trates from Kensington to Winstoe is now 25c per 100 pounds as against a rate of 17c in 1950. This indicates the extra costs that go into the cost of farm commodities.

Eggs & Poultry

Prince Edward Island dealers are paying a price for Grade A Large and Grade A Medium eggs which is the equal or in line with prices across Canada but prices on the other grades are somewhat lower—three to four cents lower on Grade B and two to four cents on "C" grades. This comment is based on Charlottetown prices.

These comparisons might be different if comparisons were made with other points in the Province. Wholesale to retail although paying prices to producers are generally lower than the average for Canada, prices to retailers are above the Canadian average. Prices to consumers are slightly higher here than for like grades of eggs charged across Canada.

A review of prices quoted producers in Prince Edward Island for poultry meat is similar to that of eggs only somewhat lower. In the case of dressed chicken, prices are two to four cents lower on Grade A, two to four cents lower on Grade B, and in the case of Grade C—three to five cents lower than the average price for Canada. Fowl quotations are some five to seven cents lower per pound, basis Grade A. Perhaps there is something in this talk that the system under which poultry products are marketed in Prince Edward Island is less efficient than in other provinces with like conditions.

Operators of grading stations are quoting producers for ungraded eggs:

Charlottetown: AL 33, AM 30, AS 24, B 24, C 19.
O'Leary: AL 30, AM 25, AS 22, B 22, C 17.
Summerside: AL 33, AM 28, AS 25, B 25, C 22.
Montague: AL 31, AM 26, AS 21, B 22, C 17.

Dealers are quoting station operators for the graded pack delivered AL 38, AM 36, AS 30, B 30, C 25, and quoting retailers for same pack AL 44, AM 40, AS 33, B 34. Eggs retailing, to consumers AL 50-53, AM 42-5, AS 40, B 39-42.

IN MEMORIAM

ANDREW BRYANTON

Mr. Andrew Bryanton passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fannie Hiltz, Sea View, where he had resided, on Tuesday, January 29th, in his 80th year.

The late Mr. Bryanton enjoyed good health, and more important, enjoyed life to the very last of his almost four-score years. Seemingly to have attained perpetual youth, he took a keen interest in everything about him, enjoying hockey in winter and picture shows in summer as opportunity offered. He was an ardent reader and found radio listening an interesting pastime.

In the course of a long lifetime, he had made for himself many friends but few enemies.

About two months previous to his death he became very ill, but under the skilled care of his doctor, and with tender nursing, he seemed to be making a good recovery, and was able to take short walks. However, his condition suddenly became worse, and on Sunday evening, January 27th, he suffered a stroke from which he failed to rally and passed away on Tuesday morning. The funeral was held from his

Saturday Night Club

On Tuesday evening, January 29th a free dance was held in the "Y" gym with music by Don Messer's Trio. This was the big opener to the "Y" new Saturday Night Club. This club is held every Saturday evening from 8 o'clock until midnight and is open for young people between the ages of 16 to 21 approximately. Over two hundred were present at this dance under the capable Master of Ceremonies, Gurney Trites. Miss Susan (the broom) was a very popular young lady during the evening and late residence on Thursday, January 31st, and despite the extremely cold weather and bad roads was very largely attended. Friends coming from far and near to pay their last tribute of respect.

The service was conducted by the Rev. R. W. Coupland. The hymns sung, with Mrs. Leigh Sutherland at the organ, were, "Safe In The Arms Of Jesus", "Breathe On Me, Breath of Life", and "Abide With Me."

Left to mourn are four sons and two daughters, Maynard of Malpeque; Horace, Kensington; Arnold, Halifax, N. S.; Wilbur, Spring Valley; (Stella) Mrs. George Adams, Sea View, and Mrs. Fannie Hiltz, Sea View; also, one sister, Mrs. James Duggan, Sea View.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Amos Adams, Arthur Stewart, John E. Campbell, Eddie Murphy, Leiland Campbell and Earle McKay.

The remains were conveyed to the People's Cemetery, Kensington, and tenderly laid to rest beside his wife who predeceased him 22 years ago.

The funeral was under the direction of J. L. Davison.

record turn out and the "Valentine Party" was voted one of the best. After a most interesting game of autograph bingo some "imported" local talent presented an impromptu one act play. Dancing to the Charlottetownians finished a most successful evening. Next week we settle down to business with talks by Canon E. M. Malone on "Life a Liberty" and J. E. Theriault, M.D. on "General Aspects of Mental Hygiene." In the interest groups there will be bowling, bridge, running and operating a film projector and badminton. So-Edders would do well to note that golf will not be available due to an unfortunate circumstance. However we have secured an instructor for Square Dancing and if you wish to become a "top downer" please come early Tuesday evening to register as the group is limited to 24. Your usual So-Ed party will wind-up the evening.
