THE NEW GOVERNMENT.

This resignation of the Hon. Mr. Peters will necessitate the formation of a new Government, and for this purpose we learn through the columns of the Patriot that a meeting of the Liberal members of the Assembly has been called for Tuesday next. On that day those members will be asked to ratify an arrangement already made by which the Hon. Mr. Peters will name the Hon. Donald Farquharson to His Honor the Lieutenant Governor as Premier, who, in turn, will be asked to nominate Mr. A. B. Warburton as Attorney General. This, we learn, is the plan laid out by a wing of the party in Charlottetown, and which it is expected will be adopted at the matter-of-form meeting to be held on Tuesday next. The office of Commissioner of Public Lands and Provincial Treasurer is to remain in the hands of the present occupant; but doubts are entertained regarding the office of Commissioner of Public Works. It is claimed that Queen's County is entitled to the office, and that a strong effort will be made to give it to Mr. Wise, the Premier's colleague, in order that Hon. Mr. Farquharson may have control of that important department. Whether the party in Charlottetown will be able to carry out this arrangement remains to be seen. There are many other conflicting claims to be adjusted. For instance, in the matter of the Attorney Generalship it is said that Mr. Hector C. McDonald and his friends will make a most vigorous demand for the coveted post. They claim that he is the oldest Liberal member in the house, and in point of ability is at least the peer of Mr. Warburton who is and has been for some time past Dominion Law Agent, with which he should be satisfied, and that therefore Mr. McDonald is entitled to the appointment. On the other hand Mr. Warburton and his friends will make a most determined effort for him, and Sir Louis H. Davies who is one of Mr. Warburton's strongest supporters will remain over in Charlottetown until after the party meeting.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—It seems that Erastus Wiman, who a few years ago was framing the commercial policy of the Liberal party, is not yet out of politics. He is a candidate of the Henry George party for councillor in the New York city government.

—The street railway company of Hamilton is asking the city for relief. The company pays taxes on its property a mileage rate on its tracks, and a percentage on its net income. The company paid altogether $16,000 last year. It is willing to pay five per cent. on $200,000 income, and to carry school children both ways for five cents.

—The credit of Canada is such after eighteen years of Conservative rule, says the Halifax Herald, that Minister Fielding can hardly help making a "good loan"; but staunch old Reform journals of the Huntington Gleaner stamp are reminding him that what the party promised the people was not to make good loans, but to make no loans at all.

—An exchange points out that at a "grand rally" of the liberal clubs of Montreal, at which Premier Laurier and his Minister of Public Works were present, an address was read congratulating Mr. Tarte upon the "happy issue" of his libel suit against Grenier, and at the conclusion of the reading of the address M. Fontaine, secretary of the Tarte club, "pinned a handsome medal on his breast." We may expect to see Laurier with his Cobden medal, and Tarte with his Tarte club medal, going about the country on a tandem, displaying their breast decorations and giving exhibitions as "the heavenly twins."

—Mail and Empire: Israel Tarte explains that his transference to the Liberal ranks finds precedents in the cases of Gladstone, of Lord John Russell, of Sir Robert Peel, of the Duke of Wellington, of Lord Palmerstone, of Lord Derby, and of Mr. Chamberlain, all of whom left the parties with which they were first connected to join their opponents. It is therefore a brilliant constellation of political migrants that we now have. Gladstone, Tarte, Peel and Wellington make quite a pretty quartette. But we do not think the British statesmen had the same justification as Tarte. They changed, not because they were appointed political managers at $4,000 a year by the other side, but on mere questions of principle.

—Chatham World: The editor of the World has received a circular from the organizers of the Blair dinner at St. John, offering him a ticket for the dinner (price $5) and urging that application for the same be made at once. The circular announces that the banquet "will be entirely non-political in its character and is intended as a personal compliment to the Minister." The circular, of course, has been sent to hundreds, if not thousands, with the expectation that some of the recipients would accept. This is the way the people are rising up spontaneously to dine together in honor of the great on-the-fence statesman! A few of his coattail appendages, after consultation with him, arranged for the dinner and then flooded the country with circulars requesting persons to attend.

—The Kingston, Ont., Whig under the editorial heading of "Paternal Government," says: The Kingston Locomotive Works tendered for three locomotives for the Intercolonial railway. The United States firms as usual bid low. Not a bit of foreign work escapes their grasp, for they foster business and national spirit. If the government had laid duty upon the foreign locomotives, as it does on the things the Canadian manufacturer imports, the Kingston tender would be the lowest. But this reasonable fair play was denied the Canadian competitor. The officials of the works here sought an interview with the Hon. Mr. Blair, but could not secure it prior to his trip to England, and now on his return, he has announced that there is no time for parley, that the locomotives have been ordered from the United States. A department that thus treats home manufacturers is not a paternal one. Sir Richard Cartwright received the Kingston delegation very cordially, but his intercession had little effect upon his New Brunswick colleague, who has small sympathy for Ontario people.

WOMEN'S LOCAL COUNCIL.

On Tuesday immediately after the departure of the Vice-Regal Party from Charlottetown, a meeting of ladies was held in the Legislative Library for the purpose of considering the possibility of forming a "Local Council" in connection with the "Women's National Council of Canada." Mrs. Anderson was requested to take the chair and Miss Gertrude Davies was elected secretary (pro tem). After some discussion it was proposed and unanimously agreed to that a Provincial Committee be appointed to call upon the pastors of the various churches and request them to be so kind as to wait upon the presidents of the different societies connected with their churches asking them to ascertain the mind of these organizations in regard to forming and joining a "Local Council" in this city. Also requesting them to send delegates to a meeting to be held on Friday 22nd Oct. at 11 a. m. in the Y. M. C. A. parlours.

It is also earnestly hoped that the clergymen themselves will find it convenient to be present at the next meeting in order to help the ladies to organize.

Lady delegates were also appointed to wait upon the presidents of the following societies, viz: The W. C. T. U., the Salvation Army, The Y's., the Teacher's Institute. Any society or organization not mentioned at the meeting is most cordially invited to co-operate and send delegates to the next meeting.

The following are the names of the ladies, arranged alphabetically, who kindly consented to compose the Provisional Committee, also of the churches to whose pastors they are delegated:

- Mrs F Beer, Grace Church.
 - Mrs Geo Bremner, Baptist Church.
 - Mrs Campbell, First Methodist Church.
 - Mrs Farquharson, Zion Church.
 - Mrs McDonald, Roman Catholic Church.
 - Miss Macgill, St James Church.
 - Miss Amy Palmer, St Paul's Church.
 - Miss Snaddon, Christian Church.
- Names of societies and of lady delegates:—
- Mrs Bartlett, Salvation Army.
 - Mrs Bremner, Y's.
 - Mrs Frederick Peters, W. C. T. U.
 - Mrs Anderson, Teacher's Institute.
 - N. B.—The next meeting in furtherance of the L. C. will take place on Friday, 22nd Oct., at 11 a. m. in the Y. M. C. A. Parlor.

COUNTY COURT AT SOURIS.

The October term of the Court was in session the greater part of this week, Judge Reddin presiding. The docket was not very large. The most important cases were the following:

Henry and Smith vs. McDonald—Trespass for a stone, etc. Judgment for plaintiffs $6 and costs. A Mellish for plaintiffs.

McLaughlan vs. McDonald—Debt $30 due on wagon was bought by son—Judgment for plaintiff $30.

Currie vs. McIntosh—Debt $16.50 Defence an offset for goods of debt seized by plaintiff under an execution against one McLeod vs. Currie, and a promise thereon. Judgment reserved. Rattenbury for plaintiff, Wheat for defendant.

A. Currie, plaintiff, Lawrence McDonald, defendant; Elizabeth McDonald and another, claimants.

This was an interpleader suit in which bailiff Patrick Davau had seized goods on the property of Lawrence McDonald and which were claimed by Elizabeth McDonald and another. The property was claimed for three reasons, 1st, That certain articles were absolutely the property of the claimant; 2nd, that other goods were covered by a bill of sale; and 3rd that the goods were the property of claimant by virtue of a marriage settlement setting them apart from husband's control. Judgment for claimants with costs. O. Rattenbury for sheriff and plaintiff, Arthur Mellish for claimants.

A FAST RUN.—One of the most enjoyable runs we ever had on the Prince Edward Island Railway, was on Wednesday last, when Superintendent Sharpe's special returned to Charlottetown. In the Superintendent's special car were Lieut. Governor and Mrs Howlan, Sir Louis H. Davies, Hon. F. Peters, and Mr. Sharpe himself. The run from Summerside to Charlottetown was made in one hour and fifty minutes, in which is included a loss of ten minutes for a crossing at Hunter River. The run of seventeen miles from here to Emerald was made in twenty eight minutes. The trip was smooth and nice, showing the excellent condition of the road and rolling stock under the superintendence of Mr. Sharpe. The run was highly creditable to the locomotive driver, Mr. N. D. Armour, and to the conductor, Mr. Jas. R. McKie, Summerside Journal.

BOLD BRUI.—The Hillsboro, N. B. News says: While Edward McLatchey was digging potatoes in his field at Lower Hillsboro on Monday afternoon, what was his surprise to see a huge bear walk out of the bushes and seize a sheep from among a flock that was grazing on the hillside and proceed back to the woods with it. On Tuesday afternoon a large number armed with various kinds of weapons, consisting of all kinds of fire arms, axes, hatchets, etc., started out but were unsuccessful in the attempt, although several traces of him were found.

The Famous Prairie

Will bake a pyramid of bread with the same amount of fuel that other stoves use to bake a few loaves. The famous Prairie is the result of our latest efforts, having an extra large fire box, and will burn soft or hard coal or wood.

REASONS WHY

Thermometer in oven shows exact heat. Steel oven bottom heats over quickly. Heavily cemented stove bottom prevents heat from escaping. Fresh air circulation through oven makes wholesome bread.
