Town Planning Group Wants Specific Data

By RALPH CAMERON
Guardian-Patriot Staff Writer

Submission of a complete set of plans for the proposed development, assurance that building would be proceeded with and completed in the time set, and positive knowledge that the requisite financing will be forthcoming, must be given the Town Planning Advisory Board before it will hear the application for changing zoning regulations in the northwest section of the city, chairman Walter Cox said Saturday.

The board recently brought a recommendation before City Council that a previous submission, asking for re-zoning for light commercial purposes, be not accepted by Council, which thereupon refused the application.

At that time, it was proposed to build a shopping centre, bowling alley and bottling plant in the Belvedere Avenue area.

The present application for re-zoning merely involves a minor change to permit larger multiple housing units. The zoning now only allows units of four apartments each. An increase to eight is sought.

Mr. Cox felt there would be no difficulty regarding a change to permit building these multiple units if conditions outlined above are met.

The area is now restricted to four - apartment units but this could be easily amended by striking out the word four and inserting eight. It is believed a majority of the board members, as well as city councillors, would favor the move, which would add greatly to the number of apartments in the city.

50-60 APARTMENTS

Plans of the promoters are believed to call for the erection of a number of units, each containing six or eight apartments, with a total of between 50 and 60 apartments in the finished project.

The application was made by Frederic A. Large, QC, local lawyer, on behalf of a representative, J. Manovill, of a group of United States real estate investors.

Visitors From Florida Find Island Hospitality Is Genuine

A claim as to the hospitality of Prince Edward Island residents and the beauty of the Island, made to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Branch in their home town of Jacksonville Beach, Florida eight years ago, was not fully believed by the couple until they visited P.E.I. this week. When leaving the couple said the eight-year-old claim was certainly true.

The claim was made to Mr. and Mrs. Branch, who are nearing their 80th year, by Reuel LePage and Newman McLellan and their wives on visiting Florida.

On arriving in Charlottetown, Mr. and Mrs. Branch were not long renewing the old friendship with their visitors of eight years ago. Mr. LePage took them on a tour of the North Shore and other points of interest. A buffet supper was served at Mr. LePage's home on North River Road.

Among the guests, which had previously met Mr. and Mrs. Branch in Florida were Mr. and Mrs. Loran MacLellan, Mrs. Arthur G. Bruce, and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Leaman. Other guests were Col. and Mrs. Frederick Andrew, Mr and Mrs. Robert Parent and Mr. and Mrs. Walter LePage.

A picture of an Island scene was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Branch as a reminder of their visit to the province.

Berry Crop Said Half Last Year's

By NEIL A. MATHESON
Provincial and Farm Editor

Strawberry production in this province will be far below last year's record crop, it was learned Saturday, from growers and exchanges in various parts of the province, though it will probably run close to 75 per cent of normal production.

Lane Piggott, manager of the Mount Stewart exchange, said "the 50 growers in our exchange report crops of 50 to 75 per cent of last year, on the average, and the handle at the plant thus far is only one-half of last year. They have put up 300,000 monocups — 15 ounces each — to date, he added.

ABNORMALLY HIGH

Mr. Piggot explained, though, that last year's crop was abnormally high, with some growers getting up to 10,000 to 12,000 quarts per acre, which compared favorably with Nova Scotia, where growers get up to 12,000 quarts off irrigated land. But it is far from normal. A pick of 6,000 to 7,000 quarts off new berries is a good normal crop, he said.

The exchange manager added that the crop is much later this year, with the berries slow to ripen, and the exchange will have to run into August. "Normally, we figure on 15 days in the plant, but it will run into the fourth week this year," he contrasted.

Norman MacLeod, manager of the Charlottetown exchange, said "production is away down" this year, about 50 per cent of what it was a year ago.

SMALLER CROPS

"Some growers report they won't have half the crop they had a year ago. It will run two weeks later than last year," he added.

The half-crop theme was sounded consistently at Wood Islands Saturday by a number of growers who were awaiting transportation to Nova Scotia, where they are marketing their crop.

TWO DROWNED

ly 12 feet in depth but has holes in some places which are nearly 20 feet.

Passerbys saw the accident and phoned the Souris Detachment of the RCMP with the result that dragging operations were commenced at approximately 7 p.m.

At 9.30 Hillary Cheverie, Souris, and Francis Gillis, Elmira, who were out in a boat with grappling hooks located the body of John Dixon.

Dragging operations were still continuing late last night with the body of Frank Dixon still not recovered.

SWIMMERS ASSIST

A number of swimmers from Souris assisted in the dragging operations by diving into the pond and swimming underwater, but the water was so muddy they had to give up their efforts. Also playing a part in the search was "Doc" Richards of Souris, a skin diver, who searched the waters for more than an hour. Mr. Richards expected to return to the scene at sun rise to resume his efforts, if the body was not recovered by then.

The pond is located near the main road and the long lines of cars, which surrounded the pond, gave aid by supplying light with their headlights.

It had not been decided last night if an inquest will be held.

Mr. Dixon is survived by his wife (the former Shirley Fisher of Truro, N.S. and five children, David 13, Susan, 12, Beverly 11, George 10 and William 5, his mother, Mrs. Annie Dixon, East Baltic, nine brothers, Colin, Connecticutt, U.S.A., Albert and Richard, Sudbury, Ont., Frederick, Moncton, N.B., Edgar, Truro, Arthur, Harold, Robert, and Walter, all in East Baltic, and three sisters, Elsie, Sudbury, Ont., Muriel, Kingsboro, P.E.I. and Adele, Charlottetown

Island Trade Fair Snagged

The possibility that the Kinsmen Club will have to scrap the proposed trade fair here is being considered, but a definite decision will be reached at a meeting on Thursday, it was learned Saturday from Kenneth Jenkins, who is in charge of the project for the club.

The proposal appeared headed for success at first, but they are running into snags recently, with most of the complaints being that merchants have become so involved with participation in other endeavours, such as the Lobster Carnival and Old Home Week show, for example? they just haven't time to do the work necessary to participate in such a fair here.

The idea was to hold the fair from Thursday through Saturday, September 13 to 15.

There has been plenty of interest shown from firms outside the province wanting to come in, but the idea of this fair was to give P.E.I. merchants, businessmen, and producers an opportunity to promote their own products, it was explained.
