

Subscribers who do not receive their Daily Examers regularly each evening will oblige us by promptly reporting the same to us.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Great attractions at Beer Bros. Bass at the rink to-night the best ice of the season.

I. O. O. F.—St. Lawrence Lodge to-night. Second degree.

Centennial at Georgetown to-morrow night. A good time is expected.

Water frozen.—Last night the water was frozen in the pipes at the residences of a large number of citizens.

Dairymen at Kivorka.—Mr. Dillon will address a meeting of farmers on dairymen at Kivorka Hall on Thursday, 25th inst., at 2 o'clock p. m.

Good Cause.—Sabbath School. Only 16 cents to hear lecture on "My Trip to Scotland," by Rev. D. Sutherland, on 25th inst. See advertisement.

To-morrow Night.—The programme of the Entertainment and Readings to be held in St. James's Hall to-morrow evening, appears in another column.

Gentlemen are asking for the "Tyle" series now more than any other cloth, and the knowing ones see the stamp "Tyle" on every 2 1/2 yards before buying, thus avoiding any imitation.

Goose Down.—The young man, Spencer Amos, convicted of violating the Scott Act a week or two ago, and fined $50 or two months imprisonment, was gathered in by the police on Saturday night.

More Remissions.—Summons have been served on Mrs. Henry Connolly and Lucy Gallant for violating the Canada Temperance Act. They are for first offences, and are returnable on Thursday.

Terrible Roads.—Terrible roads are reported south of the Hillsborough. We are informed that upwards of two hundred large pickets have been counted on the road between Southport and Pownall—and there is no railway to take.

Valuable Purchase.—Mr. F. W. W. Boyd has purchased that part of the building on Queen Street occupied by the Charlottetown Club and by himself as an office (formerly Watson's Drug Store) from Mr. Rob Angus. The price paid is not stated.

At the Caps.—The boats crossed yesterday, and the mail was brought to the city about five o'clock in the afternoon. To-day the boats are crossing both ways. Forty-three bags of mail are coming this way, the boats having left Cape Tormentine at 11.35.

Choir Concert.—The choir of the Baptist church, assisted by some of the best city talent, intend giving a concert on Thursday evening, March 7th. Those who have attended other concerts under the same auspices will take pleasure in this announcement. Particulars later.

One Mile Race.—Jimmie Williams, John Dewar, John Flegher, will skate a mile for a purse of money at the rink to-night. Promenade tickets 10 cents; skating tickets 25 cents; ticket holders free. Ice in excellent condition, and a choice programme by Galbraith's Band. As the season is drawing to a close there should be a good house.

Does Not Seem to Know Us.—A gentleman of this city received a communication from a large firm in London, England, addressed as follows:

Charlottetown, P. E. Island, Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Valuable House and Lot at a Bargain.—As the subscriber intends leaving the Island in less than two weeks, he will offer at a bargain that pleasantly-situated dwelling on the corner of Great George and Easton Streets. House in A1 repair both outside and in; pleasant lawn, with ornamental trees, etc. For further particulars apply to A. Fulton, at the Bazaar Store, this week. $25 3/4.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.—Last night, at the Christian Church, the Rev. U. G. Miller preached on the subject, "If Christ should come to Charlottetown." Mr. Miller considered spirituality to be at a very low ebb in this city, and cited as proof of the fact during the Union Prayer Meetings all the Protestant ministers of the city combined were not able to fill one church, although there are twelve thousand people in the town. The Rev. gentleman attributed a great deal of this state of affairs to the card playing and dancing, which pastimes he denounced in strong language.

ANOTHER ACCIDENT.—The Guardian reports that a painful accident occurred last week at the residence of Mr. George Cadmore, Winslow Road. While they were thrashing, a little girl about eight years old was playing near the mill when her clothes became entangled around the main spindle, upon which the fly wheel is attached, and which was running at the rate of about one hundred and twenty revolutions per minute. It is not known how long she was in that position before she was discovered. Dr. Honeywell was at once summoned. He found the right leg badly broken and other parts of the body severely bruised and scarred. It is thought, however, that with great care she will recover.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon Margaret Ball, for a first contravention of the Canada Temperance Act, was fined $50 and $5 costs or two months imprisonment. The case against Duncan McMillan was adjourned until Monday next, the witnesses failing to appear. For a similar reason the case against Geo. Carter was adjourned until Tuesday. In Francis McKenna's case the officers have been unable to execute the warrant for the one witness summoned, and this case was also adjourned until Monday. Edgar McCarron was fined $12 or 60 days imprisonment for being drunk and disorderly. Michael Madden, for a breach of the Seaman's Act, was sentenced to four weeks imprisonment and for being drunk and disorderly he was fined $2 or 10 days.

LATEST NEWS NOTES.

Eighty-five cases of small-pox were reported in St. Louis, Mo., on Wednesday.

Six persons were burned to death recently in a boarding house fire at Hot Springs, Ark.

The resolution to repeal the laws banishing Jesuits has passed its third reading in the German Reichstag.

The Scotch lanks have reduced the rate of interest on deposits to one per cent., the lowest rate known.

Influenza is spreading rapidly in London, many members of the Houses of Lords and Commons being among the number.

The cotton spinners of England are debating whether to run their mills on half time for a while or stop them altogether.

An agent for W. K. Vanderbilt bought, at an auction sale of jewelry in London, a pearl necklace consisting of 39 pearls, with a diamond clasp, weighing 621 grains.

Berlin proposes to have an international art exhibition next year. The association of Berlin artists, with Anton Von Werner, the painter, at its head, has the matter in charge.

A statue is to be erected to Burns' "Highland Mary" on the rocks in front of Inverness Castle, on the Firth of Clyde, where she was slain and buried by the Duke of Argyle.

Mrs. Herman Oelrichs and Miss Virginia Fair will not be a party to any contest of the will of their father, the late James Fair, the California millionaire. Charles Fair will contest the will.

The safe of the Thomaston Savings Bank at Waterbury, Conn., was blown open by three burglars with dynamite, on Thursday night. They secured $2,000, but dropped $1,050, getting away with $950.

Mayor Hillis, of Des Moines, Iowa, was placed on trial before the council on Thursday. It is charged by four policemen that he disposed of certain privies for money which went into his own pocket.

The Boston fund for the relief of needy Newfoundlanders now amounts to $2,524, and additions are constantly being made by local subscriptions and by committees in Lynn, Salem, Gloucester and other places.

The resolution offered in the Manitoba Legislature by James Fisher, affirming the grievances of the Roman Catholics minority on the school question, was opposed by the government and defeated.

P. Bogdanoff, first Secretary of the Russian Legation at Washington, killed himself with a revolver on Wednesday. The only cause assigned for the deed is that he had suffered from neuritis since he arrived in Washington a month ago.

Herr Treitl, a Vienna hardware merchant, who died recently at 91, left 800,000 florins of his fortune to the Vienna academy of sciences, for the promotion of scientific research. He left a quarter of a million florins besides to charitable institutions.

In New York city an alderman gets a salary of $1,000 a year, and is elected for a term of two years. In Chicago an alderman gets $3 for every night of meeting he attends. In Charlottetown he has to be content with the honor which attaches to the position.

Several of the Paris newspapers publish attacks upon Baron Cromer, British agent and consul in Egypt, for his attitude towards the Khedive. The British deeply laments the apathy of France in regard to Egypt, and expresses the hope that she may speedily become aroused.

English newspapers, working in the interests of home products, have been making a fierce assault on American oysters this winter, and so successfully that the trade has been broken up. Last week only 260 barrels of oysters were sent to England, against 2,500 barrels in the corresponding week a year ago.

A fine of ten shillings has been imposed by the maritime authorities at North Shields upon Captain Gordon, commander of the Aberdeen steamer Craithrie, which ran into and sank the steamship Elbe. The offence for which the fine was scored against Captain Gordon was that he navigated the Craithrie to the north of mid-channel in the Tyne in going up that river last October.

A locomotive boiler exploded three miles west of Danbury, Conn., on Thursday morning. Alfred DeWittler, the fireman, was hurled out of the cab into a snow bank, and badly scalded by escaping steam. The engineer was unhurt. The noise by the explosion was terrific and awakened half the people in Danbury, who thought it was an earthquake. The escape from death of the engineer and fireman was miraculous.

Jacobites still exist in England. On the 30th of January, the anniversary of the execution of King Charles I., they held a memorial service and decorated his statue at Clearing Cross with flowers. On a card was the inscription: "Remember, O king and martyr, we have not forgotten. God save Queen Mary." "Queen Mary" is the niece of the last Duke of Modena, who is the oldest living descendant of King Charles I.

Four hunters were frozen to death in the woods of Alliance plantation, 19 miles below New Orleans, during the recent snowstorm. The men set out for a day's hunt in the woods. No fears were entertained when they remained out all night, but when they did not return next day, a searching party went out, and after much difficulty in struggling through the snow drifts the unfortunate men were found frozen to death.

A great resolution was created at Raleigh, S. C., on Thursday, by the adoption in the House of a resolution introduced by a negro, providing that when the General Assembly adjourns it adjourn in honor of Frederick Douglass. The resolution passed, 34 to 20, all the Democrats voting against it. A resolution to adjourn on February 22 in honor of Washington's birthday, which is a legal holiday in the state, was voted down, and the same body refused to adjourn in honor of General Lee on January 19.

Prof. Minas Tomeraz, editor of the Armenian, is informed by correspondents in Armenia that the Turkish authorities are making every effort to bring the famine, which suffered most keenly from outrages last fall. They are said to have promised Armenians in Sassoun to return the booty taken by the Kurds, to pay them 500 pounds indemnity and relieve them of taxes for several years in case the Armenians keep from the commission of inquiry all revelations concerning the abuse of Turkish rule. At Amassia, the jailers scourge Armenian political prisoners daily.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Joseph H. Macdonald, of Boston, is visiting her parents in this city.

His Lordship Bishop Macdonald will leave for Rome early in April, on official business.

Mr. Fred Robin has been appointed general passenger and freight agent of the Plant line, with headquarters in Boston.

Dr. Oronhyatekha, Supreme Chief of the Independent Order of Foresters, is expected to visit Prince Edward Island next June.

Mr. H. H. Sutherland, representing Scofield Bros., St. John, is here on one of his regular business trips. He is at the Davies.

There were registered at the Queen Hotel this forenoon: L. W. Leblanc, Montreal; W. A. Mason, Georgetown; C. C. Carlton, Souris.

Mr. A. W. Hayden, representing the Canada Paper Company, is here on a business trip. He is registered at the Hotel Davies.

Mr. Richard Walsh, formerly publisher of the Herald, and lately of St. John, N. B., is now employed as a compositor in the Government Printing Bureau at Ottawa.

There were registered at the Hotel Davies this forenoon: A. Stone, Montreal; A. W. Hayden, do; J. A. Sims, London; J. Robertson, Montreal; A. C. Cheverie, Mount Stewart; John Tapiques, Orillia.

Mr. Charles McKenna, of Superior, Wisconsin, son of the late John Arnold McKenna, Esq., was in Ottawa a couple of days last week, on his return from the funeral of his brother, the late Father McKenna, of the diocese of Ogdensburg.

Our readers will be sorry to learn that Mr. W. C. DesBrisay, of the Privy Council office, Ottawa, has been laid up for nearly a fortnight with a severe attack of bronchitis, and that it may be several weeks before he will be able to return to his official duties.

Mr. I. L. Miller has recently received information from San Diego, Cal., to the effect that his brother, Mr. W. J. Miller, formerly of Charlottetown, is critically ill. It will be remembered that Mr. Miller moved to California last fall on account of ill health.—Moncton Times.

It is reported that while crossing the Straits a few days ago, Mr. M. J. McDonald, of the Guardian, was so unfortunate as to go through the ice up to his neck.

This shows how extremely hazardous is the winter passage to and from Prince Edward Island. We hope that Mr. McDonald will not suffer more than the temporary chill consequent upon his unexpected ice-cold bath.

PERSONAL.

The People's Store

Interesting to Mat Makers.

JUST RECEIVED BY STEAMER STANLEY,

12,500 YARDS MAT LAWNS,

All Widths, All Qualities, Lowest Prices.

80 DOZEN STAMPED MATS,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL AT

THE PEOPLE'S STORE.

W. A. WEEKS & CO.

Charlottetown, February 22, 1895—135

ANNOUNCEMENT!

Messrs. Benjamin Hertz, Frank R. Hertz and W. A. Weeks' interest in the MCKAY WOOLEN COMPANY has been purchased by W. D. MCKAY and GEO. A. DIXON, who are now sole owners of the business.

We will have an important announcement for the public in a day or two. LOOK OUT FOR IT!

MCKAY WOOLEN COMPANY.

Coal! Coal! Coal!

FROM Dominion Coal Co's. Mines in C. B. ROUND, RUN OF MINE AND SLACK COAL.

Now is the Time to Purchase!

WE ARE LEADING ALL THE TIME, not misleading, and are gaining new customers every day. Town and country alike appreciate our style of business and are taking advantage of our reduced prices, knowing that we give them best value and fully from 25 to 35 cents per ton less than they formerly paid.

Victoria, International, Reserve, Dominion, No. 1, Cow Bay, ALL GENUINE COAL.

Old Bridgeport, Glace Bay, Caledonia.

PEAKE BROS. & CO., Dominion Coal Company's Depot.

Charlottetown, February 13, 1895.—cod&w

Sheetings, Pillow Cottons, Honeycombe Quilts, Marcella Quilts, Toilet Covers, Lace Curtains, A Good Assortment. HARRIS & STEWART, LONDON HOUSE. Charlottetown, February 21, 1895—dy

GREAT SLAUGHTER SALE

$13,500 Worth of Boots and Shoes, At Discounts from 20 to 30 Per Cent.

This Stock is nearly all new this season, and will afford a good opportunity to buy Boots and Shoes at unusual prices. Sale will commence at once and will continue for one month, and for cash only. No goods to leave the store until paid for. Goods once sold not taken back or exchanged.

J. B. MACDONALD & CO., Charlottetown, February 11, 1895—dy Opposite Market House, Queen Street.

TRY US AND BE CONVINCED

that our Flour is the best in the market (a number of brands to choose from). Our Tea is what pleases in quality, flavor and price. Our Oil is the best American. Our Canned Goods and Fancy Groceries are all that is desired to satisfy everyone. Our prices are as low as the lowest. And when in need of a barrel of Flour or anything in our line call on us and we will try and please you.

S. B. ENMAN & CO., Next to Woolen Mills, Cos Store, Queen Street.

Shoe Findings and Sole Leather.

We keep on hand a full stock of Shoe Findings, comprising English Hammers, Rasps, Eyelet and Hook Sets, Boot and Gaiter Web, Elastic Web, Shoe Thread, Wax, Hairs, Sand Paper, Machine Silk and Linen, Heel Ball, Steel Shanks, Knife Sharpeners, Awls of all kinds and Hafts, cut with measure Tapes, Rosin Sticks, Eyelets and Hooks, Peg Cuts, Nails of all kinds, including English Iron, Brass and Steel Wire, Pegs (all sizes), a fine selection of all kinds of Lasts, Leather and Rubber Cement, etc.

Also—A large supply of Upper Leather in French Calf, English Calf, French and other Kip, Kid, Goat and other lines of Leather.

In Sole Leather we have an excellent quality, all selling at the lowest prices. J. H. BELL, The Reliable Boot and Shoe Dealer.

Charlottetown, Jan. 26, 1895—dy

The Charlottetown Steam Navigation Co., Ltd.

Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting of the above Company will be held at their office, corner of Great George and Lower Water Streets, Charlottetown, on WEDNESDAY, the Sixth day of March, 1895, at the hour of Eleven o'clock, a. m. By order, F. W. HALE, Secretary.

TENDERS.

Tenders will be received by the under signed until the first day of March for the erection of an Episcopal Church in Souris. Plans and specifications to be seen at the office of Mr. A. E. Clark, railway station, Souris.

WILLIAM KNIGHT, Secretary. Feb 13—2w

TO LET—A cottage on Sidney Street, containing five rooms. Possession given February 2nd next. For other particulars apply to W. W. WALLACE. Jan 2

Fixing Up After Completing Our Orders.

A sample lot of COLORED KID GLOVES, in sizes 6 1/2 and 6 3/4 only, from 85c. to $1.75 per pair, is placed on sale to-day at 20 per cent. discount. Also, samples of BLACK CASHMERE HOSE, from 30c. to 75c. per pair, will be offered less 20 per cent. discount.

MUST BE CLEARED OUT! BEER BROS.

The weather—Fresh to strong southerly to westerly winds; fair to cloudy and blizzard; light falls of snow or rain at night in many places.

THE POINT OF SIGHT

is the first, foremost, highest and most important of all. Seeing is more than believing; it's pretty nearly the whole of life. Everything we do involves the question of sight. Glasses are the great sight makers, sight savers, and sight preservers. But for spectacles, the number of sufferers from blindness would be quadrupled. Whether you insure your life or not, do not by any means neglect to insure your sight, if in any way affected or abnormal, but come to us for properly fitted spectacles.

FISH! FISH!

WE HAVE ABOUT 100 Quintals Large Table Codfish, 100 Prime Herrings, 100 Boxes Boneless Fish.

Which we offer at low prices to clear. Orders solicited. MATTHEW & McLEAN, Souris.

EYE OPENERS.

This is a time of Bargains. We are giving them every day in BOOTS and SHOES. After you visit other stores try ours; you will not be disappointed. We have them for you. Why not take advantage of our offer at once? Yours for Shoes at the lowest possible price.

A. E. McEACHEN, THE SHOE MAN.

Farm For Sale. The subscriber offers for sale his valuable Farm, containing about sixty acres. House is in good repair. There are six outbuildings, some are newly built. There are two orchards, one containing sixty trees of different varieties of fruit. About one and a half miles from the city. Terms easy. C. BENNETT, feb13—3m dy & wky

Hardware, 1895

You ought to see those sets of Carvers, Game Carvers, Spoons, Dessert and Table Cutlery, Silver Knives and Forks, Razors, Razor Strops, English Pen Knives, Scissors by the pair and in cases, Christy's Carving Knives, Stove Mats, Fire Sets, Chopping Bowls and Knives, Granite Ware, Wringers and Sleigh Bells.

We are going to clear out the balance of our COAL HODS at very low prices, so if you want one just come along or send for what you require and we can do the rest.

D. M. RICHARDS & CO., Ch'town, Jan. 25, 1894—135 The Boys who Please the People.

Priestley's Cravenettes

(In light and medium-weight goods) Are not only rain-proof, dust-proof and porous to air but are extremely stylish and come in the following shades: Navy, Myrtle, Brown, Grey, Castor and Black. Cravenettes are universally admitted to be the only satisfactory porous waterproof goods on the market.

Furniture!

"Come on, McDuff, and woe to him Who first says 'Hold! enough?'" I have the largest stock, the greatest variety and lowest prices of any in the Furniture business. Our customers are delighted with the bargains they get. They advertise our Furniture. My sales are increasing. I am bound to meet all kinds of competition. Look out for great bargains.

JOHN NEWSON, Charlottetown, January 17, 1895—dy