Local and Other Notes.

Gleaned by the Guardian Reporters

H. M. S. Pylades leaves this morning.

WATER street is almost rid of the old hospital now.

STEAMERS PREMIER and Fastnet from Halifax are due here this morning.

THE market Tuesday was well attended. There were no strawberries in. Raspberries sell from 10 to 12c.; other prices no change.

OWING to the unfavorable weather the Citizen's Band did not play in the gardens last evening. If this evening is fine they will be out.

CHARLOTTETOWN'S offer for the Colt stakes, which will be trotted in Halifax, was $810, Amherst's $600, and Halifax gives $1,130.

ONLY buy Tanglefoot Fly paper, it is clean and reliable. Buy it at Dodd's Medical Hall where wholesale and retail you can buy it the cheapest.

THE pile of sand and old bricks on the north side of the market house should be removed. Mr. Gay complains of it being in the way of his team, and as that gentleman is charged a rather high rent for his stall, it is certainly right that his business should not be obstructed.

ECLIPSE PICNIC—Remember the Boys League of the Cross Picnic at Red Point wharf tomorrow. Return tickets and admission to ground 25 cents; children half fare. Batallion Band in attendance. Should the day prove unfavorable it will be held on the following Wednesday.

THE annual Picnic of St. John's Church, Crapaud, will be held on the rectory grounds on Thursday afternoon, Aug. 11th. There will be an apron sale in connection with the Picnic. Tea—Adults, 25c; children, 15c. If the weather should be unfavorable the Picnic will be held on the following day.

MR. R. B. NORTON one of our leading hardware merchants has had his store lately renovated. The walls and ceiling have been nicely tinted and the door and window frames have been painted a dark brown finished in bronze. The work reflects great credit on the artist, Mr. P. Burke.

THE members of the Presbyterian Church at West River intend holding a picnic on the 11th August, on the grounds of Theophilus Stewart, Westville, to which the public are cordially invited. Tea and refreshments will be provided. Should the weather prove unfavorable picnic will be held on the first fine day following.

POLICE COURT.—On Monday in the dirty premises case the magistrate imposed a fine of 5 cents and costs. Peter Monaghan, trucking without license, was fined $5 or 20 days. David Bell drunk and incapable, $30 or 30 days; on Tuesday Joe Valley and Ben Byers, drunk and incapable, got $20 or 20 days and 2 months hard labor respectively.

TELEPHONE communication throughout the whole Island will be completed in a few days. Mt. Albion, McKenzie's Corner, Wellington, Northam, Richmond, Tyne Valley and Port Hill are now on the list and when four more mills of wire have been strung, Alberton and Tignish will be added. Mr. Angus has made a big success of the Telephone Company and deserves great credit.

MARS has been growing brighter and getting nearer to us each evening, and already its brilliancy is such as to attract the attention of the most casual observer, but this evening the planet will reach its opposition, when it will rise at sunset and approach the earth nearer than it has at any time in fifteen years. The distance of Mars from the earth will then be about 35,000,000 miles.

THE Kalama (Washington) Bulletin advocates Rev. Dr. J. R. Thompson a native of P. E. Island, for Lieutenant Governor of the State. Dr. Thompson it will be remembered visited the Island a summer or two ago. He has held many responsible positions during his 22 years sojourn in Washington, being at one time President of the Legislative Council and later chaplain of the convention which drafted the state constitution.

REV. J. WHITLOCK, late pastor of Columbus, Ont., succeeds Rev. T. Reid as pastor of Scugog Methodist Circuit. Before leaving Columbus, his sister, Miss Annie Whitlock, assistent choir leader, and organist of the Epworth League, was presented by the League with a purse of $25 and an address. Miss Whitlock made a suitable reply thanking them for their kindness, as did also Rev. J. Whitlock.

As the Institute for the Western Inspectorate does not meet this year, a committee was appointed to recommend officers for the next year. The officers chosen, and at the afternoon session agreed to, were:

President—W D McIntyre, Kensington.

Vice Pres.—Miss Laura Hodgson.

Secy.-Treas.—G P McDougald.

Executive Com.—Messrs E S McPhail, Jardine, N McLeod, Campbell (inspector) and Miss Sadie Ross.

WE were shown by the Chairman of the Pioneer Committee Tuesday a large ledger in which the accounts with the pioneer settlers were kept. The ledger, although nearly one hundred years old is in a good state of preservation,—and was the property of the Cambridge firm, who dealt largely with the pioneers of that day at Charlottetown and Murray Harbor. The writing is that of the late Hon. Thomas Owen, father of Hon. L. C. Owen, of this city, and will compare favorably with the best writers of today. We were also shown by the same gentleman, a dagger, a sword and a blunderbuss, which did service on Culloden Moor.

THE steamer Worcester from Boston arrived here about 5 o'clock Tuesday evening with a small general cargo and the following passengers:—Miss H Bulpert, Sarah Bright, E Baldwin, Mrs Baker, Mrs Mark Bennett, A Campbell, Mrs R Dyer, Mrs Mary Godfrey and 2 children, Armanda Godfrey, W Grant, G B Hunt, Mrs do, B H Hurd, Flora Hubbard, Mary Jenkins, Mrs James Dolan, Mr and Mrs Lamar, Mrs Ann Lansing and children, Mrs Elliott, Mrs A McWilliams, Kate McDonald, Miss L A McDonald, Angus McDonald, Mary McDonald, A McDonald J H McDonald, Mrs Musgrave and child, Maggie do, Etta McRae, Annie do, Mary B McLeod, Job McGrath, D McEachane, D McEwen, J McRae, J Murchison, Flora Martin, D McLeod, J R McLeod, Mrs McIsaac, Mrs McCormack, Mrs J Nickerson, Mrs Parkman, S L Russell, Minnie Stewart, Sadie A do; Miss A Young, M B Wood, A A White, Miss M E Thomas.

Local and Other Notes.

HON. George Forbes, Vernon River Bridge, is in the city.

TEA and refreshments at all hours tomorrow at Red Point.

Don't be deceived with imitations; take only McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup.

BEER BROS. are showing a splendid range of black and colored Evening Gloves in elbow and shoulder lengths.

No chi'd will refuse to take McLean's Worm Syrup.

OUR 30 cent all wool cloth for boys' wear is the talk of the town. See it.—Patton Bros.

You haven't got to catch the fly and stick him on to the paper if you buy the kind of fly-paper we sell. All you have to do is—lay the paper on a table; the fly does the rest.—Johnson's Drug Store.

"SWIFT," Coventry Machinists' Company, Coventry, England. What about price? For One Hundred Dollars I can sell you a Model D., strong, handsome, thoroughly reliable, with pneumatic tyres and ball bearings throughout. Orders filled quickly. Call at the Queen today. —Victor Frazee.

Born.

At Victoria, Crapaud, on the 23rd ult., Mrs. J. C. Milford, of a son.

Died.

At Murray Harbor North, on the 26th ult., after a protracted illness, Jane, the beloved wife of Gavin Reid, Esq. in the 58 year of her age. The deceased was well and deservedly respected by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She leaves a husband, four sons and two daughters, besides a large circle of relations and friends to mourn the loss of an affectionate wife and mother, and a quiet and obliging neighbor and friend.

At Charlottetown, August 1st, Donald McFadyen, aged 71. He died fully trusting in the merits of his Redeemer.

Funeral from his late residence, Market Square, at 10 o'clock Wednesday, to Highfield Cemetery.

At her father's residence, Dufferin Road, Strathalbyn, July 24th, Margaret Ann beloved daughter of Norman and Jennet McLeod, aged 19 years. She bore her last illness with the utmost gentleness and patience. As the end drew near, tho' fully realizing the fact, she faced death without shrinking, calmly trusting in the merits of her Saviour and deriving special comfort from this passage: "the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth from all sin." The bereaved parents and other relatives have our sympathy, but they sorrow not as those who have no hope.
