PRIMATE PLANS VISIT

ATHENS (AP)—The Orthodox primate of Greece, Archbishop Chrysostomos, has accepted an invitation to visit the Soviet Union next fall, a spokesman for the Moscow patriarchate reported Tuesday. The invitation was conveyed to the 85-year-old Greek primate by Archbishop-Dr. Iouvanlis, head of the Russian ecclesiastical mission in Jerusalem.

The island is growing in popularity as a convention centre and excellent facilities are available for such meetings. Rigid government inspection, insuring adherence to sanitary regulations, is carried out annually. Only licensed es-
