Drama, Music, Art Important To Education

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association of Spring Park was held in the hall on Wednesday evening, March 21. The president, Mrs. Earle Norrie, presided. Due to the illness of the secretary minutes were read by Mrs. Lloyd MacEvin. Guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Kenneth Parker, who was introduced to the meeting by Mr. Claude Wood. In his introductory remarks Mr. Wood pointed out that when Charlottetown secured the services of Mr. Parker as Supervisor of City Schools, this was one case of P. E. I. robbing another province of its talents. Mr. Parker chose as his subject for the evening "What are the factors in Education?" He very ably outlined and illustrated the basic factors in education—(1) The mind at no time ever acts as a single part of our body. (2) Interest theory, e.g. the child learns best when interested. Mr. Parker stated that drama,
