Importance Of Wills Explained By Lawyer

KENSINGTON — J. Melville Campbell, Summerside, addressed the members of the Kensington area Board of Trade at the general meeting Wednesday night...

When a man dies without a will someone else decides on the disposal. If agreement cannot be reached by the heirs, settlement is likely to be delayed until lawyers fees, incidental expenses and probably court fees eat up much of the property...

Two persons must witness the will and sign at the same time as the testator. A person must be 21 years of age before making a will and of sound mind. Beneficiaries may not witness a will.

Island Centennial Called Impetus To National Event

The 1964 Centennial in this province was the prelude to the 1967 Centennial of Canada and there were many indications that the Island's activities gave a much needed impetus to lagging preparations for the national event...

During the year when there were many lively discussions about Confederation, Prince Edward Island provided through its centennial a valuable positive force in the national thinking, by reminding all Canadians of their heritage and traditions.

He described last year as "the most outstanding the province has ever experienced." In reporting on tourist activities, he said that 333,981 persons visited the province last year. "This is amazing," he said, "when you consider that the province has a population of about 100,000."

The increase in the number of visitors over 1963 was 14 per cent. Visitors to the province last year spent a record $12,687,430, compared to about $10,000,000 in 1963.
