SUMMERSIDE — Rev. Mark Ferguson, MA, was installed as rector of the parishes of St. Mary's, Summerside and St. John's, St. Eleanors at an inspiring induction service last evening in St. Mary's Church presided over by the Lord Bishop of the Diocese Rt. - Rev. R.H. Waterman.

Also taking part in the service attended by a large congregation, were Rev. J.H. Minton of Crapaud who was bishop's chaplain, Dr. E.M. Malone of Charlottetown who preached the sermon and Rural Dean Rev. W. Eric Ingraham of Kensington.

Attending clergymen and their wives included Canon J.R. Davies and Mrs. Davies, Charlottetown, Rev. M.J. Findlay and Mrs. Findlay Port Hill; Rev. A.E. Piercy and Mrs. Piercy, Milton and Rev. M.R. Ness and Mrs. Ness, Alberton.

The organist was J.E. Penwarden.

Following the induction service a beautiful memorial window from the estate of the late Mary

A reception in St. Mary's Hall followed at which parishioners from both parishes had an opportunity to meet Bishop Waterman and their new rector, his wife and 12-year-old daughter, Gwyneth. Also in the reception line were Mayor W.A. Currie and church officials.

A delicious lunch was served by ladies of the congregation.

trade at the Nova Scotian Hotel, Halifax, Nov. 5.

L. A. Kitz, chairman of the Nova Scotia tourist committee of APEC, in making the announcement, said the theme of the seminar will be "Today's Tourists in the Atlantic Provinces".
