Traffic Figures Show Increase

BORDEN — Figures for traffic on Canadian National's ferry service between Borden and Cape Tormentine, N.B. revealed Saturday by J.G. Davis, manager of CN's Maritime area, show a 14 per cent increase in passengers and a 20 per cent increase in vehicles as compared to the same period last year.

In March the Abegweit and Prince Edward Island carried 24,927 passengers and 12,681 vehicles across the Northumberland Strait. The equivalent figures for March 1965 were 21,755 and 10,525.

The number of crossings made by the two ships last month totalled 597 as compared with 400 in March 1965.

The number of automobiles handled showed an increase of 1,707. Trucks increased by 179, trailer trucks by 12(and buses by 115. The number of CN passengers carried on trains and chartered buses using the ferries showed an increase of seven per cent over March 1965.

IS NAMED

"You might call me a bookworm," says Fred Hughes, our Guardian-Patriot newsboy of the week. Fred, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hughes, 280 Sydney Street, says he has no real hobbies except reading. He is not a sports fan and had a brief fling at model airplanes but soon gave them up.

Fred, a grade 6 student at St. Jean's Elementary School, carries 55 Patriots daily on his route along Dorchester Street and has been delivering the Patriot for two years. He will finish the payments on his bike this month and then intends to save his carrier earnings for future use, probably to help pay for furthering his education.

Three Mishaps Are Reported

The Charlottetown Police department investigated three accidents over the weekend.

Reports indicated that three people received minor injuries following a two-car collision near 188 Elm Ave. at 11.45 Saturday night.

The accident involved cars driven by Frederick Judson, Charlottetown RR 1 and Francis Ferguson of Bonshaw.

Injured were Clarence Pineau who received lacerations on the nose, Noreen Pineau, shock, and Leo Ferguson, lacerations on the forehead.

Dr. C.A. Coady, attending physician reported last night that the victims were released following examination.

There was an estimated $100 damage to a car owned by Benjamin Shephard, 85 Cumberland Street, who was involved in a two-car collision near 83 Cumberland Street at 12.45 a.m. Sunday.

The other vehicle, operated by Arthur Conway, 6 Linden Ave., had no damage estimate available.

The Shephard car was said to have been parked on the west side of Cumberland Street while the Conway vehicle was traveling north on Cumberland St. at the time of the accident.

A 1958 Meteor operated by James Farrar of New Wiltshire struck a fence on Allan Street about one o'clock Sunday morning. There was no estimate of damage to the car.
