

ABSOLUTE SECURITY.

Genuine Carter's Little Liver Pills.

Must Bear Signature of

See Fac-Simile Wrapper Below.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

The Relief -OF- Lady Smith,

of South Africa, was nothing compared to the relief that is felt by Mrs. Smith, and hundreds of other women of P. E. Island, on wash day since they have started using

GILT EDGE SOAP
All first class grocers SELL it.
McFARLANE & McBRIDE
WHOLESALE AGENT

Musical Education

One of the first things a man thinks of for his girls is a good musical education, and people are learning more and more that even to a boy, the ability to play a musical instrument is of great advantage.

When you get ready to buy your musical instruments—let us figure with you.

We will treat you right.

MILLER BROS
Queen Street,
Connolly's Building.

Teachers

Attending the Convention, we would like you to call in and look over a large line of "School Helps," we have just received. No difference if you do not wish to buy, come in and see them. Ask to see our Wedgwood Note Paper.

MITCHELL'S BOOKSTORE
Queen St. Opp. Prowse's.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—Just before the election the corner stone of the Quebec bridge has been laid by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. We are told that there is "great rejoicing."
—We are indebted to Mr. G. U. Hay, editor of the Educational Review, for number eleven of the Educational Review's Supplementary Readings in Canadian History. This number is exceedingly interesting, the articles include Newfoundland of To-day, by the Rev. M. Harvey, LL. D.; Canadian Nobility of the French Epoch, by F. G. Forsyth de Fronsac; Geological History of the Bay of Fundy, by Professor L. W. Bailey, Ph. D.; Responsible Government by James Hannay, D.C.L. and The Captivity of John Gyles, 1689-1698, by Victor Hugo Palast. Altogether the "Reading" make good reading for intelligent Canadians who desire to be well-informed about the history of their country.

—Mr. Fielding is even more corrupt in the Federal arena than he was as Provincial Premier. His appeal to the constituency he desires to represent is based upon the multiplicity of votes for wharves and railways that he has secured. When at Halifax a short time since he called upon the people to rally to him, and thus to get appropriations. In Montreal a week or two ago he concluded his speech thus: "If there is one part of the Dominion that should be loyal to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, it is the great city of Montreal. They say all roads lead to Rome. I venture to say that nearly all the large appropriations made by the Laurier Government for national works have gone for the building up of this great city on the banks of the St. Lawrence. When you look at what has been done for the prosperity of this great metropolis of Canada, you will be recreant to your duty if you do not again send up a loyal band of supporters to stand by Sir Wilfrid Laurier." Mr. Fielding's mind does not rise above appropriations and their possible effect upon the vote. Yet economy and public honesty were among the planks which the party went to the country.

—Quebec is preparing. The Mercury of last Saturday says: Col. Pelletier is on the way to our city with a large number of the men who left us so jointly almost a year ago for the great war. These soldiers deserve well of the country, for they have upheld manfully and courageously our best traditions. They must be welcomed as no troops returning home have ever been welcomed before. They must be made to feel that they are indeed on Canadian soil once more, and among friends, though they come from every section of our vast Dominion. Our citizens have a fund, made up by popular subscriptions, but this should be largely augmented, and the city council should take steps to add a substantial sum to help to defray the necessary expenses of a suitable homecoming demonstration, one which will do honor to the place and circumstance. Mayor Parent will not be behind hand in calling his council together, we are very sure. But there should also be a public meeting of citizens called, to arrange a first class programme ample enough to cover the whole ground." It seems clear that whether the troops come to Quebec or to Halifax they will receive a great ovation.

DAUGHTERS OF THE EMPIRE

"The Daughters of the Empire" is a society for patriotic work in Canada, and has already extended its membership and branches over the other colonies of the empire. Its headquarters are in Montreal, where it was founded last February, and auxiliaries are being formed in the various provincial capitals. The juvenile branch of the society is called "Children of the Empire," and aims at drawing in the boys and girls to take a living interest in the great empires of which they belong. All the members wear a badge, and the Union Jack is displayed at every meeting. Among the more important features of the work of the society is one which will appeal to the heart of every Canadian woman, namely, caring for the newly-made graves of our sons and brothers who have fallen in South Africa. The ladies of Capetown are actively assisting in this work, and have adopted the name "Daughters of the Empire" as a sub-title. Australia and New Zealand are now coming into the federation, and the movement is evidently going to be a very large one. Branches are forming in every town and village in the Dominion. All further information may be had by writing to the secretary, Mrs. Clarke Murray, 20 McTavish street, Montreal.—Star.

A GORGEOUSLY BOUND

Work of art has just been issued at an outlay of $100,000, for which the publishers desire a manager in this county, also a good solicitor; good pay to the right party. Nearly 100 full-page engravings, sumptuous paper, illuminated covers and binding; over 200 golden lilies in the Morocco bindings; nearly 50 golden roses in the cloth bindings. Sells at sight; presses running day and night so great is the sale. Christian men and women making fortunes taking orders. Rapid promotions. One Christian woman made clear $500 in four weeks taking orders among her church acquaintances and friends. Write us. It may lead to a permanent position to manage our business and look after our large correspondence, which you can attend to right at your home. Address J. A. Knight, Secretary, Corcoran Building, opposite United States Treasury, Washington, D. C.

INTERESTING IF TRUE.

You Can Try It For Yourself and Prove It.

One grain of the active principle in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest 3,000 grains of meat, eggs or other wholesome food, and this claim has been proved by actual experiment which anyone can perform for himself in the following manner: Cut hard boiled eggs into very small pieces, as it would be if masticated; place the egg and two or three pieces of the tablet in a bottle or jar containing warm water, heated to 98 degrees (temperature of the body) and keep it at this temperature for three and a half hours, at the end of which time the egg will be as completely digested as it would have been in the healthy stomach of a hungry boy.

The point of this experiment is that what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do to the egg or meat in the stomach, and nothing else will rest and invigorate the stomach so safely and effectually. Even a little child can take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with safety and benefit if its digestion is weak and the thousands of cures accomplished by their regular daily use are easily explained when it is understood that they are composed of vegetable essences: aseptic pepsin, diastase and Golden Seal, which mingle with the food and digest it thoroughly, giving the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate.

Cietying never cures dyspepsia, neither do pills and cathartic medicines, which simply irritate and inflame the intestines. When enough food is eaten and promptly digested there will be no constipation, nor in fact will there be disease of any kind because good digestion means good health in every organ.

The merit and success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are world wide and they are sold at the moderate price of 50 cts for full sized package in every drug store in the United States and Canada, as well as in Europe.

For the information of those interested a little book will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stewart & Co., Marshall, Mich., giving briefly the symptoms of the various forms of stomach weakness, causes and cure.

HERE IS A NICE DISCRIMINATION.

The Montreal Gazette makes this interesting contrast:

"The dismissal from the Lachine Canal office in this city of Mr. A. P. Macdonald, because another man of the same name attended a Conservative meeting, is proof that the meanest part of the Government's work is being well attended to.

"It is also a contrast with the treatment extended by the Government to a Customs officer who assumed a false name and worked for the return of a Liberal candidate in Gaspé.

"He got a raise in his salary."

Mr. Macdonald was dismissed because another man of the same name attended a party meeting.

Mr. Lemieux, of the Montreal Customs-house, went to Gaspé under a false name to work for a Liberal candidate. He canvassed under his alias, took an election oath under the same alias, signed the false name to an election document, and Laurier increase his salary, saying that what he did was all right because the Prince of Wales sometimes travels incognito. If Macdonald's name had been Lemieux Laurier might have excused him; on the other hand, if Lemieux had been named Macdonald he would have been dismissed long ago for his offences.—Mail and Empire.

SIR LOUIS AS ADMINISTRATOR

Mr. Schofield replies today to the Telegram on the subject of Sir Louis Davies' declassification. Without interfering with the discussion of the particular issue with which Mr. Schofield deals, we again point out that in 1899 Sir Louis Davies introduced and carried through parliament a bill which allowed unlimited declassations to be carried from New Year's day to October. Having done this, he continued for a year, as the head of the department, to enforce the legislation which he had himself caused to be repealed. This throws some light on the capacity and qualifications of the Minister of Marine.—St. John Star.

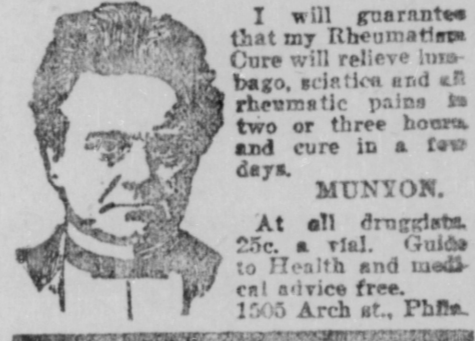

Britain Takes Revenge.

HONG KONG, Oct. 3.—The British gunboat Popin has shelled the village of Luk-Lao, on the West River, in retaliation for the inhabitants firing on a British steamer. The ringleaders were afterwards captured and flogged.

It has just been discovered that the grave of Annie Laurie, the heroine of the world-famous ballad, has remained for all these years without a tombstone. Many people are under the delusion that Annie Laurie was merely the figment of the poet's brain, but this, says the Scotsman, was not so. She was the daughter of Sir Robert Laurie, and was born in Maxwellton House, which stands on the "braes" immortalized in the song.

Bad blood is a bad thing to inherit or acquire, but bad blood may be made good by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

MUNYON'S

RHEUMATISM

IMPERIAL GREETINGS

Between the Celestial and the Kaiser.

BERLIN, Oct. 2.—The following is the text of the Chinese Emperor's message to Emperor William of Germany:

"Meeting.—That your majesty's minister has fallen a victim to the rising sun which suddenly broke out in China without our officials being able to prove anything whereby our friendly relations were disturbed, is deeply deplored and regretted. My decree we order that sacrifice be made in an altar for the deceased and Chief Secretary Kun Yang has been instructed to make libations on the altar. The consular superintendents of the northern and southern ports have been ordered to take the needed measures concerning the consignment of the coffin of the deceased. When it reaches Germany a second offering shall be made on the altar. Germany has always maintained the friendliest relations with China. We therefore entertain the hope that your majesty will renounce all resentment so that peace may be arranged as soon as possible, and that universal harmony be rendered possible for all time. This is our most anxious hope and our most ardent wish."

GERMAN EMPEROR'S REPLY

Emperor William replied September 30 as follows:

"To the Emperor of China.—I, the German emperor, have received the telegram of your majesty the emperor of China. I have observed with satisfaction that your majesty is anxious to expiate, according to the custom and precept of your religion, the shameful murder of my minister, which set at naught all civilization. Yet, as the German emperor and a Christian I cannot regard that abominable crime as atoned for by a libation. Beside my murdered minister there has gone before the throne of God a large number of our brethren of the Christian faith, bishops and ministers, women and children, who, for the sake of their faith, which is also mine, have died the violent death of martyrs on a rare

ACCUSERS OF YOUR MAJESTY

Do the libations commanded by your majesty suffice for all these innocents? Do not make your majesty personally responsible for the outrage against the legations, which are held inviolable among all nations, not for the grievous wrongs done so many nations and faiths and the results of your majesty of my Christian belief, but the advice of your majesty's throne and the officials on whose heads rests the blood guilt of a crime which fills all Christian nations with horror, must expiate their abominable deed. Will your majesty bring them to the punishment they have deserved? That I will regard as an expiation, which will satisfy the nations of Christendom. If your majesty will use your imperial power for this purpose accepting to that end the support of all the injured nations, I for my part, on that point. I should also gladly welcome the return of your majesty to Peking. For this my general, Field Marshal Von Waldersee, will be instructed not only to receive your majesty with the honors due to your rank, but he will also afford your majesty the military protection you may desire, and which you may need against rebels. I also long for peace which makes good wrongs done and which offers to all foreigners in China security for life and property, and, above all, for the free service of their religion.

DECLARE MYSELF AGREED

(Signed) WILLIAM I. R."

OCTOBER CANADIAN MAGAZINE

Principal Grant, in his charming style opens the October Canadian Magazine with an article on "The Jason of Algoma." This deals with the work which is being done by F. H. Clergue in building pulp mills, railroads, canals and other works in Northern Ontario, the estimated cost of which is over fifteen million dollars. There are two instalments of W. A. F. ser's new animal story, entitled "Moose," which is the Cree name for moose. This is a story far old and young, in which the leading Canadian animals talk in such a way as to reveal their habits and peculiarities. Agnes Deans Cameron, a British Columbia Teacher, tells some plain and wholesome truths in a brisk article, entitled "Parent and Teacher." C. W. Nash writes of wild geese and ducks, Reginald Gourlay gives some information about shooting snipe. R. L. Richardson, M. P., continues his railway articles, and M. E. Nichols gives "A Forecast of the General Election." There are the usual stories and departments, making up an excellent number.

You can do without it, but will you, when you can buy one made of best English all wool Whipcord sure as seen in cut for $10.00.

No, of course you won't, but you were a little doubtful about it when you thought you'd have to pay $18.00 for it, weren't you now.

Come Soon

As you can and get the first choice of one thousand new overcoats we've opened up the past few days. Suits to suit you to $8, $10, $12, $14, $15, $18. Pants by the thousand, 75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2, $3, $4, $5.

Furs, Furs, Furs,

The ladies' and children Pretty Boas, Elegant Ruffs, Handsome Collars, Wearable Jackets.

All Fur, all well lined, some of them have very elegant lining according to the price.

We've bought furs for two large stores this year and so have bought more than any store in P. E. I., therefore bought them just a shade cheaper, when they're sold to you they're just two shades cheaper, see.

Here's the cheapest place on P. F. I. to get your furs.

Our furs are elegant and durable — easy to buy.

PROWSE BROS.

The Leading Fur Men and Clothiers.