MONCTON, Oct. 13 (CP)—D. E. D. Roseman of Charlottetown, a Yugoslav immigrant today won the Maritime chess tournament held here during the holiday weekend. Halifax retained the team championship won in 1951 by nosing out Charlottetown. The host Moncton club placed third in 14 team competition. O. M. MacConnell of Halifax was runner up for individual honors.

One of the most beloved priests in Prince Edward Island, Rev. Richard H. Baines, died Sunday after a long illness. A member of the Holy Redeemer parish and a resident at the Home of the Redeemerist Fathers, he had come here in 1936 and since then had ministered to his parishioners faithfully.

Augustus Joseph Gallant, 36, was killed yesterday at Souris while working with a pile-driving crew at the Railway Wharf. There were few details of the accident, but it was reported he was working under the pile driver when a heavy support which guides the driving mechanism broke loose. Gallant was knocked into the water and was believed to have died instantly. The body was recovered almost immediately.

The St. Dunstan's University football team handed St. F. X. their first defeat in two years Saturday afternoon with a 5-0 victory over the Xaverians. Antigonish. It was the first time in 14 years that St. F. X. were defeated on their home field.

The win for the A. J. MacAdam coached Saints is believed to be the first that St. Dunstan's have ever scored over St. F. X. in football. It was the second win in two stars for the Saints this year and it leaves them still unscathed upon.

The thirteenth annual conference of the Maritime Young People's Societies of the Presbyterian Church in Canada was held in Summerside, Presbyterian Church over the Thanksgiving week-end, October 10, 11 and 12th. On Friday evening, the delegates from the four Atlantic Provinces received their billets and attended a service in the church. They were welcomed by Rev. Donald MacKay, the resident minister, Mayor Henry W. Wedge and Mr. Y.P.S. Greetings were brought from the Maritime Synod by Rev. E. H. Bean of New Mills, N.B., and from the Board of Christian Education by Rev. W. L. Young of Pictou, N.S. Miss Helen Andrews of Saint John, N.B., responded to the greetings.

The Imports, led by forward Jim MacKenzie, Hub Beaudry, Bob Gray and defenseman Wimpy Stevenson over-powered the Maritimers 12-3 last night in an Islanders inter-squad game at the Forum.

The game which was played before a good sized crowd of spectators featured heavy, clean checking with the opposing defenses laying it on. The game's bad man however turned out to be Hub Beaudry who drew the only penalty, a two-minute sentence for tripping.

The Imports raced into a 4-2 lead in the first period and upped the count to 7-2 by the end of the second. In the third the Imports outscored the Maritimers 5-1.

Wallace MacPherson, of Dominion, N.S. was elected President of the Maritime Conference Y.P. U. at the closing meeting of the second annual assembly held in the United Church Hall here yesterday morning. Members of the executive are: Evelyn Underhay, Bay Fortune, P.E.I.; Shirley Scotfield, Moncton; Marion Settle, Halifax; Ruth MacLeod, Glace Bay; Alma Burns, Halifax; Stewart Russell, Amherst, N.S.; Don Hiltz, Lunenburg; Joyce Chamberlain, Bathurst; Margaret Casey, Bedford, N.S.; and Jean Furray, Past President, Saint John, N.B.

325 registered delegates, representing eleven Presbyteries attended the opening banquet of the conference at Trinity Church Hall on Saturday evening, which was presided over by Miss Jean Furray of Saint John, N.B., President of the conference.

WEDNESDAY

A coroner's jury at Souris last night decided that Augustus Joseph Gallant killed Monday while working with a pile driving crew on the railway wharf at Souris, came to his death accidentally. They exonerated the operator of the machine, Angus MacLean Adams from all blame.

It was announced last evening by His Excellency Bishop Boyle that Rev. Dr. Patrick McMahon, Rector of St. Dunstan's Basilica, Charlottetown, had been elevated by His Holiness Pope Pius XII to the dignity of Domestic Prelate with the title of R. Rev. Monsignor, and that His Holiness had created the venerable medical doctor of St. Peter's Bay, Dr. Roderick J. MacDonald a Papal Knight of St. Gregory the Great.

The former Murray River School was purchased last week by a group of interested citizens to be used as a southern King's community centre. At a special meeting held last week it was decided that the building would be ideal for the purpose, and arrangements for its purchase were immediately made. At the present time money is being raised, and today the members are holding a white elephant auction sale and chicken dinner.

It is planned to have two bowling alleys in the basement, another The Prince Edward Island Art Society held its opening meeting of the 1952-53 season last evening with a well attended open meeting in the Harris Memorial Gallery. The program consisted of colour movies on painting and featured "Lismer" and "Seven Landscape Artists of Quebec."

Visitors were welcomed by the president, Mr. Vic Ruziz, who explained that presenting this showing was one of several ways in which the Art Society hoped to serve the community. He said that while the chief aim of the society at present lay in the creation of works of art, consideration was also given to appreciation of art.

Mr. Clyde Nunn, managing director of CJFX, Antigonish was the guest speaker last evening at an open meeting of the two Summerside Credit Unions, the Trinity Credit Union and the St. Paul's Credit Union members and their friends.

Mr. Nunn's talk was of an informal nature and dealt with his experiences down through the years in radio work and of his association with credit unions in the Province of Nova Scotia. The meeting was presided over by Mr. Cyrus Poirier, president of St. Paul's Credit Union who read a message of greeting issued to National Credit Union Headquarters ers by the Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, who wished to congratulate every success in the years to come and congratulations on the great success attained in the past.

A public inquiry into the water supply situation in the Village of Parkdale was opened yesterday morning in the Court House by Judge C. St. Clair Trainor who was recently named Commissioner for that purpose.

The Judge Trainor stated that the purpose of the preliminary meeting was to acquaint all parties with the object of the inquiry and to set in motion machinery for the co-ordination of the different points of view involved.

Commissioner Trainor stated that a hearing would be held on November 17 at the Court House. At this hearing it is expected that submissions will be offered by engineers for the Village of Parkdale.

HALIFAX, Oct. 14 (CP)—President A. E. Kerr of Dalhousie University tonight announced the award of 42 scholarships, including 37 entrance scholarships. Nearly seven and one-half miles of streets were paved in this city since the work was started this summer, according to a street report submitted by Councilor P. J. Murray at the regular monthly meeting of the City Council held last night. This was done by the Warren Paving Company.

At the same time the City itself paid 1.25 million with its own asphalt plant. Councilor Storey told the City Council that the total reconstruction being paved amounted to 1,348,500 square feet with a mileage of 8.71 miles, or 46,070,000 linear feet.

It was pointed out at the meeting that the only way the vast amount of work could have been accomplished was through the complete co-operation of everyone concerned. Mr. Storey paid tribute to the city newspapers for the fairness with which they presented the problems to the public and the encouragement they gave the workers on the job.

THURSDAY

Miss Shirley Cameron, a blue cord diploma trainer, the Girl Guides Association was guest speaker on Wednesday afternoon at the semi-annual meeting of the Girl Guides Association, held in Epworth Hall, Summerside.

The provincial commissioner, Mrs. G. F. Hutchison, presided.

Five hockey players signed contracts with the Islanders yesterday, bringing to twelve the number of athletes who have signed with the local club this season.

Three of those who signed yesterday were members of last year's team. They were forwards Connie Bonhomme, Hub Beaudry, Gary Gordon and defenseman George McLagan and Lou Killeby. Bonhomme, Beaudry and McLagan played with the Islanders last season.

Mr. Lorne McLean, president of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, Vancouver, presided in the city last night to attend the semi-annual meeting of the P.E.I. Institute of Chartered Accountants being held at the Queen Hotel this evening. Also present was the occasion, Mr. G. King, Director of Accountancy Research, Toronto.

Ten official H-Y delegates from the Charlottetown Y. M. C. A. have just returned from a most successful visit to Montreal last night by Mr. King, Director of Accountancy Research, Toronto.

The fact that Federal aid in education should be on a "need" basis rather than on a per pupil basis was emphasized last night by Mr. Bramwell Chandler, Provincial Department of Education, when he spoke as a member of a panel discussing the subject at the monthly Home and School Association meeting at West Kent School last night.

The chairman for the discussion was Mr. Walter Hyndman while Senator George H. Barbour represented the Government and Mr. James Murphy, Summerside, represented the P.E.I. Teachers' Federation.

ENJOYABLE AT HOME—More than two hundred friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. MacMillan paid their respects yesterday when they were at home during the afternoon and evening. The occasion marked the golden anniversary of their wedding which took place in St. Dunstan's Cathedral on October 14, 1907. A procession of flowers, telegrams and letters from friends in other parts of Canada and the United States, added to the pleasure of the occasion. During the afternoon Mrs. W. J. P. MacMillan and Mrs. D. J. F. MacMillan, while Mrs. S. J. Clair Trainor assisted in serving with Mrs. Fred MacMillan, Miss Helen MacMillan and Miss Margaret MacMillan. In the evening Mrs. Randolph Carruthers poured, and Miss Florence Owen, Miss Mahal

Adams and Miss Dorothea Stewart served.

The funeral of Reverend Richard H. Baines, C.S.S.R., took place yesterday morning from the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer where Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Very Reverend Daniel Ehman, C.S.S.R., Toronto, Provincial of the Redeemerist Fathers in Canada. Deacon and sub deacon were Very Rev. F. Coughlin, C.S.S.R., Quebec City, and Very Rev. H. I. Fleming, C.S.S.R., Saint John.

An eloquent tribute to the late Father Baines was delivered by Very Rev. Father Ehman.

His Excellency Most Reverend James Boyle, Bishop of Charlottetown, occupied his throne. Assistants at the throne were Rev. P. McKenna and Rev. P. F. MacDonald.

FRIDAY

Cigarettes estimated at a value of $1,000 were stolen from the Bonded Room of the Canadian National Railway here early Thursday morning. Entrance was made through a break in the main doors of the baggage room on Water Street followed by smashing a lock on the bond room door, which is located inside the main building. Railway Police are investigating the robbery.

The Charlottetown Branch of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., is making a determined effort this year to make the annual Poppy campaign the most outstanding in the history of the Branch. It was announced last night by Mr. Stanley Bryant, committee chairman.

The sale of wreaths has already commenced and will be followed on Saturday, November 1st, by a house to house canvass, and on Monday, November 3rd, by general street sales.

A reported shortage of potato bags here is more apparent than real. Col. G. E. Full stated last night. It has been caused by an accident to the ship leaving Calcutta, India, last July.

The ship did not sail on schedule and as a result there has been a shortage of the bags in Canada, although there is no shortage of jute in India. It is expected that the situation will be fully relieved by the first week of November when the cargo, due shortly in Montreal, is unloaded and shipped by rail to this Province.

Two new druggers in addition to those recently arriving at Alberton and now in operation out of that port, are scheduled to leave Port Grenville N.S. this morning for Charlottetown. Eldred Hutt and sons Harvey, Mort and Cecil will bring one of the druggers around to the Island with Alberton as its ultimate port of call.

The other will be under command of Henry Doucette of Tignish.

The Maritime Electric Company completed the extension of the high tension power line from O'Leary to Alberton yesterday. The wires were tightened and men set near Main Street at the corner of Church and Main Streets where a sub station is to be located to step the voltage from 13,000 to 2,300 volts. It is expected that the switch over from the present emergency system will be made some time during the weekend.

That the proper selection of staff was one of the most important functions of an office was emphasized last night by Mr. Lorn MacLean, president of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, Vancouver, in his address at the semi-annual dinner meeting of the P. E. I. Institute.

He was introduced by Mr. Randolph W. Manning, past president of the local Institute, who briefly related some of Mr. MacLean's past experiences in accountancy, especially in the corporation field. Mr. MacLean, who spoke at very short length, reminded the accountants present that the annual convention of the Canadian Institute would be held next year at Victoria, B.C., and extended a warm invitation to all to attend if possible.
