkard is personally responsible for his sin of drunkenness.

The Bible emphatically declares in no uncertain term that the kingdom of Heaven is shut to the drunkard on the same basis that it is shut to the murderer, the thief, the adulterer, the idolater, and the extortioner.

Listen to the Word of God: "But now I have written unto you not to keep company; if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such an one do not eat."—I Cor. 5:11.

Listen to the Word of God: "Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witch-craft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God."—Gal. 5:19-21.
