ATTEMPTED BREAK—An obliging crook kept his word after he had notified a City merchant that he would break into his store in three weeks time. Some time ago Mr. R. H. Lowther of Victory Avenue received an anonymous letter in which it was stated that the writer would break into Mr. Lowther's store. When the proprietor opened the store on Tuesday morning, he found that a plate glass in the front door had been broken. A heavy wooden shutter however proved a little too much for the intruder to get through. This is the fourth attempted break that has been made on Mr. Lowther's store. City Police are investigating.
