IN MEMORIAM

HEWITT - In memory of Greta Rogers Hewitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rogers, Coleman.

Memories are silent treasures And cause us to remember At blossom time when roses bloom in December.

Mother, Dad, Harris and family.

SWAN - In loving memory of our husband and father, Harry J. Swan who passed away April 29, 1955.

"Some day" we say and turn our eyes Toward the fair hills of Paradise. Some day, some time, our eyes shall see.

The faces kept in memory. Some day there hands shall clasp our hand. Just over in the morning-land, O Morning Land, O Morning Land. Lovingly remembered by his wife and family.

IN MEMORIAM

REV. ARTHUR G. HABERLIN

The sudden passing of the Rev. Arthur Garfield Haberlin in Trafalgar, Pennsylvania, on the night of Wednesday, March 27, 1957, came as a great shock to his family, relatives and friends. The late Mr. Haberlin had just returned from the mass funeral of a pre-Easter Service in his Church when he suffered a heart attack and died.

The deceased was born in Dundas, P.E.I., on July 17, 1886, and was the only son of the late Edward Haberlin and Effie Livingstone. He received his early education in the Abney School and then went to Mount Allison University, Sackville, N.B., where he obtained the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Divinity. He later received his Master of Arts degree from Yale University. As a minister in The United Church of Canada he served on the Bayfield, New Brunswick, and Hampton, New Brunswick, charges. He later held pastorates in Stonington, Connecticut; Pittsburg, Pennsylvania; and Trafalgar, Pennsylvania. He also served as a Chaplain in the United States Army. About two years ago he suffered a heart attack but was given sufficient strength to carry on the great work to which he had given his life.

The departed was highly esteemed by all his friends and fellow workers. Those who knew him best thought of him always as a "Christian Gentleman." His convictions and high standards of service to Christ in the Church. Men saw his work and knew that his inner life was strengthened in the secret place of God's presence. A man of cheerful disposition, he was always able to see the brighter side of life. The breadth of his sympathies, his kindly and courageous faith, made him a loving pastor and a faithful preacher. He will ever be remembered by those men, women and children, who by his ministry were led into the Christian life, and built it up in faith and hope and love.

Besides his sorrowing widow, Avaline Allen, he leaves to mourn his passing one daughter, Edna (Mrs. Emery), and two sisters, Margaret (Mrs. James Darby), White Sands, P.E.I., and Anna, (Mrs. Harry Van der Meer), Peter's Road, P.E.I. The heartfelt sympathy of a host of friends and neighbors goes out to the family in their bereavement.

"Father to These we look in all our sorrows; Thou art the fountain whence our healing flows; Dark though the night, joy cometh with the morning, Safely they rest who in Thy love repose."

The funeral was held from the Daugherty Funeral Home on Sunday, March 31, and was conducted by Dr. G. Lawrence Himmelman, assisted by Dr. Paul C. Bekeschus. Interment took place in the Grandview cemetery.

"Now the day of toll is done, Now the race of life is run, Father, grant Thy weary one, Rest for evermore."
