Mr. Balfour's Speech.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—Arthur J. Balfour, the government leader of the House of Commons, addressing the national conservative conference at Dewsbury yesterday, replied to the charge that the government's motive in the war in South Africa was the acquisition of the gold fields.

"I have now come to the conclusion," he said, "that declaration of war by the Transvaal and the Free State was not any despairing struggle for liberty but a bold bid for empire, a bid to make themselves the nucleus of a Dutch-speaking paramount power in South Africa and to exclude for ever the hated Britisher from a dominating influence from that part of the world.

"These people have risked their all upon the stake of war, and it is incredible that such a risk could be run merely to prevent the Uitlander getting a vote.

"Their dream may be madness, but it is intelligent madness when we consider the whole situation and the military difficulties that beset Great Britain in a South African campaign.

"They have also vainly counted upon the British party system.

"Another reason may be found in their profound contempt for British arms."

Passing to a higher eulogy of the "brilliant bravery of our troops, the courage, patriotism and endurance of the small colony of Natal, so transcendently displayed, and the 'patriotic spirit of the colonies generally,'" he continued:

"Last, but not least, may we not on this occasion express our gratitude to our American relations, who have done all that is possible in a case like this, namely, have provided and equipped the Maine, not only in the interests of humanity, but, as I well believe out of sympathy for those engaged in this great fight." In the course of an eloquent peroration, in which he said that he was not entitled to lift the veil hiding the future, Mr. Balfour expressed confidence that an era of peace prosperity and freedom would follow these dark struggles, and made a most kindly reference to the Orange Free State, declaring: "A couple of months ago I could no more have believed we would be at war with the Free State than with the Transvaal."

PERSONAL

Miss Dawson returned from Boston last evening.

Rev. A. Craise and wife, of Mount Stewart, are among the latest arrivals at the Queen Hotel.

Rev. W. M. Field, wife and child, of St. John, registered at the Hotel Davies last evening. They went east to-day.

Rev. Father Turbide crossed to the Magdalen on Monday night from Souris. He takes charge of House Harbor parish on the Island of that name.

His Lordship Bishop Macdonald and Dr. Morrison leave by the eastern train today en route to St. George's to attend the funeral of the late Father McPhee.

Rev. Dr. Murray was a passenger by the Princess this morning, returning to his home. Dr. Murray has been supplying the pulpit of Zion Church for some time. His friends here are always glad to see him.

The illness of Mr. George H. Bertram, M. P., Centre Toronto, has assumed a most serious aspect. The disease is said to be of such a grave character that Mr. Bertram will not be able to take his seat in parliament again.

President McKinley has appointed Rev. D. McKinnon, late Chaplain of the First California Volunteers, Chaplain in the Regular Army. Chaplain McKinnon has been chosen by Archbishop Chapple to work with him in the Philippines toward the pacification of the insurrection and the settlement of various church property questions which have arisen.

Patric McKinnon is a native of Prince Edward Island. The Rev. D. M. McDonald, of Tignish, spoke last Sunday of the deplorable advances of the liquor curse in his parish, and announced his intention of inaugurating a crusade against liquor dens whether shack shanties or drug stores. Under the leadership of Rev. McDonald, it is astounding how far has been the advance over the province, and, unfortunately, being no exception. And still the "Morning Organ" toots its little horn in behalf of Donald, the foresworn on license and prohibition!

We announce today with regret, the death of Rev. R. P. McPhee, which occurred yesterday morning at Georgetown, after a long illness. Father McPhee was born at St. Georges and was 61 years of age at the time of his death. He was parish priest at Rustico until, ill health compelled him to retire. About three years ago he removed to Georgetown from Charlottetown. The deceased was highly esteemed by all who knew him. The body will be taken from Georgetown to Cardigan today. From Cardigan it will be conveyed to St. George's, where the interment will take place tomorrow.

Yesterday Rev. D. J. G. McDonald, P. P., Summerside, got a wire from New York saying his brother, Dr. A. D. McDonald, of North Dakota, was dying there. Father Gregory has gone on to take home the remains. Dr. McDonald is quite a young man, and graduated from New York University four or five years ago where he was a class-mate of Dr. Murphy, of Tignish, and the late Dr. Burke, of Boston. He came to New York a few days ago for medical treatment under Dr. Porter, and rapidly sank after his arrival. We deeply sympathize with his numerous friends.

The Reverend Mother Provincial and her companion, Rev. Mother St. Celestine, of the congregation of St. Joseph, who have been here for some weeks, left yesterday morning for their home in St. Paul, Minn., with eighteen young lady postulants to their order. Five of these came from Alberton and four from Mount Carmel, the others being from all over the Province. There was a most touching leave-taking on board the Northumberland. Miss Mary Reid, daughter of Hon. R. B. Reid, of Alberton, is the only girl in the family, and her parents were deeply affected at parting with her. Rev. Fathers Burke and Arsenault were at the boat to see them off. The distinguished sisters are delighted with the Island and its people, and will return next year with renewed pleasure for the numerous postulants they were unable to take with them this time. Mother Provincial St. Seraphine is Archbishop Ireland's sister and Mother St. Celestine his cousin.

All members of the W. C. T. U. and others who are interested in the apron sale are requested to meet in the W. C. T. U. parlors this (Thursday) evening at 7.30.
