

IN CHANCERY ROLLS COURT

An Important Judgment by Master of the Rolls Re Scott Act.

Re application for a Habeas Corpus by Thomas Lynch: This is an application for a Habeas Corpus.

I granted a Rule Nisi on 4th of May, returnable before the court today. The facts are these:—Thomas Lynch was convicted before George Tweedy, Esq., the Stipendiary Magistrate for West Prince for a second offence under the Canada Temperance Act. The conviction is dated 6th September, 1905.

The operation of the C. T. A. was revoked by Order in Council on 7th April 1906.

On the 21st April it was 17 days after the C. T. Act had been revoked a com-

Just Think of the Saving

Even on the smallest articles and on the larger articles it means much more. Take mattresses, for instance you can buy three for about the price of two, or if you want an Iron Bed you save more than enough in some cases to buy a spring for it.

mitment was issued on the conviction before Tweedy and Lynch was lodged in jail next day. The question is, could the commitment legally issue after the publication of the order in Council 7th April revoking the C. T. Act?

Mr. William has argued that sections 49 and 51 of the Interpretation Act do not apply to this question. Probably they do not. I decide this question independently of these sections.

I take it to be well-established law that when a statute prescribing the punishment for an offence or crime is repealed after such offence or crime has been committed but before a final judgment of conviction though after a verdict of guilty, no punishment can be imposed because the act must be punishable when judgment is demanded and authority to render judgment must still reside in the court. But when sentence has been pronounced and nothing remains but to fix the day when it shall be executed, the case is not affected by the repeal of the law, because the Court in fixing the day of execution does not exercise a judicial power, but only acts ministerially. His Lordship here referred to authorities in support of the law thus laid down and proceeded.

In this case the statute was in force and the Magistrate had jurisdiction when

- (1) The offence was committed;
- (2) When the information was laid;
- (3) When the conviction was made;
- (4) When judgment was pronounced.

Tweedy's judicial functions then ceased. The case was ended, all that remained was to sign the document sending the party to prison—a mere ministerial act which need not be performed by the magistrate who pronounced the judgment but by any other magistrate who may have had jurisdiction to hear and decide the matter.

THE MANAGER OF THE SAINTS

Out in the field, where the sunlight falls
In a shower of gold on the Emerald grass
Where a cricket chirps, and a robin calls
As the players swiftly come and pass:
John Quinn stands and watches the play
Of the S. D. C's, day after day;
Determined that things will be done
His way

And the Saints shall win.
He sees each error the players make,
And he coaches them how to hit the ball!
He is in his note-book each mistake
And keeps an eye on the players all.
He makes them play with a dash and vim;
His eyes are bright, and he's lithe of limb!
And he seems to think that it's up to him
That the Saints shall win.

There is not a thing that the players do
That escapes his eye on the Diamond green;
There is ginger enough in his frame for twod,
And he fancies ball that's fast and clean.
It's hustle and hit, and keep in play,
Don't let a single thing away,
Just keep going from day to day
And the Saints can win.

HOLIDAY FOR TIRED WOMEN

MONTREAL, May 10.—The Old Brewery Mission is arranging to provide a summer home for tired mothers and delicate children. It will engage a nurse-deaconess and is planning to hold open air meetings during the summer with the aid of a Gospel wagon. This work was proposed but it was found impossible to do more than give the working women and children a trip or two around the city or mountains in the street cars, and an occasional picnic to St. Helen's Island.

This year it has been decided to secure a lot, on some lake front if possible, and established a home, or village, perhaps, where women and children may spend a two weeks' holiday in the open air with all the advantages and benefits of country life. Several options have been secured by the committee within twenty miles of the city. If a house large enough cannot be secured tents will be provided and everything possible will be done to make the visitors comfortable.

COLD SETTLES IN THE BACK.

It hits people in a tender spot and makes it mighty hard to brace up. Nervine takes that link out of your spinal column in short order; it soothes, that's why relief comes so soon. Nervine penetrates, that's why it cures. Five times stronger than ordinary remedies, Nervine can't fail to cure lame back, lamboago, sciatica and neuralgia. Nervine is instant death to all muscular pain. For nearly fifty years it has been the largest selling liniment in Canada. Better try it.

THE ALBANI CONCERT.

Is Under The Patronage of Earl Gray.

Madame Albani numbers among her intimate friends, Earl Gray, Lord Strathcona, and Sir Wilfred Laurier, all of who are uniting to make this farewell tour of the world which Madame Albani is making, the most successful of any that she has ever undertaken. It will be noted that the interests of these three prominent men, are all bound up in Canada, and they recognize what Albani has done for this country, and the fact that she is the only really great artist that this young country has yet produced, places her in a really unique position before Canadians. The present tour is under the patronage of Earl Gray, Governor General of Canada. While in Ottawa, Albani and the Contralto Miss Gauthier were the guests of Sir Wilfred and Lady Laurier, and during the few days she remained in the Capital, several functions were arranged in Albani's honor at the Government house. Those who purpose hearing the Albani concert June 4th should secure their tickets early as without a question every seat will be sold quickly.—Tickets are now on sale at J. G. Jamieson's Drugstore.

WHY THAT WEARINESS?

You're uneasy, restless, without appetite. Still worse you are thin and lagged out. Work must be done, but where is the strength to come from? Make your blood nutritious and you'll do more than give the working women and children a trip or two around the city or mountains in the street cars, and an occasional picnic to St. Helen's Island. This year it has been decided to secure a lot, on some lake front if possible, and established a home, or village, perhaps, where women and children may spend a two weeks' holiday in the open air with all the advantages and benefits of country life.
