

MR. AND MRS. ALBENE ARSENAULT

St. John The Baptist Church Scene Of Wedding

St. John the Baptist Church in Missouche, P.E.I., was the setting for a very lovely summer wedding when Mary Lila Gauthier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vital C. Gauthier, St. Nicholas, and Joseph Albene Arsenault, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theophile Arsenault, Mont Carmel, were united in marriage, on June 27, 1956, at 8 a.m.

The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Father Kelly.

The radiant bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a double net dress over white satin, ankle length and strapless. A lace bolero with a wide border of matching lace on the skirt completed the ensemble. Her jewelry consisted of a double strand pearl necklace with matching ear-rings. Her crown was the gift of the groom. Her Queen of Scots crown-shaped headdress was embroidered with pearl sequins and white carnations.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Arsenault will reside in Summerside where the groom is employed with Victory Cleaners and the bride is an employee of F.E. MacDonald, Ltd. (Photo by Sears)

Bay, the bridesmaid wore a becoming yellow net over taffeta gown with matching bolero.

She wore a crown headdress similar to the bride's, composed of yellow and white flowers. Her bouquet was pink and white roses.

Mr. Filmon Arsenault, brother of the groom, was the best man.

The bride's mother wore a navy dress with white accessories. And her corsage was white carnations.

The groom's mother wore gray with white accessories and her corsage was white carnations.

The wedding breakfast was held at the bride's home when fifty guests assembled to wish the happy young couple all every happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Arsenault left on a motor tour of the Maritimes. The bride's travelling costume was moss green, box-style suit with white accessories. On the green suit she wore a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Elegance Theme Grandmothers Grace

By DOROTHY ROE
NEW YORK (AP)—You've got to be elegant this fall. You've got to dress to the teeth, act like a lady and perhaps learn how to swoon with the grace that grandmothers understood so well.

That is the theme that has been impressed upon the fashion press this week, during a series of previews of New York fall styles, all of which have been bitten by a nostalgic bug producing large rashes of ladylike elegance in the 1912 manner.

Pauline Trigere, the transplanted French designer, hits a high note of suave, understated magnificence in her collection of great-lady fashions. There is nothing extravagant or overdone in her well-bred fall lineup, as is to be expected. But there is definitely a new air of formality, of fastidiousness, of manners and attitudes not seen in these parts for rich onto 40 years.

SOFTENS LINES
Ben Zuckerman, master of the tailored touch, softens the line

this season with empire suggestion, feminine detail and lush fabrics. His suits, while still unmistakably tailored by a master hand, have a look of fragility that is the mark of the new season's female.

William Fox also interprets the new feeling of fashion in definite terms of elegance, showing dresses and costumes with a feeling that would be instantly recognized and applauded by the pre-war generation of ladylike ladies.

And Harvey Berin, through his designer Karen Stark, conjures up a magic atmosphere of fastidiousness and romantic elaboration in a suave collection of town-bred fashions which seem to call for a carriage complete with coachman.

When Columbus, Ohio, police admitted their only charge against a man they'd arrested was check-forging, he grabbed the check in question from a cop and swallowed the evidence.

MORNING SMILE
He wanted to make his girl friend a little more interested in him. "I went out with a nurse yesterday," he said, looking searchingly at her face.

"Really? Well never mind dear," smiled the girl. "Perhaps in a year or two your mother will let you out without one."

HOUSEHOLD HINT
Pictures will hang straight if you first hang them face to the wall. Then, without taking the picture off the hook, turn it over. A loop is thus put in the wire and prevents the picture from slipping.

HAPPENINGS

Another kindred spirit, as Anne herself would have expressed it, called Tuesday at Green Gables. Dr. Lily Ross, Public Health Officer for Maternal and Child Welfare, and a prominent member of the Newcastle-on-Tyne Business and Professional Women's Club met Island members attending the B.P.W. Congress in Montreal.

She told them that she certainly intended to visit the Island because she so much wished to see the Anne country.

During her visit to Anne's house she proved herself steeped in the book. She was quite perturbed that Matthew's room was upstairs. According to the book it should be down-stairs!

Also much as she liked the Anne dolls, she wanted one with freckles! That was the idea of the much known and loved Anne.

J.J. MacIsaac, Q.C., of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, is visiting on the Island at his old home at Rock Barra.

Mr. MacIsaac is accompanied by his son Lieutenant Alistair MacIsaac who is on leave from the Canadian Army (Regular).

Dr. A.C. Henderson, Mrs. Henderson and three children are holidaying at Cavendish. Dr. Henderson was a medical missionary in Africa for fifteen years being in charge of a large modern hospital. For reasons of health, Dr. Henderson was advised to return to Canada. He now practices in Chatham, Ontario, and is a generous contributor to the African hospital. Mrs. Henderson whose mother came from Cavendish is a niece of Mrs. W.A. Stewart.

Dr. and Mrs. A.J. William Myers, Lytton Boulevard, Toronto, arrived Tuesday for a holiday at Miss Mary Stewart's, Cavendish.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brush and young son Eldon of Harrow, Ontario, are visiting Mrs. Brush's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Coult and their children Donald and Peter, Leaside, Toronto, are holidaying in Bedouque. They are guests of Mrs. Coult's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Muttart. Mr. Coult is a prominent younger member of the legal profession in Toronto.

Mrs. H. Bruce McAdam, Font-hill, Ontario, accompanied by her daughter Sandra, is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walton. While in Charlottetown they are registered at "The Flocks."

The Rev. Herbert J. Simpson, B.D., Minister of Hillcrest Church of Christ, Toronto, and Mrs. Simpson are on a trip to sunny New Mexico. In the church calendar they send a message to their congregation as follows: Greetings from sunny New Mexico and we do mean "sunny"! There has been no rain in this area for 135 days and the desert is desert indeed! The city of Albuquerque is like an oasis of restful green-as is of course every place here where a supply of water has been found deep in the bowels of the earth.

There is an incredible beauty about these vast expanses of land, sky and space, with the colourful distant horizons of the mountains.

En route to Mexico Mr. and Mrs. Simpson enjoyed a week's visit with relatives in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Sunday, June 17, they worshipped in the Church where they were married weekly by an identical service held at a near-by Drive-In-Theatre. The minister here, Rev. Roy G. Ford, is a Canadian and a former P.E. Islander.

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson plan to spend several days with relatives in Ruitosa—a mountain resort in southern New Mexico.

They leave for home July 4, accompanied by friends on an 11 day trip to Hawaii—flying from Los Angeles on July 6, returning by S.S. "Lurline" which docks in San Francisco on July 23.

Mrs. J.C. Whitaker, Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Whitaker, London, Ontario and their families have been, summering at Miss Mary Stewart's, Cavendish. While in Charlottetown they called on Mrs. Chester McLure and Miss Lena McLure, Bonmahley. Mrs. Whitaker and Miss McLure were in residence together at the Royal Conservatory, Toronto.

Rev. Charles H. Johnson and

Mrs. Johnson, St. John, N.B. are visitors to the Island. Rev. Mr. Johnson is archivist of the United Church and is pursuing his study of early church history during his visit here.

SEVEN MILE BAY C.W.L.

The July meeting of St. Peter's Sub-division of C.W.L., Seven Mile Bay was held in the church on Sunday afternoon, July 8th. The President presided and the meeting opened with the League Prayer by the Director, Father MacDonald. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. The treasurer gave her report showing a balance in the Bank of 336.96.

Some discussion took place on changing day of meeting, and it was decided to hold meetings on the second Monday of the month at 8 o'clock, for the summer months. It was also decided that each district take turns in providing flowers for decorating the altar for the summer months.

A letter regarding the Dignity Crusade to be conducted by the C.W.L. of Toronto, brought forth comments from several of the members regarding the salacious literature to be found in some of our news stands, and more diplomatically in some of the public institutions, and the lack of interest some of our Government officials have shown regarding this in the past. A committee consisting of Mrs. Noonan, Mrs. Carmichael and Mrs. Sutherland was appointed to look into this matter and make every effort to have a better grade of reading material provided.

A Ballot form for officers for Diocesan Convention was filled in. Collection amounted to 1.30. On motion the meeting adjourned to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

POSTNUPTIAL SHOWER

The Arlington Women's Institute were hosts on July 12 to a shower given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. David Williams, (nee Annie McLellan of Gran River) who were recently married in Toronto. The stage was tastefully decorated for the occasion with pink and white streamers, and baskets of American beauty roses.

The bride and groom were es-

Lewis-Stafford Wedding At Summerside

A quietly beautiful June wedding was solemnized at Trinity United Church, Summerside, on June 6, 1956 at 2:00 p.m. when Rev. Mr. Magnusson united in Holy Bonds of Matrimony, Iris Elaine daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stafford, Clermont, and Keith Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, Casumpepe.

The winsome bride was attired in an embroidered nylon ballerina length dress with full bouffant skirt with lily of the valley edging on collar and sleeves with rhinestone pin at neckline. The chapel length veil was held in place by a Juliet cap of white velvet flowers trimmed with Rhinestones. Elbow length nylon gloves, nylon mesh slippers, pearl necklace and earrings completed her costume. She carried a bouquet of white mums centered by red sweetheart roses.

Miss Joyce Stafford, sister of the bride was bridesmaid and was attired in an off the shoulder bal-coned to the seats of honor which were decorated for the occasion by Miss Doreen Dennis and Ralph McLellan. Mrs. Harold McIntyre played sweetly "Here comes the bride." The gifts were opened by Miss Sadie Winchester as Miss Doris Ramsay read the accompanying verses.

The Misses Margaret McArthur and Mary McLellan arranged the gifts on the table. The bride and groom were the recipients of many lovely gifts, including money.

Mr. Williams on behalf of his bride thanked everyone, and after everyone sang "For they are jolly good fellows," dancing was enjoyed for the remainder of the evening. Music was supplied by Mr. Elmer Robertson and Mr. Austin MacDonald. Lunch was served by the ladies, Mr. and Mrs. Williams will take up residence in Toronto.

termin length dress of moss green taffeta, over which there was a nylon net skirt. A scarf of nylon net covered her shoulders. Matching shoes, gloves, a headband of white tulle, a corsage and a bouquet of yellow mums completed her costume.

Groom, and groomsmen, Mr. Keith Lewis brother of the groom wore blue suits with white carnations in their lapels.

Mrs. Albert Stafford wore for her daughter's wedding, a blue flowered white nylon gown with matching accessories. Mrs. Harry Lewis was gowned in royal blue lace with matching accessories.

Following the ceremony the groom presented the bride with a beautiful gold watch and an initial triple photo-bracelet.

A combined reception and shower was held at the home of the bride's parents. Immediate relatives of the bride attended the wedding supper. The dining room was trimmed with pink and white garlands with a wedding bell directly above the table. The table was graced by a bowl of lilies of the valley from the beautiful garden of Mrs. Ernest Mill. The wedding cake centered in front of the bride and groom on a beautiful gold stand. It was topped by a miniature bride and groom. Grace was asked by the groom's father, after which the bride's father proposed the toast, responded to by the groom. Tea was poured by Mrs. Cecil Mill and Mrs. Gerald Mill.

Following the supper, upwards of two hundred guests presented the happy couple with many lovely gifts and extended their best wishes. The bride thanked one and all for their thoughtfulness and kindness. During the evening an old-fashioned dance was held to music rendered by Norman and Sydney Mills of Kensington.

Guests from Nova Scotia were Mr. and Mrs. Oral Boss, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Black, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Harrington and Miss Phyllis Boss.

The happy couple motored to Casumpepe where they were rendered another shower and from there they motored to Ontario for their honeymoon where they intend to reside for a time.

LET'S EAT

Dash Of Spice Perks Up Flavor Of Blueberry Pie

By Ida Bailey Allen

The Chef and I can't decide which one of all the delicious blueberry dishes we've been making we should give you today. The inspiration, of course, is those huge, luscious cultivated blueberries appearing in food shop windows everywhere.

WAYS TO SERVE

Of course, everyone likes cultivated blueberries served like any other fresh berry—in cream, with cereal, combined with other fruit and in muffins, puddings and pies. "But taste-testing has shown us something new," exclaimed the Chef. "A touch of nutmeg or ginger and a dash of lemon or lime juice are good additions. No matter how the big blues are used, these seem to bring out the richness of the natural blueberry flavor."

EXPERIMENT ALL YEAR

Once you start experimenting, we prophesy you will be enthusiastic, too. But if you don't find opportunity to use all the new ideas during the fresh blueberry season—which is a long one, from June to Labor Day—you can spread them out during the year; for the big cultivated blues are now being canned and also frozen in syrup or even with no sugar at all.

The Chef and I are proud to present our newest version of blueberry pie.

Two-Tone Blueberry Pie: Bake and cool a 9" graham cracker crumb pie shell, following instructions on cracker package.

Put 1½ c. fresh cultivated blueberries in a saucepan. Crush slightly with the back of a spoon. Add ¼ c. pineapple juice; simmer-broil 5 min. Remove from the heat. Stir in 1 pkg. lemon-flavored gelatin dessert.

When completely dissolved, stir in ½ c. sugar; and ¼ c. canned pineapple juice. Refrigerate until beginning to thicken.

Meantime, soften 8 oz. cream cheese with a wooden spoon. Blend in ¼ c. milk.

Line the graham cracker pie shell with ¼ of the softened cheese, spreading it with the back of a spoon. Refrigerate.

When the blueberry gelatin mixture begins to thicken, spoon it gently into the pie shell. Refrigerate 3 hrs., or until firm.

Garnish with the remaining cream cheese and whole blueberries. Refrigerate until served.

Mohday Dinner: Cole slaw with sliced radishes; sliced cold canned tongue; baked macaroni and cheese; baked corn-on-the-cob; two-tone blueberry pie; hot or iced coffee or tea or milk.

All measurements are level unless otherwise specified. All recipes proportioned to serve 4 to 6.

Baked Macaroni and Cheese: Boil 1½ (8 oz.) pkg. macaroni as usual. Add 3 c. rich cheese sauce.

Transfer to a low 3-pt. casserole. Dot with 2 tsp. butter or margarine. Brown in a hot oven, 400 degrees F.

Cheese Sauce: Make 3 c. white sauce by a standard recipe. Add 1½ c. corn-on-the-cob; sharp Worcestershire and table mustard. Stir until the cheese melts. Use as directed.

Trick of the Chef: Serve sliced cold canned tongue with a mixture of equal parts catsup and pickle relish.

Arrested with a bag full of shop-lifted clothing, two expectant mothers in Culver City, California, told police they just wanted to have something nice to wear when they went to the maternity ward.
