God has him in His keeping
We have him in our hearts.

BRISTOL

Sorrow came to this vicinity twice in a week in the passing of Mrs. Joseph Francis, the former Ann Murphy of this vicinity, and the sudden passing of Mrs. Harold Douglas, the former Martina McMillan, whose old home in west St. Peters, is near where she made her home in married life. Two brothers also reside here. Mrs. Douglas' passing was so sudden that some of her old neighbors did not even know about it as she was fine a day previous to her death.

Work on the new fire hall in the village is nearing completion and firemen will be happy when they take over their new station that will be much more convenient for the dispatching of the engines.

Mayor Bruce Yeo of Montague, who has just been elected to office for a sixth term, put on picture shows here weekly in the old village hall with hand operated machines more than 50 years ago.

Friends here of Richard (Dick) Decoursey, who resides in Boston, will be expecting a visit from him this summer as he has retired after some 30 years as a carpenter there. After leaving the old home in Morell east, he never came back despite the fact he was to come every summer. Now he says it's too late, "I won't go back now, my old friends are all gone from Morell."

It's 47 years this spring since some families were stricken with smallpox here and the late Dr. Roddie was the man who sent out the news that some of his patients had smallpox. The dreaded disease was brought here by a colored man who came from the West Indies on a boat and left again, but not before he had dropped the deadly germ that brought doctors and health officers from the city, and residents lived under a yellow flag for more than a month. At least one man who was stricken is still around to tell the story.

Walter O'Brien, and his late father were victims and lingered at death's door for days and were locked in their home not even allowed in the yard for a time after they could get around.

BALTIC

James MacNeill of Kensington is a patient in the Prince County Hospital.

Harry Crozier of Darnley is a patient in the Prince County Hospital Annex.

Mrs. John MacNutt and Mrs. Kenneth Owen of Malpeque spent the weekend with relatives in Charlottetown.

Mrs. George Wall is a patient in the Prince Couty Hospital where she underwent surgery on Monday morning.

Horace Crozier student at Prince of Wales College, spent the weekend with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Crozier, Baltic.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Ramsay, Malpeque that Mr. Ramsay's sister Mrs. Eleanor Amy of Toronto has had surgery and is now makig a good recovery.

On Friday evening the family of Mrs. Atwood Blakeney gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Mathews of Baltic to celebrate Mrs. Blakeney's birthday.

Rev. and Mrs. Frederick Lloyd and Mr. and Mrs. Archibald MacGregor of Central Lot 16 were motorists to Baltic and Darnley on Friday.

George Douglas has returned to his home after spending the past month in Charlottetown where he was a patient in hospital there.

Louis Fitzsimmons of Long River is a patient in Prince County Annex.
