Saint John Concerned With Shipping Plans

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (CP)—Decision of Canadian Pacific Steamships to abandon North Atlantic passenger trips next winter has aroused concern here. Excepting Second World War years, regular winter service has been operated between Britain and Saint John since the end of the First World War.

CPS made the announcement Wednesday in Montreal.

The Saint John Port and Industrial Development Commission said that a meeting "in the immediate future" will be sought with the CPS.

D. M. Vye, National Harbors Board port manager, said that if only the passenger service were affected it would not have too adverse an effect on the port. "The thing we look for is general cargo."

Richard Shiels, president of the International Longshoremen's Association local here, agreed that CPS freighters meant "eight or nine times more money in actual labor than a mail and passenger ship."

The Empress of Britain carried 172 passengers on arrival here Tuesday from Liverpool. Her capacity is more than 1,000.

The Canadian Pacific Railway recently closed its public relations office in Saint John.

N.Y. Cemeteries Curtail Burials

NEW YORK (AP) — A number of cemeteries in the New York metropolitan area have started a new policy of curtailing burials on weekends.

Several non - sectarian cemeteries which are regulated by t state and some Roman Catholic cemeteries have announced the change from a six-day schedule.

The curtailment results from a provision in a labor contract that went into effect Jan.1. The contract provides for overtime for Saturday and Sunday work by cemetery employees.

Several orthodox Jewish organizations and mortuary trade associations have protested to the state cemetery board over the change.

Curtailment of weekend burials is said to create particular difficulties for orthodox and conservative Jews, who are required to bury their dead as quickly as possible.

KILLED IN ESCAPE BID

BEIRUT (Reuters) — Beirut newspapers reported Friday that three members of the dissolved Nationalist Social party—blamed for an abortive coup in Lebanon Sunday — were killed trying to escape from arrest. The reports said the three included a former Syrian army officer Mahmoud Niimeh, whose arrest was announced two days ago.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X E
is L O N G F E L L O W,

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

The bidding:

East	South	West	North
Pass	Pass	2♥	Dble;
Pass	2♠	Pass	3♥
Pass	4♦	Pass	4♠

Opening lead — seven of hearts.

Here is an odd hand that arose in the national men's pair championship in Washington, D.C., last year. The deal was played at thirteen tables with varying and somewhat surprising results..

When the hand was played at my table, the bidding went as shown. I held the West hand and, playing weak two bids, opened with two hearts. North doubled, properly enough, and then cuebid hearts after his partner had responded in spades.

When South now bid four diamonds, North went to four spades, and that was the end of that. I led the seven of hearts and North's enormous hand came down.

Declarer played low from dummy, winning the seven with the jack, successfully finessed the jack of spades, and continued with a spade to the ace. He then claimed thirteen tricks. —which, of course, he had.

It is clear that both North and South grossly underbid their hands. While it is true that North bid strongly — by first doubling and then following up with a cuebid before supporting spades — he could also have done still more with his hand. A five-spade bid would certainly not have exaggerated his values.

South was equally conservative in failing to carry on over four spades. Both his previous bids had been forced, and might have been made with a hand devoid of high cards. He should have treated his partner's strong bidding with more respect.

However, to the astonishment of everyone at the table, it eventually turned out that North-South got an excellent result on the board. They scored 710 points on the deal, while most of the other North-South pairs wound up minus 100 in a slam contract in spades.

What happened at most tables was that—when West led a heart against six spades practically every declarer won the trick in dummy. This proved fatal because, when they then cashed the A-K of clubs and ruffed a club, West overruffed, led a heart, and South went down one.
