At the police court this forenoon, Swin Johnson, drunk and disorderly, was fined $2 or 8 days; Frank McLeod, drunk and incapable, $2 or 8 days; John Cullen, do, $1 or 4 days; John Hughes, do, $1 or 4 days.

A meeting of the Wesley Mission Band was held last evening at which the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: President, Mrs. Geo. Stanley; Vice-Pres., Mr. E. Higgs; Cor. Secy, Miss Lillian McGregor; Rec. Secy, Miss Phoebe Large; Treasurer, Miss Alice Higgins.

Mr. D. Mignault, living on Cadieux St., Montreal, got tired of Joseph Beaulieu paying so many visits to his wife on Monday night last, called on the police who arrested the pair in a shed.

A New Brunswick exchange says: The bridge in the Northumberland Straits tunnel survey are now going on. Messrs. Macrae & Co., of Ottawa, having the work in hand.

The Pioneer disputes THE EXAMINER'S assertion—which by the way is quite correct—that "a wave of popular indignation is sweeping over this province against the Peters administration," and says: "We may say that there is no appearance of the wave in this vicinity."

The Drummer's Dream. The following lines, written at Summerside in May, 1892, by Alexander McMuray, the commercial traveller who died so suddenly at the Hotel D'Arques a short time ago, are going the rounds of the press:

Another log encounter, meet, touches, parts again; 'Tis thus with drummers, ever on life's unresting sea; We meet, and greet, and sever—drifting eternally.

Steamers Movements. The steamer Fastnet arrived here from Halifax this morning with a general cargo, and sailed at 11 a. m. for Summerside.

The steamer M. A. Starr, owned by the Steam Navigation Co., Ltd., left St. John's, Nfld., for this port and is hourly expected.

At Halifax on Monday night, a jealous colored man named John Hamilton, and three shots at his wife, but failed to hit her. He was arrested, and at the police station was found in his regrets that he was not able to kill, and as he says, removed from the face of the earth a bad woman. She is his second wife.
