S'ide Guides Return From Annual Camp

SUMMERSIDE—The Second Summerside Girl Guide Company returned recently from their annual ten day camp, held this year at the Y's men's "Camp Tamaway" at Grand River on August 18 to 27. The local troop was augmented by six girl guides from the Moncton and Pettoicote areas of N.B.

During the camping period variable weather conditions, from pouring rain, high winds to sunshine, challenged the camping abilities of the guides. They worked hard and enjoyed the preparation and field work necessary in the many and diversified fields of Guide training, combined with the frivolities of camp life, including swimming, soft-ball, movies, campfire singings and gadgetry.

The camp commandant, Mrs. A. Brophy of Summerside, P. E. I. was assisted by Mrs. B. Stearns of Moncton, N.B. with Miss Loretta Curves of Moncton, N.B. and Miss Ellen Brophy of Summerside acting as junior leaders in charge of extra curricular activities and a camp entertainment.

Individual and group swimming instruction was given by Miss Helen Carraspher, a qualified Red Cross instructor and at the end of the camp several swimming tests were given by Miss Frances Ann Cullen of Charlottetown. Presented Red Cross awards to successful candidates. Training leading to badge awards was carried on daily, under qualified supervision. Participants were tested for first aid badge by Mrs. H. Bateman of Moncton and for wooden badge by Mr. Frank Gaudet of Charlottetown.

The Sunday visiting day program proved of interest to the many parents and family members attending. It was composed of a soft-ball game a sing-song and skills, swimming de-

FILLEN'S DIARY

Summer Stops To Drift On The Quiet River Of Time

Echoes of the world without slipped today over the edge of our valley to linger clearly in the stillness of the air; sounds of the Hiawatha's tread are faintly heard, as if from a distance, as if from a dream, as if from a memory that has slipped away. It seemed, as though it would seek to have every mission accomplished, every journey completed, before the arrival of the weekend. Out of respect to Sunday, the thought came, but still, in the morning, when we came to the "Old River", the sound of evening shadows are falling, and the sweet peace of the Sabbath about gone, rests on the homes, and the farm, and the shore, into our awareness, inwardly, as the sun sets, and the sanctuary set down by pinners at a site where several beds meet the thinning grass, and the merchandise vans, several times to our living room, and the indifference of the present.

And for a moment the present fades. And on the margin of memory we are transported back to our young worshipings there. Little bits of traffic that would slip into the service. Only that if the odd Sunday carriage passes in the woodland, to shoo them out at the chopping block, leaving us to the white rosters chips for our fire, and so them

St. Eleanor's Cuele Mark 25th Anniversary

Relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carr of North St. Eleanor gathered at their home recently to celebrate with them on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Rev. Ralph Johnson, who acted as chaplain, presided at the service. The purpose of the gathering and presentations were made by their sons, Kenneth and Allan, of a host of TV tables; and Mr. Lloyd Carr and Mr. Victor Iman presented the couple with a swivel chair on behalf of relatives and friends. Several individual gifts were presented by Mrs. Frank MacRae.

Mr. and Mrs. Carr thanked everyone for their kindness and during the evening they received a telephone call from Mrs. Allan Fate of Ottawa, a sister of Mrs. Carr, and the only member of the family missing from the gathering.

The social hour was enjoyed with Mrs. T. H. E. Iman at the piano. Lunch, including the anniversary wedding cake, was served by the ladies.

A demonstration and a general tour of the campsite. The Sunday evening turkey supper followed by a bonfire proved to be a highlight of the week at camp.
