OBITUARY

MRS. GEORGE MACINTYRE

(Inserted by a friend) It is with a sense of deep regret and keen loss that we record the passing of a very dear friend, in the person of Mrs. George MacIntyre, who passed away in the King's County Memorial Hospital, Montague, at 4 a.m., Saturday, April 10th, 1965. At that moment she vacated the earthly house of her tabernacle, she, in the spirit, entered into that house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Mrs. MacIntyre possessed a fine christian character, which manifested itself to all who had the pleasure of knowing her. She was a loyal and consistent member of the Montague United Baptist Church, and at one time was its organist.

She was born in Georgetown, P.E.I., 77 years ago, the eldest daughter of the late Daniel J. and Lucy Irving MacLean in her own childhood the family moved to Montague, where she resided throughout her life.

Two infants, a sister Annie Mae, and two brothers, Fred and Haddon predeceased her. She is survived by her husband and two sisters, Clemmie and Lucy (Mrs. W.L. Vickerson), to whom we extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy.

Funeral service was held from Montague United Baptist Church conducted by her pastor, Rev. A.G.J. Steeves, assisted by Rev. Russell Burns, of Trinity United Church, Montague. Hymns sung were The Lord's My Shepherd, The Beautiful Land, and the Christian's Good Night by the Brooklyn Trio.
