Summerside CWL Holds Final Meet For Season

SUMMERSIDE — The regular monthly meeting of the Summerside Catholic Women's League was held June 13 in the K. of C. youth centre with the president, Mrs. Levl Gallant in the chair.

Correspondence read included a letter from Mayor J.E. Morrison which was read in the hospital here, he had been fortunate in occupying the room that is being built by the CWL and mentioned that the beautifully furnished and attractively painted room really added a sense of cheerfulness to the sick person.

The units then gave their reports. The following activities were also reported: Red Cross, spiritual, membership, citizenship, program, social service, careers and means, sick, canteen and education.

Mrs. G. O'Connor who spoke on education told the members that a meeting was held regarding retarded children and the speaker, Dr. M.N. Beck emphasized again the need for a school for retarded children. He stated in his remarks that there are now 1,150 retarded children on Prince Edward Island, not all of these are trainable of course, but nevertheless something must be done to help these unfortunate children, and donations toward this worthy cause would really be appreciated.

Mrs. Mark O. Gaudet, co-ordinator for guides and brownies, reported that a picnic is to be held for the two groups Saturday to the falls of the year. Mrs. Gaudet also suggested that tag day be held in July this year as the weather would be more suitable than in the fall when it is usually held. A suggested date was July 14 and 15.

Mrs. Clifford gave a report on the annual CWL convention which was held at St. Dunstan's University June 10 and 11.

The president informed the members that the regional convention for Prince County was held in Summerside this year the last part of September. The members were asked to assist and donate to two weddings and a banquet to which the league will be catering in a next few weeks.

A motion was passed to donate the annual prizes to the convent and high school for the closing exercises and also to the catechism teachers for their efforts during the year. Other donations agreed upon included the Catholic girls scholarship, the CNIB and also to give guides with special donations to two of the girls who were selected to go on girl guide tours.

Spiritual director, Rev. J.P. O'Hanley spoke briefly, stating that the league will be catering with the work of the league. He went on to say that after attending the CWL meetings during the past year he noticed that the members of the CWL are always ready to act as "good samaritans" which means that they are willing to give rather than receive. He said it is at this good virtue of charity which the league possessed impressed him very much. He also congratulated the members who kept their units active and mentioned again the need for a Catholic library saying that not only would it provide good Catholic education, but it would also serve as good reading entertainment.

The meeting was then adjourned with the prayer which was also reported: Red Cross, spiritual, membership, citizenship, program, social service, careers and means, sick, canteen and education.
