BIRDS THAT DO NOT SING.

Although They All Utter Vocal Sounds of Some Kind.

Singing is applied to birds in the same sense that it is to human beings—the utterance of musical notes. Every person makes vocal sounds of some kind, but many persons never attempt to sing. So it is with birds. The eagle screams, the owl hoots, the wild goose honks, the crow caws, but none of these discordant sounds can be called singing.

With the poet the singing of birds means merry, light hearted joyousness, and most of us are poetic enough to view it in the same way. Birds sing most in the spring and the early summer, those happiest seasons of the year, while employed in nest building and in rearing their young. Many of our most musical singers are silent all the rest of the year; at least they utter only low chirpings. It is natural, therefore, that lovers of birds should regard their singing as purely an expression of joy in the returning spring and in their happy occupations.

Outside of what are properly classed as song birds there are many species that never pretend to sing—in fact, these far outnumber the musicians. They include the water birds of every kind, both swimmers and waders; all the birds of prey, eagles, hawks, owls and vultures, and all the gallinaceous tribes, comprising pheasants, partridges, turkeys and chickens. The gobble of the turkey cock, the defiant crow of the rooster and even the musical call of the "bobwhite" are none of them true singing, yet it is quite probable that all of these sounds are uttered with precisely similar motives to those that inspire the sweet warbling of the song sparrow, the clear whistle of the robin or the thrilling music of the wood thrush.

But naturalists have set apart a very large group as song birds, and even among these there are many species that never sing at all. Birds are grouped according to their anatomical characteristics, the structure of their bones, bills, feet and wings. And thus we have the songless song birds, looking at the matter from the standpoint of the classifying naturalist. — Philadelphia Times.

Piles Cured Without the Knife by Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. Geo. Crowne, painter, of Woodville, Ont., Victoria Co. says:—"For thirteen years I was a sufferer from bleeding piles and the intense agony which I passed through during those years and which I obtained by Chase's Ointment prompts me to give this testimonial. My physician wished me to have an operation but I felt I could be cured without the knife. Three boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment stopped the bleeding and effected a permanent cure."

"Spells" of Southern Negroes.

There are numerous harmless "spells" which are regular observances in the lives of the average southern negroes. Besides the root chewing, the track lifting, etc., they have a love philter of frogs' legs cooked in still water, and the ashes of a bat are powerful enough to keep away a rival or an enemy. To make a dog stay at home they cut off the tip of his tail and bury it under the doorstep. To make a wife obedient they "draw her picture" and hide it in the shingles. Thus, waking or sleeping, there is a constant forcing or counter-acting of destiny. — Philadelphia Times.

His Young Wife.

"He lived a bachelor until he was 50 and then married a woman young enough to be his daughter."
"Daughter? Why, she was young enough to be his second wife." — Detroit Journal.

Asthma Gasps.

The wheezing and strangling of those who are victims of Asthma are promptly relieved by a few doses of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

What Stamps the Gentleman.
"In all questions of manners a young man should always remember that, while politeness is a good trait to acquire, courtesy is infinitely better," writes Edward Bok in The Ladies' Home Journal. "Politeness is manners, but courtesy is heart. Mingling in good society can give us that veneer which the world calls a polish of manners, and true politeness is not to be made little of nor scoffed at. Politeness is a fine art, but is an art pure and simple even at its best. Infinitely better is the cultivation of that courtesy of refinement which enters into the feelings of others and holds them sacred. It is idle to say that courtesy is a relic of old fashioned days and is no longer looked for. It is as much the current coin of good society as it ever was. More than any other element or grace in our lives it is instantly felt and recognized and has an unerring influence. It calls for respect as nothing else does. Courtesy of manner and courtesy of speech are the gifts a young man should cultivate."

MRS. HOOPER ESCAPED.

Because She Used Dodd's Kidney Pills and so Cured Female Weakness.

NORWICH, Ont., Oct 3.—Mrs. J. S. Hooper, wife of Mr. J. Stanley Hooper, of North Norwich township, is a living proof of the unapproached value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, in the treatment of diseases of women.

Mrs. Hooper was a martyr to Female Weakness and Kidney Disease for twelve years. Norwich, Detroit and Buffalo physicians treated her unavailingly. She then tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. Four boxes cured her thoroughly, and made her as healthy, strong and vigorous as she ever was. Dodd's Kidney Pills are women's best friends.
